CONNECTING POINT

 John Kovacik - RCIA Coordinator  rcia@stisidore.church

But you are not in the flesh;
on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you.

Romans 8:9

There's a lot to unpack in that question above! As I prayed on it, I kept coming back to the main theme of the readings this week; Resurrection Hope. This Fifth Sunday of Lent challenges us to focus our desires on sharing in eternal life with the risen Lord. But how do we do that and how do we connect the idea of resurrection with the Spirit and God's forgiveness? Let's start with the word "resurrection," which comes from the Hebrew for to "rise up." We can think of "rising up" in a few different ways. There's the literal way to take it, and we hear of the rising up of Lazarus in the Gospel. But there are other ways to think about "rising up."

When I was a young boy, I was blessed to get to sit with my Papa out under the carport at his house in Detroit. We would share a Sprite and he would tell me stories about his time behind the wheel. My Papa was a truck driver for Anheuser-Busch for many years. He would tell me about some of the "sticky situations" he would get into on the roadways and always told me "Johnny, you have to rise above and forgive people when they act nutty." "Rise up" and forgive! God commanded us to forgive one another not seven times, but seven times seventy! But sometimes we may need a "nudge" to help us ask for that forgiveness. Cue the Holy Spirit. It is the Spirit, the Advocate, that resides within us and urges us to "rise up" and forgive like Christ taught us. It's the Spirit that can work through us to show God's forgiveness to others.

We are called to be witnesses and to forgive like Christ forgave. May this Lenten season continue to challenge us to "rise up," listen to the Spirit's nudge and let the Spirit use us as joyful missionary disciples to spread God's love and forgiveness.

▶ Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition

👤 Michelle Lang - Evangelization Committee

Vatican International Exhibition of Eucharistic Miracles will be on display 3/30/23 - 4/5/23.

Why: Many Christians, including some Catholics, do not believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. In fact this teaching is clearly supported by the Bible (see Jesus' promise of the Eucharist, Jn. 6; the institution narratives in Mt. 26: 26-28, Mk 14: 22-24, Lk 23:19-20; and warnings against abuse 1 Cor. 11: 27-29). Some believe the mystery but do not grasp its implications or its dynamic power to impact their daily lives. Eucharistic miracles are a gift from God that recall us to the deeper meaning of this mystery of our faith.

Pope John Paul II started his encyclical letter on the Eucharist, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, with the simple yet profound statement: "The Church draws her life from the Eucharist." Apart from Jesus, we can do nothing (John 15:5). So, whether it is an honest day's work, playing with the kids at the park, leading family prayer, visiting the sick, feeding the poor, teaching RCIA, or rescuing babies from abortion, it is all possible because of Jesus. It is this same Jesus who is present in the Eucharist. So whether we realize it or not, the power of Jesus in the Eucharist enables us to live out our faith. The Catechism puts it this way: "the Eucharist is the sum and summary of our faith" (CCC 1327).

In Ecclesia de Eucharistia, the Holy Father reminds us: "Every commitment to holiness, every activity aimed at carrying out the Church's mission, every work of pastoral planning, must draw the strength it needs from the Eucharistic mystery and in turn be directed to that mystery as its culmination. In the Eucharist we have Jesus, we have his redemptive sacrifice, we have his resurrection, we have the gift of the Holy Spirit, we have adoration, obedience and love of the Father. Were we to disregard the Eucharist, how could we overcome our own deficiency?" (#60)

The importance of the Eucharist to our daily lives cannot be overstated. This exhibition can help reawaken or deepen our Eucharistic faith, draw us into a more intimate relationship with Jesus, and bring about a renewed commitment to, and enthusiasm and fervor to live our Christian faith more dynamically as individuals and as a parish.

To learn more about the exhibition, or to help bring it to other parishes, schools, or other organization, visit www.rpamichigan.org.

▶ Divine Mercy: Chaplet

As we move along discussing the letters in the acronym F.I.N.C.H., today we look at C = CHAPLET.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed on ordinary rosary beads. Jesus directed Faustina: First of all you will say one OUR FATHER, one HAIL MARY and the I BELIEVE IN GOD. Then on the OUR FATHER beads you will say the following words: "Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."

On the HAIL MARY beads, you will say the following words: "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion have mercy on us and on the whole world."

In conclusion, three times you will recite these words: "Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world." (Diary 476)

Vatican II tells us that by virtue of our Baptism, we participate in the three offices of Christ: Priest, Prophet, and King. The Chaplet is powerful in that it enables us individually to use our priestly power to offer atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

Jesus promised those who pray the Chaplet:

- "Will receive great mercy at the hour of death... Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy." (Diary 687)
- "The souls that say this chaplet will be embraced by My Mercy during their lifetime and especially at the hour of their death." (Diary 754)

Say this chaplet daily. Pamphlets can be found in the Gathering Space. Next week we look at the last letter in the acronym F.I.N.C.H. H = HOUR.

