CONNECTING POINT

👤 Amy Righi - Music & Liturgy Director ✉️ amy@stisidore.church

In our Gospel, for the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus (John 5:51-58), Jesus says, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever."

At Mass, we are fed in Word and Holy Eucharist: the Living Bread. Yes, Communion is Living Bread, not just a symbolic host/sip of wine. In Communion, we receive Christ and His divine graces, most of which we are not yet capable of totally understanding.

We invest ourselves in faith, that the hour we spend in church with our parish family, will help us to be reminded and transformed into the less stubborn/more forgiving, less accusing/more understanding, less rattled/more loving people God desires us to be. God knows what we need, way more than we do ourselves, alone.

I often wonder who I would become if I did not go to church. In my human weakness, I would potentially succumb to: negative thoughts, foul language, personal assumptions. I would become more freely judging, less forgiving and more spiritually isolated, crabby and self-absorbed, in this troubling and treacherous world. And, I would probably make more excuses for doing so.

In a recent message, Fr. Joe Dailey shared, "Church is not a place you go to, it is a place you emerge from." At Mass, Jesus invites us out of ourselves to places of higher thinking, praying, living, and loving others. We still may fail, but He always invites us back. Mass is a powerful reset button. Although, our specific expectations of what happens (to us) at Mass may often fall short (i.e. boring message, bad music), we must trust that God works on us therein. Eucharist gives us the power to begin again and reveal the Living Bread in how we emerge and glorify God with our lives.

As bread and wine are transformed into the true Body and Blood of our Lord at Mass, we are transformed by the Life-Giving Bread of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Although, we do not totally understand either transformation, we must believe that we, like the bread and wine, we are being changed for good, each time we make the spiritual investment in devoted time together.

Attending Mass, I receive the Living Bread not only to grow closer to God, but to be fed and formed on life's journey. Otherwise, I would remain a lump of clay; motionless and distant from the Potter's wheel.

▶ Pretzel Sale - Thank You

Thank you to everyone who purchased our delicious pretzels and for supporting Right to Life. None of this is possible without my wonderful pretzel makers. So, I send a special thanks to Pat Styf, Laura Schmitt, Kristin Battaglia and family, and the Bruck family. Thank you also to all my ladies who helped sell pretzels after each Mass. Together, we continue to help the innocent babies that God has created!

Many blessings,
Debby Bruck

▶ The Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist - Part I

In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. The whole Christ is truly present -- body, blood, soul, and divinity -- under the appearances of bread and wine, the glorified Christ who rose from the dead. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.

Where is the Eucharist mentioned in the Bible? The Lord Jesus, on the night before he suffered on the cross, shared one last meal with his disciples. During this meal our Savior instituted the sacrament of his Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the ages, and to entrust to the Church a memorial of his death and resurrection. The Institution of the Eucharist is written down in the four Gospels below:

- Matthew 26:26-30
- Mark 14:22-26
- Luke 22:14-20
- John 6:22-59 (The Bread of Life Discourse)

Power in Prayer

This week's Intention: Sacred Heart of Jesus

Suggested Prayer: Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore You, I love You, and with a lively sorrow for my sins I offer You this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in You and for You. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

Did You Know? Sacred Heart of Jesus

“In the Gospels, Jesus’ heart is moved with pity for the crowds (see Mt 9:36) and He tells us that He is gentle and humble of heart (Mt 11:29). The Sacred Heart of Jesus that began beating in the womb of the Blessed Virgin more than 2,000 years ago still beats today in the glorified humanity of the Risen Christ. And it will pulsate forever, pumping out the grace, mercy and life of God to all of humanity. In the Heart of the Lord, we experience the overwhelming mercy of God and His infinite desire to be in relationship with us.”
