4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

CONNECTING POINT

This Sunday is Good Shepherd Sunday, a time where we celebrate the Lord's immense care for us. Pastors, the head priests at a parish, dedicate their entire lives to shepherd us closer to God. The word pastor is actually rooted in a Latin word meaning shepherd. It is very common on Good Shepherd Sunday to offer prayers for our priests. Outside of our priests, have you ever thought about the other people who have helped you to know God?

I would argue that every person who has showed us love, has helped us to get a glimpse of God: a mother who nurtures us with care, a father who stoically goes about the day always doing the right thing, a grandmother who teaches us how to cook, a grandfather who teaches us how to fish, an older cousin who sits and listens to us, a coach who leads a prayer before a practice or game, a teacher who humbly assists a student even when they are being intentionally difficult, a neighbor who shovels your walk or brings in your garbage can without being asked, or a boss who spends time to work with you so you perform better in the future. Acts of kindness and love abound, and each of the doers of these acts helps us to see God.

Of all of the beautiful stained glass windows at St. Isidore, my favorite is the depiction of the Good Shepherd. I am drawn to this window with its rich colors and the image of our Father holding us, the proverbial sheep, in his arms. It brings me comfort. I feel a similar comfort when reflecting on all of the wonderful people who have helped me to know God. Take

Help honors when to the bread that nourishes it adds the visit that consoles, the advice that enlightens, the friendly shake of the hand that lifts up the sinking courage; when it treats the poor man with respect, not only as an equal but as a superior, since he is suffering what perhaps we are incapable of suffering; since he is the messenger of God to us, sent to prove our justice and our charity, and to save us by our works.

-Blessed Frederic Ozanam

Antoine-Frédéric Ozanam (April 23, 1813 – September 8, 1853) was a French literary scholar, lawyer, journalist and equal rights advocate. While he was a student, he and a group of friends gathered to have lively discussions and social teachings of the Gospel was a favorite topic. At one meeting during a heated debate in which Ozanam and his friends were trying to prove from historical evidence alone the truth of the Catholic Church as the one founded by Christ, their adversaries declared that, though at one time the Church was a source of good, it no longer was. One voice issued the challenge, "What is your church doing now? What is She doing for the poor of Paris? Show us your works and we will believe you!"

As a consequence, in May, 1833 Ozanam and a group of other young men founded the charitable Society of Saint Vincent de Paul for the sanctification of its members by personal service to the poor. Innumerable Catholic parishes have established "conferences," most of which affiliate with a diocesan council. Among its varied efforts to offer material help to the poor or needy, the Society also has thrift stores which sell donated goods at a low price and raise money for the poor. There are a great variety of outreach programs sponsored by the local conferences and councils, addressing local needs for social service. Blessed Frederic Ozanam's birthday was this past Friday.

The parishioners of St. Isidore have restocked our pantry so well that we only need $25 gift cards from Kroger and Meijer for emergency fresh food. Thank you!

Also, our St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store on Van Dyke is open to receiving other types of donations (clothing, books, houseware, decorations, etc.) that we cannot accept. God bless.

BABY PANTRY

We give daily prayerful thanks to all parishioners who fill our baby pantry shelves. Please continue to bring in items we request as these are the most needed.

However... we ask that you do not donate used clothes to us. We cannot distribute these items. Our baby pantry does accept new children's clothes sizes 6 months to 2T with tags still attached.

Our mission is to reach out to very low-income single moms and families with infants and toddlers under the age of two. It is through you, the St. Isidore parishioners, in your name, and with your donations, that our ministry is able to do this work of evangelization. We are very grateful for all of your donations.

Our current pantry needs are:

- Boys summer clothes sizes 2T and 24 months
- New toddler books

Christian living is about being 'touched' by Jesus so that the fleeting moments of glory are made permanent in bettering the lives of others. And so we bring the tenderness of Christ to all persons who are destitute and forgotten. In this way Christ touches others through us.

We thank you for your generosity!

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets and shawls are available. Call the office during normal business hours.

Our Prayer Blanket/Shawl Ministry always prays for the recipients of our hand-crafted items. We encourage you to pray for those who receive comfort from your gift of a blessed blanket or shawl. Praying for our friends is so important because sometimes they fight battles they'll never share with us. We need to make sure they're covered with prayer and comfort.

There are times when we know people who need comfort and prayer. Sometime or another, everyone faces serious problems: sickness, the death of a family member or friend, depression, disappointment, frustration, you name it. People need comfort. Where shall they find it? In God, of course, and through us, as Jesus called us to do.

The "love of neighbor" command is ours to embrace. We can bring this love to someone by a visit and a gift of one of our prayer blankets or shawls.

Please give a prayer blanket or shawl, which are available through the Church office, to someone who needs comfort this week. There is no charge for these items. Get and give a blanket or shawl to a person you know. Call the office 586-286-1700 to arrange your pick-up of one of these items.

Thank you for your participation in this ministry. "The Comfort Crafters"

S.I.T.E. RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

As part of our Lenten journey each S.I.T.E. teen was given $40 (funds collected from our summer bottle drive) to be used in Random Acts of Kindness. The only 'rules' were: they were encouraged to pray to see where the Holy Spirit would lead them, they needed to donate to at least two different organizations/needs and they were to journal their donations and experiences. Each week will be featured a teen's journal.

Mindy:

- DAKOTA HIGH SCHOOL FOOD DRIVE: Went to store and bought canned food to donate to "Cougar Closet" at school. It felt good to help out in the community, knowing I was able to provide a student with something they couldn't get themselves.
- ST. JUDE'S HOSPITAL: When I was younger, a kid I went to elementary school with sadly passed away from cancer at age of five. I chose to donate to St. Jude's in memory of him, hoping it will help other kids with cancer.

- Family Friend in Vietnam: My Mom's friend (from Vietnam), is not as fortunate as us. She struggles to provide for her family. Every year my Mom sends over money and I decided to give the rest of my money to help her out. I felt happy being able to help someone that I knew needed help.

Let's make time to speak personally to Jesus. Join fellow church members each Wednesday from the comfort of your home, workplace, etc., in spending 10 minutes in prayer anytime day or evening. Enlist your family, a friend, or perhaps you prefer a quiet place to meditate. Prayers can be formal or not, including singing or reading scripture. You could offer your work, a kind act, or make a sacrifice as your prayer. We are called to be a holy people (set aside for sacred use). As we focus our mind and heart on Jesus, He transforms us, re-creating us into the ones he designed us to be.

This week's Intention: Signs of God's Presence

Suggested Prayer: Father, make me aware of Your Presence today. You scatter precious treasures throughout my day for me to enjoy; signs of Your care. Open my eyes to actively seek them. Let me not rush through my day so I will take a moment to fully appreciate them and give thanks to You for these blessings. Amen.

Suggested Activity: Signs from God are personal and often quite simple. Is it for you the sun breaking through the clouds, the song of birds, someone's smile, a phone call from a friend, a job well done, laughter of children, a delicious meal? Take time today to find the treasures God has just for you.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2016 while celebrating Mass on the feast of All Saints, Pope Francis spoke about the need for a new set of beatitudes "to confront the troubles and anxieties of our age with the spirit and love of Jesus." He came up with six. Here are three of them:

Blessed are those who remain faithful while enduring evils inflicted on them by others and forgive them from their heart.

Blessed are those who see God in every person and strive to make others also discover him.

Blessed are those who renounce their own comfort in order to help others.
