CONNECTING POINT

Thomas said to him, 'Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?'

Jesus said to him, 'I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.'

John 14:5-6

My experience has taught me two essentials for relying on my faith in Jesus when I haven't known the way; community and prayer. I went on a Cursillo weekend in October, 1992 where I experienced God's love for me, in Jesus Christ, through the witness of a community of men who shared their walk with Christ. Afterwards, I joined one of their small faith sharing groups called A Group Reunion. We met every Saturday morning for breakfast where we shared our struggles and successes in living out our journey with Christ through prayer, study, and action.

Over years of this sharing and support, I became increasingly aware of not being fulfilled in what I was doing for a living. At the time, I was in retail management for a convenience store chain. I began to think and pray about what changes I wanted to make to be a better disciple of Christ. I had several great ideas of what I could do: get into HR, train other managers at my company to change the culture to be more Christian, I also explored opening my own business with a close friend. However, way in the back of my mind I had this inkling that Jesus might be calling me to something more radical, to give up everything, and enter the seminary. I didn't bother to explore that one.

In January, 1997, I was a part of a team of men putting on a Cursillo weekend. On that weekend, the Spiritual Director's talk was about discernment of God's will in our lives and how we need to stop asking in prayer what we want to do and start asking God to show us what he wants us to do. It was as if he was speaking directly to me. I began that day to ask God to show me very clear signs of what he wanted me to do to follow Jesus as his disciple.

Within the next several weeks, all of my great ideas fell apart; the HR position dried up, I was demoted from training managers to being a store manager, my friend and I found a wonderful location to open up a coffee house café but, at the last minute, the deal fell through. We lost five thousand dollars and I didn't hear from my friend for two weeks. All of this would have devastated me, if it were not for my small group and my daily prayer for God to show me clear signs of what he wanted me to do.

One of the men of my small group asked me, "ok, what's left?" The only thing left was the one thing I had discounted, to explore entering the seminary. The next day I called the same Spiritual Director from the Cursillo weekend and we subsequently met. I told him everything and when I got to the part about exploring the seminary he began shuffling through some papers and said, "Yep, there is a discernment experience down at the Seminary this weekend." He made a phone call, wrote me a letter of referral and the positive signs began to guide me in the direction I would have never chosen on my own.

Through six years of seminary and nearly 19 years of priesthood, there have been many times I wasn't sure which way to go. I continue to pray for God to show me clear signs of his will. Then, I rely on my faith and the faith of the community supporting me to see and follow those signs with courage and Easter joy. Although there are still good days and bad days, I can honestly say that I am fulfilled and secure in the fact that I'm where I'm supposed to be. Jesus has never failed me. My faith tells me Jesus will never fail you either.

Peace and Love in the Risen Christ

▶ CSA 2023

The 2023 Archdiocesan Catholic Services Appeal (better known by the acronym CSA) kicks off in May. Here at St. Isidore, we are getting an early start to this annual campaign with the hopes of again realizing success. The official CSA letters were mailed out the last week of April. We are asking everyone to return their CSA envelopes in any of the collections during the month of May OR to set up a recurring gift using our online giving platform: <https://stisidore.church/give>

Supporting the CSA is the best way to support the good works of St. Isidore. Additionally, CSA enables the Church in Detroit to carry out Christ's ministry of mercy and love throughout southeast Michigan and beyond; works no one individual or parish could possibly do alone.

If you've not supported the CSA in past years, we ask that you consider doing so this year. Even the smallest, recurring gift can have a big impact. Thank you in advance for prayerfully considering your support.

Accompaniment

One of the most inspiring Gospel accounts of Accompaniment is Mary's visit to Elizabeth. Mary remained a long time. True Accompaniment is an investment in friendship that yields trust and confidence. When we sit with a friend and can be together without the haste of hurry to be somewhere else, friendship takes on a Marian character.

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

We are called, as disciples, to go out and actually do what Jesus taught and did. When we follow Jesus this way we are doing what Jesus said his disciples would be doing in today's reading: "...whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these..." Jesus said "greater," because there are more of us sharing his message.

Do you want your teen to feel that they belong? Do you want your teen to be part of something bigger? Do you want your teen to build confidence, faith, and compassion? If you answered yes to any of these questions, have them join our teen mission trip next summer.

FAMILY TIME

At a meal this week, talk as a family, about how you shared God with others that day.

▶ Prayer Blanket Ministry

If someone trusts you enough to share their pain, their struggle with anxiety or depression, or just how rough things are for them, please give a prayer blanket or shawl (available in the Church office). Our items are handmade, unique, wrapped with ribbons and include prayers for the recipient. There is no charge for these items. Get and give a blanket or shawl to a person you know.

“Maybe today there is someone you know who is ‘down’ and needs you to let them know they are special.

See what happens when you try, with God’s help, to build someone up.” (Pastor Mike Lutz, retired from Immanuel Lutheran Church)

We started our Prayer Blanket and Shawl Ministry in July, 2018. Since then, with your help, we have distributed many hundreds of blankets and shawls to comfort people in need. We are grateful that you bless your family members and friends with our hand crafted items.

“I comfort you in all your troubles

so that you can comfort others.” (2 Corinthians 1:4)

A short prayer: Dear Jesus, help me see those around me who need my assistance, my prayers, and my love. Thank you. Amen.

Your participation in this ministry is vital to our work. Thanks to you, we are able to touch the lives of others.

▶ Baby Pantry

Let us thank God for his amazing creation: spectacular sunsets, fragrant flowers, beautiful birds... And the blessing of babies!

Our current requests:

- Fragrance-free, sensitive baby wipes, 56 or more in a pack
- Gift Cards to stores that stock baby and toddler items (Kroger, Meijer, Walmart, Target, Kohls). Put in an envelope labeled “Baby Pantry.”
- Baby shampoo (We have very few on the shelf.)

“Gift” items for low-income moms who never have enough money to buy something for themselves are always welcome. Any lotions, fancy soaps, creams, hair products, shower gels, “pretty things” that are donated to the Baby Pantry will be given to a local low-income lady in need.

A thought: By donating, we help those who really need to know that, indeed, people care about them, even if they do not personally know them.

Let us think of ways to touch the lives of others each and every day with the love of Jesus.

Thank you, all of you, for your generosity.
