THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

HOW WILL
Christ's Instructions
HELP ME FIND MY WAY?

CONNECTING POINT

As I write this, I contemplate the printed message on my tea bag as it steeps, sending effervescent, enticing aromas of cinnamon, orange and cloves into the air.

“When the dreadful past calls, let it go to voicemail. It has nothing to say.”

Although we do learn from our past, our failures, our disappointments, losses and our historical tragedies, we cannot allow the past to be the force that drives us into our future. Dwelling in the dreadful past paralyzes us, whereas patient waiting in joyful hope enables the Holy Spirit to guide us in the ways of truth.

In Saint Pope John Paul II's Ascension Homily, 1979, he says:

In the providence of God – in the eternal design of the Father – the hour had come for Christ to go away. He would leave his Apostles behind, with his Mother Mary, but only after he had given them his instructions. The Apostles now had a mission to perform according to the instructions that Jesus left, and these instructions were in turn the faithful expression of the Father's will.

The Apostles were further instructed to “wait for the Holy Spirit,” to teach and proclaim the Good News, sharing Christ's promise of Salvation and that he would come back again. Jesus said these things in 33 A.D., and among others, Saint Pope John Paul reminded us in 1979.

In 2021 we find ourselves

yet in the midst of a dreadful pandemic, the likes of which most of us have never know in a lifetime. Yet, Jesus reminds us in Scripture, and in the wisdom of our Clergy, that He is still with us and that the Holy Spirit will come into and through our own prayerful reflection and patient waiting.

Being patient in the Holy Spirit could be like waiting for a nice cup of tea to steep. Each day is a new day and a new opportunity to welcome the Holy Spirit into our life journey to find our way along the path. Lord Jesus, bless us as your Joyful Missionary Disciples as we embark on our daily mission with fresh resolves for the future through the power of your Holy Spirit.

Due to the pandemic, we are unable to host our Strawberry Festival for the first time in its more than 60 year history. While we are not able to fully bring it back this year out of continued concern and care for the safety of all who attend, we are bringing some of the best parts in what we are calling “a small taste of the Strawberry Festival.”

Save the date of June 27. On that date we will be performing the main and theme raffle drawings after the 5:30 PM Mass. Additionally, we have a drive thru Polish Dinner from 1-5 PM. No, it is not the festival we know and love, but it is a step in the right direction. Your support of this year’s offerings will help us to strengthen our financial position as a parish while participating in some fun and tasty opportunities. More info coming soon!

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Technically, the date of the Ascension is Thursday, May 13, however our Archdiocese of Detroit (as many throughout the world) has dispensed the obligation on that day moving it to the following Sunday.

No matter what day celebrated, this feast commemorates Jesus’ ascension into heaven 40 days after his resurrection. The God-Man Jesus Christ returns to the Father and promises to return again in the future.

The Ascension is the final component of the Paschal Mystery which consists of the Passion, Crucifixion, Death, Burial, Descent among the dead and the Resurrection. As a final punctuation to this Mystery, the Ascension (along with the Resurrection) functions as proof that Jesus was truly the Messiah. This is the final blow to Satan’s power and the means of showing us the way to the Father’s glorious kingdom.

I can’t even imagine how destitute His disciples must have felt when Jesus left them at this final time. Their fearless leader, gone, they probably felt ditched, helpless and even unable to continue at times. Recent times in our lives have been filled with similar moments as we have navigated the worst pandemic in a lifetime.

Yet by virtue of our Baptism, we are called to be Joyful Missionary Disciples. Even though we can’t see Jesus, enjoy fish on the beach or a boat ride with Him, we can rest in the Body of Christ, and all He has given us; the powers imbued in His Holy Church and the Celebration of Eucharist the source and summit of our lives as Catholic Christians.

I wrote an extra joyful Entrance Antiphon for our celebration of Ascension to help remind us that although times have been extremely tough lately, Jesus is still with us in deeper ways than we can even imagine.

May we all live in hope of one day being in God’s heavenly kingdom with Jesus forever!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Do you really know the living Jesus - not from books but from being with Him in your heart? Have you heard the loving words He speaks to you? Ask for the grace; He is longing to give it. Until you can hear Jesus in the silence of your own heart, you will not be able to hear Him saying 'I Thirst' in the hearts of the poor. Never give up this daily intimate contact with Jesus as the real living person - not just the idea.”

- Saint Mother Theresa

Bring one of our blankets or shawls to someone you know.

Our partnership with you is a special one created by faith, nurtured by love and blessed by God. We cannot fail if you remember to take a comfort blanket or shawl to someone who is sad or suffering. Suggestion: As you read the bulletin, search the sick list for the name of anyone you know. Deliver one of our handmade blankets or shawls to that person. We have many testimonies from recipients who tell us how comforted they are with this gift of prayer and warmth.

Our items are wrapped with ribbons and prayers for the recipient. See photo below! You can include a complimentary blessed rosary with the blanket or shawl. Rosaries are hand made by our St. Isidore Rosary Ministry.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

FAMILY OF PARISHES MEETING

MONDAY, MAY 17

You are invited to meet your new family! You are invited to attend a series of Family Gatherings, an opportunity to learn more about our transition to Families of Parishes.

Each one of us is called to go and make disciples, to share the Good News. That's what's behind our move to Families of Parishes. We want each one of our Families to be places where people can encounter Jesus anew, grow in faith as disciples, and be equipped to be his witnesses.

