Thank you Deacon Bill

For 5 years of service to our community!

Changing of the seasons can mean most anything we want it to mean. In Deacon Bill's circumstance, today he is changing seasons from an active Deacon today, to a retired Deacon tomorrow. This past Monday, Deacon Bill celebrated 35 years of Ordination to the Diaconate. Over his career, in six parishes, I'm sure that Bill gave his very best to all to whom he ministered. I know that here, at St. Isidore, Bill gave his very best as Deacon. He taught Bible classes, wrote articles in the bulletin, preached, taught baptism classes, baptized, did many other things that benefited the parish. But the most important thing that he did, I believe, was make himself available to all who needed him, parishioner or staff alike, he was a gentle, listening ear. Bill, as you move into this next season of your life, know that we will miss you, but, at the same time we ask God's blessing on you and your family.

FR. RON'S RAMBLINGS

frron@stisidore.church

Happy Father's Day to all fathers and grandfathers-and all those who have been like fathers to our young people! We honor you today for all the sacrifices you make in nurturing your children and grandchildren. As part of the solemn blessings at the Nuptial Mass states: "May your children bring you happiness, and may your generous love for them be returned to you many times over."

Today, June 17th, Deacon Bill Stimpson is assuming "Senior Deacon, Inactive" status. Deacon Bill. who celebrated the 35th anniversary of his ordination last Monday, June 11th, has been serving us at St. Isidore for the past five years. He has been a valued member of our pastoral team, serving the parish primarily in his preaching, teaching, and his articles in the paper, as well as presiding at Baptisms and Wake Services, and representing us at various social justice events. I appreciate the many ways he has assisted me in my ministry as pastor.

Deacon Bill has a great love for and a deep knowledge of Sacred Scripture, and a passion for preaching. He is a very compassionate and faith-filled man. We thank him for his ministry with us. As you know, deacons serve the parish on a purely volunteer basis, receiving no remuneration for their ministry. Deacon Bill his been extremely generous in his ministry. We will be celebrating "Appreciation Receptions" for both Deacon Bill and Fr. Noel, who will be leaving our parish at the beginning of July to serve as pastor in Imlay City and Capac, following all of the Masses on June 30th and July 1st. Please plan on joining us! Let's keep Deacon Bill and his wife Joyce in our prayers.

Just one week until the Strawberry Festival!! Please see articles elsewhere regarding the festival and the need for volunteers. Please invite family and friends to join us throughout the weekend and enjoy our St, Isidore hospitality!

Blessings,
Fr. Ron

DEACON BILL

bill@stidsidore.church

A SINCERE THANK YOU

It hardly seems possible that I have been here at St. Isidore for five years, time has gone by very quickly. "They" say that "Time Flies When You Are Having Fun", and flies it does. I have greatly enjoyed being part of a genuinely caring staff who really does care about the parishioners. St. Isidore is my sixth assignment as a deacon. I have really enjoyed every assignment I have had as a deacon; I have been welcomed by every parish and ministry setting (chaplain at Beaumont Hospitals) I have served in over the last thirty-five years of ordination. Yet, in no other parish have I felt so much at home. Needless to say I have never worked with a "staff" before, until I came here to St. Isidore, but every person I worked with on staff here has been absolutely dedicated to serving the parishioners, not just to "do a job".

Deciding to "retire" is not an easy decision, regardless of age or physical condition. Rightfully or not, we invest a lot of our "self-understanding" by "what" we do; "where we work". Even though I am still, always a deacon, after today I will be "your former", my status is changed. After today, I am your fellow parishioner, not "your deacon". Yes, I will still be able to do anything and everything I did before I retired from parish ministry. Like priests, deacons are ordained for life. We do not lose our faculties to minister when we retire, instead they move from a parish base to a diocesan base. I am still available to the parish to provide services as needs arise, but I will not have regular assignments. Except!!! Fr. Ron has asked if I would consider continuing to write weekly articles.

As of now, it is my intention to continue to promote an urgency of social justice and mercy according to the Scriptures and teachings of the Church. I am firmly convinced that the extreme level of danger in society we experience today is that many good Christian people are failing miserably (myself included) in living Jesus' command to love one another as He loves. If I come off sometimes in my articles as a "finger pointer", I know full well that there are three fingers pointing back at me. I do not write my articles from a basis of success, but as a sharing of my interior struggles to love as Jesus does, those who, for what ever reason, I find less "attractive".

Thank you for your patience with me. Thank you for all the times you have challenged me to explain an idea more thoroughly. Thank you for being a welcoming parish. I am very happy to be a member.

"... a major theme in Scripture:
God is on the side of the poor and disadvantaged...
How might we care for the disadvantaged in our own time?...
Whatever we decide to do, chances are, we'll encounter our great and awesome God already there, befriending the individuals we are helping. Compassionate One, expand my heart to help someone in need I meet today."
(Sr. Melanie Svoboda, S.N.D.)

If possible, please donate:

- Baby laundry soap