▶ Lenten Giving Tree - 2023

👤 Jenny L. Racette, Lenten Giving Tree Chairperson

This week's article will focus on Cross Catholic Outreach: Wells of Salvation - Ghana, Malawi and Zambia.*

Description: Families in Ghana, Malawi and Zambia face a daily struggle for survival, in part because they lack access to safe, clean water. By providing their communities with clean water, improved sanitation and new opportunities to feed and educate their children, you can help the Church empower these families, enabling them to escape extreme poverty.

Project Summary: This project will install 69 wells, build sanitary latrines with 25 toilets, and provide valuable training in communities battling frequent drought conditions and problems with waterborne diseases. This outreach will also build three new schools and add two classrooms to an existing school. Together, this range of development efforts will help end the burden of water scarcity, enhance educational opportunities, improve public health and foster the holistic transformation of poverty-stricken communities.

Location: The three Dioceses are:

- The Diocese of Wa in Ghana's Upper West Region
- The Diocese of Karonga in northern Malawi, and

- The Diocese of Chipata in Zambia's Eastern Province

Highlights:

NEED

- In rural Sub-Saharan Africa, much of the population relies on unreliable, inadequate water sources — typically contaminated streams or ponds, or poorly constructed wells. This murky water is often tainted with animal waste, parasites, bacteria and chemicals that can cause serious illnesses.
- Many poor families end up spending an exorbitant amount of time and energy on water collection, which robs them of valuable hours better spent on work or the education of their children.

IMPACT

- Ghana: With your help, we can fund two wells to serve 941 people in two communities and 25 sanitary latrine toilets that will serve 1,331 in three communities. This outreach will also build three new schools and a teachers' quarters for a community with no other local school options. We are also funding medical housing and a multi-purpose building.
- Malawi: Your support will also help us drill 12 wells for

Thus says the Lord: "Share our bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them."

Isaiah 58:7

communities in need of a clean, reliable water source. The water supply produced will benefit 4,300 people! We are also constructing a two-classroom building for an existing school to alleviate overcrowding.

- Zambia: With your help, we can fund 55 wells for 56,904 people in need of clean water.

Respectfully in God's Love.

▶ Power in Prayer

This week's Intention: An Increase of Faith

And there was a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years, and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. She had heard reports about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. For she said, "If I touch even his garments, I shall be made well." And immediately the hemorrhage ceased; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

Mark 5:25-29

Suggested Prayer: Meditate on the above Scripture and pray as the father of a boy with convulsions cried out to Jesus, "I believe; help my unbelief." Mark 9:24

Did You Know? April's Fool Day

Some historians speculate that April Fools' Day dates back to 1582, when France switched from the Julian calendar to the Gregorian calendar as called for by the Council of Trent in 1563. In the Julian calendar, as in the Hindu calendar, the new year began with the spring equinox around April 1. People who were slow to get the news or failed to recognize that the start of the new year had moved to Jan 1 and continued to celebrate it during the Always be impartial and just in your deeds. Put yourself into your neighbor's place, and him in yours, then you will judge fairly... Frequently, therefore, examine your heart, whether it is so disposed towards your neighbor, as you would have his disposed towards you, were you to change places; for this is the true test.

► Prayer Blanket Ministry

Imagine this: You bring a prayer blanket to a person with a heavy burden, a friend or relative who does not know that many people are praying for them. God answers those prayers and brings calmness and peace to that someone who is suffering, hurt or distressed. And... you become God's messenger!

Each of us needs to find our own personal best way to touch the lives of others. We need to honestly identify the ways in which our lives and our works will have real impacts in the lives of those who most need us.

During this Lenten season, let us pray for the grace to put our Catholic Faith into action.

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the church office for your family member or friend with a serious illness or a need for comfort. There is no charge for these items. All people need comfort and the knowledge that others care about them. Please get and give a blanket or shawl to a person you know.

You can include a complimentary blessed rosary with the blanket or shawl. Rosaries are hand-made by our St. Isidore Rosary Ministry.

Your Comfort Crafters pray for every recipient of our hand-made blankets and shawls.

Thank you for your constant support.

► Baby Pantry

We all should, hopefully, try to put love into everything we do. An attitude of love accomplishes much. Today let us look for ways to be a blessing to someone.

Our pantry needs:

- Similac sensitive formula, powdered, in a can
- Fragrance-free, sensitive baby wipes
- Baby wash
- Size 6 diapers
- Breast feeding pads
- Goodnights nighttime underwear, size S/M
- A & D PREVENT ointment (no zinc). Generic is ok.

If anyone you know, yourself included, is low-income, has an age two or under child/children and is seeking assistance for the first time, please follow these directives:

- If you live in Macomb County and have a Macomb

County WIC card, call the Baby Pantry Office anytime at (586) 745-9501. Please leave a voice mail message. A Baby Pantry volunteer will return your call as soon as possible. Our normal hours are Tuesday and Thursday 9:00-11:30.

- You must provide proof of residence, your WIC card and verification of live birth for your age two and under child/children.

We are here to help. Call us. We help low-income families carry the cross of suffering and pain.

We are blessed! INDEED...

God bless all of you for your help!