The next meeting will be held on May 17 and will aim to deepen those new, faith-founded relationships and begin to grow together as disciples. This meeting will be held virtually. To learn more and sign up to attend: stisidore.church/family-of-parishes/

One way to do this is through Small Group ministries. This can be done in-person or virtually and there is no cost to participate. If you are interested in Small Group opportunities to connect with others like yourself contact Chris Kozlowski at: chris@stisidore.church.

DID YOU YOU KNOW?

The Rosary is a powerful weapon against evil. But have you stopped to figure out why?

The human will is powerful because it is a sharing in God's power. He gives us the will to choose to do good or to do evil - and that will, in and of itself, is a powerful weapon in the spiritual realm. Satan seeks to enslave us and incapacitate our will.

Satan hates the Rosary. He hates Mary. He hates the gospel. He hates God. He hates Christ the Lord. He hates you. Every time you pray the Rosary, you are entering a territory that Satan wants to claim as his own. He wants control over your will, speech, imagination and emotions - but you take that from him. God does this very deep healing work in individual lives and in the world in this most accessible and easy way.

Fr. Dwight Longenecker, National Catholic Register

Let's make time to speak personally to Jesus. Join fellow church members each Wednesday from the comfort of your home, workplace, etc., in spending 10 minutes in prayer anytime day or evening. Enlist your family, a friend, or perhaps you prefer a quiet place to meditate. Prayers can be formal or not, including singing or reading scripture. You could offer your work, a kind act, or make a sacrifice as your prayer. We are called to be a holy people (set aside for sacred use). As we focus our mind and heart on Jesus, He transforms us, re-creating us into the ones he designed us to be.

This week's Intention: Spiritual Warfare

Suggested prayer: Recite one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and one Glory Be aloud.

Suggested Activity: When temptation comes, fight back with these prayers. Consider including the rosary at least once a week to help yourself and the world. Please see Did You Know? article.

S.I.T.E RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

As part of our Lenten journey each S.I.T.E. teen was given $40 (funds collected from our summer bottle drive) to be used in Random Acts of Kindness. The only 'rules' were: they were encouraged to pray to see where the Holy Spirit would lead them, they needed to donate to at least two different organizations/needs and they were to journal their donations and experiences. Each week will be featured a teen's journal.

MAY IS MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH

As the number of cases of COVID-19 increases, so does the associated anxiety. For the general public, the mental health effects of COVID-19 are as essential to address as are the physical health effects. And for the one in five who already have mental health conditions – or the one in two who are at risk of developing them – we need to take personal, professional, and policy measures now to address them.

Our mental health is in constant flux and ebbs and flows on a daily basis. Many things can impact this including our physical health. The connection between our physical body and our mental health is important and may be something worth exploring when thinking about staying mentally healthy.

The COVID-19 pandemic has had a major effect on our lives. Many of us are facing challenges that can be stressful, overwhelming, and cause strong emotions in adults and children. Public health actions, such as social distancing, are necessary to reduce the spread of COVID-19, but they can make us feel isolated and lonely and can increase stress and anxiety. Learning to cope with stress in a healthy way will make you, the people you care about, and those around you become more resilient.

Stress can cause the following:

- Feelings of fear, anger, sadness, worry, numbness, or frustration
- Changes in appetite, energy, desires, and interests
- Difficulty concentrating and making decisions
- Difficulty sleeping or nightmares
- Physical reactions, such as headaches, body pains, stomach problems, and skin rashes
- Worsening of chronic health problems
- Worsening of mental health conditions

Increased use of tobacco, alcohol, and other substances

It is natural to feel stress, anxiety, grief, and worry during the COVID-19 pandemic. Below are ways that you can help yourself, others, and your community manage stress.

Healthy Ways to Cope with Stress

Take breaks from watching, reading, or listening to news stories, including those on social media. It's good to be informed, but hearing about the pandemic constantly can be upsetting. Consider limiting news to just a couple times a day and disconnecting from phone, TV, and computer screens for a while.

Take care of your body.

Take deep breaths, stretch, meditate, or pray.

Try to eat healthy, well-balanced meals.

Exercise regularly.

Get plenty of sleep.

Avoid excessive alcohol, tobacco, and substance use.

Continue with routine preventive measures (such as vaccinations, cancer screenings, etc.) as recommended by your healthcare provider.

Get vaccinated with a COVID-19 vaccine when available.

Make time to unwind. Try to do some other activities you enjoy.

Connect with others. Talk with people you trust about your concerns and how you are feeling.

Connect with your community- or faith-based organizations. While social distancing measures are in place, try connecting online, through social media, or by phone or mail.

Helping Others Cope

Taking care of yourself can better equip you to take care of others. During times of social distancing, it is especially important to stay connected with your friends and family. Helping others cope with stress through phone calls or video chats can help you and your loved ones feel less lonely or isolated.

If you are struggling to cope, there are many ways to get help. Call your healthcare provider if stress gets in the way of your daily activities for several days in a row.

During times of extreme stress, people may have thoughts of suicide. Suicide is preventable and help is available.

Free and confidential crisis resources can also help you or a loved one connect with a skilled, trained counselor in your area.

If you are in crisis, get immediate help:

OFFERTORY REPORT

AS OF 5/10/2021

Please consider helping out the church during this difficult time by making any contribution that you are able. We greatly appreciate and need your generosity now more than ever!

*Now that we have surpassed our CSA goal, every dollar given to the CSA will be returned to the parish in full. As a reminder, monies received through CSA are not assessed by the Archdiocese (7%) nor are they part of future CSA calculations (14.5%).

Just text STISIDORE to 77977 for the safest and easiest way to support St. Isidore
