CONNECTING POINT

This week's Connecting Point reminds me of the children's book and film "The Wizard of Oz." As you'll recall, in the story the Cowardly Lion, the Tin Man, and the Scarecrow go to the Wizard so he can give them gifts that they already possess but do not recognize. In the process, the Lion discovers his gift of courage, the Tin Man, his gift of a heart, and the Scarecrow, his gift intelligence. Through their actions, they then reflect these gifts already present in them.

It isn't some "wizard," but God who gives each of us perfect gifts. In today's second reading, St. James reminds us: "Every perfect gift is from above." Each of us is called to be good stewards of these gifts, and recognizing them, put them in service of others. James tells us to "be doers of the word and not hearers only," and that pure Religion is "to care for orphans and widows in their affliction." "Widows and orphans" are code words for the marginalized and afflicted.

This week, we are called to name the gifts God has given us, with humility, we acknowledge that these gifts are not the result of our own doing, but come from God. We are to reflect those gifts in the service of the greater community.

Each of us has special gifts or talents. Some are good listeners; some have the gift of compassion and empathy; some have special artistic, mechanical, clerical, or business skills; some are good teachers; some have a particularly strong faith; some have the gift of passion for justice. Many of us have the gifts of time and material resources.

We thank God for these gifts and reflect them by putting them in service of others. There are countless ways of doing so; many groups and organizations are looking for volunteers who possess the gifts present in you!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

> Our true worth does not consist in what human beings think of us. What we really are consists in what God knows us to be.
>
> - St. John Berchmans

Too often on tv we see the bad in the people all over the world but through St. Vincent de Paul we see the very good in people. Our families are so grateful and thankful for our help. In turn, we are so grateful to our parishioners at St. Isidore that you help us help those in need. Thank you!

As you shop online or in stores this week, please keep our pantry list in mind. Our Pantry needs are:

- ☐ Toilet Paper
- ☐ Deodorant – Men's, Women's, Scented or Unscented
- ☐ Canned Pears
- ☐ Applesauce
- ☐ Canned Chicken
- ☐ Boxed Pasta – Penne, Rotini, Bow Tie
- ☐ Chili
- ☐ Pork and Beans
- ☐ Baked Beans
- ☐ Women's Large Depends (or store brand) – Pull Ups Only (not diaper style)

God Bless,
St. Isidore St. Vincent de Paul Society

BABY PANTRY

Thank you to the many wonderful people who have donated to our baby pantry. We are overwhelmed with your generosity! God Bless You.

We all have bad days. When we are hurting physically, mentally or spiritually, we can still reach out to others. Kindness toward others really does help us heal.

Lord, please teach me:

- to comfort those in tears,
- to give to the needy,
- to understand others,
- to listen to the voiceless,
- to pray for those in need.

If possible, please donate:

- ☐ A & D Ointment. Our pantry has very few on the shelf. Store brand or generic is acceptable.
- ☐ Size 6 diapers

> It's time for Christians to astound the world with our generosity, kindness, patience, courage, thoughtfulness, and selfless care for the weak, poor, and forgotten.
>
> - Matthew Kelly,
> The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity

We distribute everything you donate to needy families.
Thank you, thank you, and thank you!

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available in the office.

Prayer blankets and shawls are made by volunteers. We craft them with love from our hearts and care deeply about the recipients. We pray as we work and believe our work is guided by The Holy Spirit.

Our blankets and shawls are meant to be a blessing and a help in lightening the burdens and worries of those needing comfort.

> It is not a question of selecting those to whom I will dole out a few moments of compassion during the day. It is a matter of realizing that I need to become the neighbor who drops everything to attend to another's need. In fact, it is precisely on this that my final judgment will be based.
> - Sr. Kathryn James Hermes, F.S.P.

Please get one of our prayer blankets or shawls – free of charge - in the St. Isidore office for a person you know who needs comfort because of a medical, emotional, or spiritual crisis in their life.

Pray for those who need comfort.
Thank you for your participation in this ministry.

Consider joining your fellow parishioners (18 years and older) for a quiet, weekend retreat at the beautiful Capuchin Retreat House in Washington Township. Feel free to invite a friend, neighbor, or relative to join you.

These are silent retreats hosted by the Capuchins and their staff. There are opportunities for receiving the sacraments of the Eucharist, Reconciliation, and the Annointing of the Sick. There are several thoughtful talks and plenty of time to just enjoy the 90 acres of wooded pathways throughout the grounds. Participate as much or as little as you wish but, because this is a silent retreat, you can open your mind and heart to hear God's voice in an environment that is free of cell phones, TV, radios and life's daily interruptions.

The retreat begins on a Friday evening with a prayer service; breakfast, lunch, and dinner are provided on Saturday; Sunday there is a breakfast and dinner at noon. Private rooms with their own bathroom are also provided. The cost for the weekend is $225.

For more information, contact Dave Bisdorf at (586) 202-7000 by September 1.

DID YOU KNOW?

Have you ever been curious about Marian apparitions? How does the Church authenticate them? How many are there? Are there any happening now?

Fr. Chris Alar, from The Divine Mercy Center, addresses those questions in a series of talks. You can catch the introductory talk on Youtube. Every first Saturday of the month, he will be discussing an apparition in detail, starting in September. It is worth checking out.

Let's make time to speak personally to Jesus. Join fellow church members each Wednesday from the comfort of your home, workplace, etc., in spending 10 minutes in prayer anytime day or evening. Enlist your family, a friend, or perhaps you prefer a quiet place to meditate. Prayers can be formal or not, including singing or reading scripture. You could offer your work, a kind act, or make a sacrifice as your prayer. We are called to be a holy people (set aside for sacred use). As we focus our mind and heart on Jesus, He transforms us, re-creating us into the ones he designed us to be.

This week's Intention: The people of Afghanistan

> Pray at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication.
>
> - Ephesians 6:18

Suggested Prayer: One decade of the rosary: 1 Our Father, 10 Hail Mary, 1 Glory Be Suggested Activity: Throughout your day spend a few seconds asking Mary to cover these people with her mantle.

ROSARY MAKERS

Good news! Beginning Tuesday, Sept. 7th at 9am, Rosary Makers are meeting in the Executive Conference Room. New members are welcome to attend, no experience needed. Instruction and supplies are provided without cost and meetings are monthly. Work from home at your own pace, get together for fellowship, renew supplies, and drop off finished rosaries. COVID did not hinder members from producing rosaries for hospitals, the military, and many other organizations that are pleased to receive them.
