THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Deacon Jeff Loeb ↗ jeff@stisidore.church

Reflecting on this week's Connecting Point, reminded me of a wonderful experience I was able to witness last weekend. I presided over a couple's wedding ceremony. As a deacon, being able to receive and witness the consent of a couple as they freely choose to give the gift of themselves, is inspiring! Each person willingly gives of their entire selves to one another, irrevocably, forever. Their gift of love to each other resembles the Holy Trinity, proclaimed in our gospel message this weekend. God loved us so much, he gave his only son to redeem us and bring us back to him. That love was returned from the Father, by the Son, and from that love breathed forth the Holy Spirit, where we receive the gift of grace. We sometimes think in ways that God created, Jesus saves, and the Holy Spirit imparts grace. However, it is all three that create, redeem, and sanctify. Husband and wife mirror that activity as they come together as one, to create new life, guide each other to holiness, and help each other get to heaven. Their union is the sign of the most Holy Trinity.

As missionary disciples of Christ, we are tasked to go forth and share the good news of the gospel with others. We are tasked to break down the walls we surround ourselves with, figuratively and physically, in relationships with our fellow human beings. We start with our relationships between husband and wife, created in God's image and likeness. Our relationships are a model of peace, harmony, and love which should characterize our life with each other as a community. This is how we can be inspired to build communion from our home, out to our world. If we have communion with God, we will have communion within our family. Then we can have communion with all others, as a people of God.

We can see what happens in our world when we take God out of our lives, schools, and community! It is broadcast on the evening news. Our lives become fragmented and we feel divided. But, if we remember the time that we are brought together in marriage, or have witnessed the absolute joy on a couple's face as they exchange vows, we can catch the sign of trinitarian love. Love that overflowed from our creator and touched all of humanity, restoring communion with each other and our Lord.

Have a wonderful week!

▶ K OF C BREAKFAST - THANK YOU

St. Isidore Church: Thank you for your attendance at the May 21 pancake breakfast. What a great turnout! With your help and support, the money raised will be used for the benefit of others.

We hope you enjoyed the food and the fellowship of this breakfast. It was very nice sharing breakfast with you. As always, your generosity and continued support of our events is greatly appreciated, as they would be fruitless without your involvement. We pray for your safety during the forthcoming summer. We hope to see you at our next Pancake Breakfast on October 1.

God Bless You and Yours,
Knights of Columbus - Council 7200

Would you like your life to change forever, in a good way? Oddly enough, not many people have stepped out of their comfort zone to venture into this ministry. And yet, those who have done it will tell you it changed their lives forever. What is this life altering secret? Taking Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist to the homebound.

How does it work? The parish office will provide you with the name and contact information of the recipient. You then reach out to them, introduce yourself, and work out a schedule that fits both of your needs. Maybe your weekends are swamped and week days work better for you, or maybe you work and are only available on weekends or evenings. Recipients are usually very open and accommodating unless they have doctors visits, therapy, etc., that dictate their schedule.

Remember we are all part of the priestly ministry of Jesus, our great High Priest. Your visiting with the homebound and bringing them Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, along with bringing yourself in Jesus' caring way, is a blessing for both of you.

If you are interested or have questions, contact Debbie Rak at (586) 286-1700.

Calling all 2023 High School and College Graduates of St. Isidore Church. Come and celebrate your accomplishments with your parish family on Sunday, June 11, 2023 at the 9:30 AM Mass.

Graduates are invited to wear their gowns to this Mass. (Schools will release the cap and gown early if you mention you are attending a graduation Mass at your church.) You are encouraged to also wear cords, sashes, medals, etc., but please, no caps.

Mass will be followed by a complimentary breakfast for the graduate and their family provided by our Knights of Columbus!

We would like to publish each of our graduate's pictures in the bulletin and on our website. In order to meet the bulletin deadline, we must have your picture submitted by Monday, June 5.

To RSVP for Mass and/or reception you can do so either electronically (preferred) at stisidore.church/graduation, or return the form below with a photo to the parish office. (Pictures dropped off will be returned at the reception.)

▶ Power in Prayer

This week's Intention: Creation

Suggested Prayer: Almighty Father, Creator of the universe and all that it in it, help me to appreciate the beauty of your world. I want to be a good steward of all you have given me to enjoy and take care of. I thank You for the gift of my life and all the people that You put in my path. Out of Your goodness I live and move and have my being. Let me love You back by loving others. Amen.

Suggested Activity: Spend some time in nature observing it's beauty and thanking God for His loving plan.

▶ Prayer Blanket Ministry

We are sent to continue the mission of Jesus. His ascension and sending of the Holy Spirit makes His mission our mission. It is a great miracle and mystery that God chooses to make us participants in His plan of salvation and sharers in His divine life. Spirit of God, show us the way.

Stop in the church office during normal business hours to pick up a free blanket or shawl. Our ministry offers these hand-made items to parishioners for their family members and friends who are sick, grieving, recovering from surgery, going through medical treatment or other difficult times in their lives.

Your visits, phone calls, and cards to lonely, depressed, or sick individuals can be enhanced by bringing a blanket or shawl from our ministry to a person you know.
