11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Fr. Chris Talbot, Pastor - St. Francis / St. Max ✉ eljefetalbot@hotmail.com

Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give.

Matthew 10:8

As I began preparing this week's Connecting Point reflection, frankly, I got stuck. Is it even possible for me, as a limited human being with all my faults and failings, to give without limits? On this Father's Day, I think of how fathers are called to give their whole lives in generous service to their wives and families. If, and when they do this whole heartedly, they become wonderful reflections of our Heavenly Father's love. But again, let's be honest, can any of us really live that "without limits" given our human weaknesses? This radical generosity that Jesus calls us to, seems impossible.

Then, I had an encounter after Mass

on Tuesday that provided a key for me. After removing my vestments, I went back into church to ask our deacon for his help with something. He was talking quietly to one of our daily Mass goers, Kathy. As I approached them, I saw she was crying. Not wanting to intrude on their privacy, I took a step back to wait for them to finish. Another parishioner happened down the aisle and also noticed Kathy crying. As she passed by, she said something to the effect of "it will be ok." Kathy spoke up explaining that it was much better than just ok. In fact, she had been crying tears of joy. She shared that for some time now, she is often struck by just how good God is to her and it overwhelms her with thanksgiving and joy, to the point of tears. She mentioned that, throughout her whole life, even at times when she had wandered away from him, He was always so... so good, whether she deserved it or not. She feels she just has to share His goodness with everyone she encounters.

It then struck me, the key to giving without limits is to focus first and foremost on the first half of the line of the Gospel in order to live the second. "Without cost you have received." You see, Kathy is so overwhelmed with the unlimited gift of God's love that she has and continues to receive, that her thankfulness propels her to share that gift generously with others. Her focus is not on the cost of the giving, but the greatness of the gift. If you ask anyone who knows Kathy, they will tell you how much she has touched their lives with her generous gift of self. She demonstrates that the more you genuinely receive and cherish the gift of Christ's Love, the more you yourself become the gift, able to give without limits.

▶ The Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist - Part II

Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?

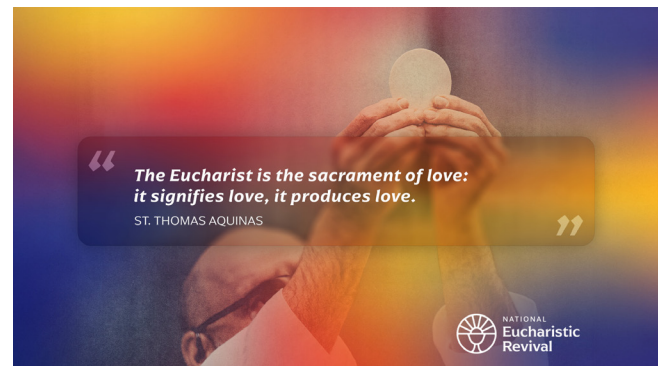

Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist as spiritual nourishment because he loves us. By eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ in the Eucharist, we become united to the person of Christ through his humanity. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him" (Jn 6:56). In being united to the humanity of Christ, we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life.

Is the Eucharist a symbol?

The transformed bread and wine are truly the Body and Blood of Christ and are not merely symbols. When Christ said "This is my body" and "This is my blood," the bread and wine are transubstantiated. Though the bread and wine appear the same to our human faculties, they are actually the real Body and Blood of Jesus.

The document "The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church" was developed by the Committee on Doctrine of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). It was approved by the full body of the USCCB at its November, 2021 General Meeting and has been authorized for publication.

Our Hymnals Need a Home

With the automation of having our music displayed on the screen at our liturgies, the need for hymnals has become unnecessary. With that, we're in the process of trying to find homes for them. If interested in a book or two, please stop by the office. They are free of charge (because you already paid for them at some point) and ready for pick up. First come, first served.

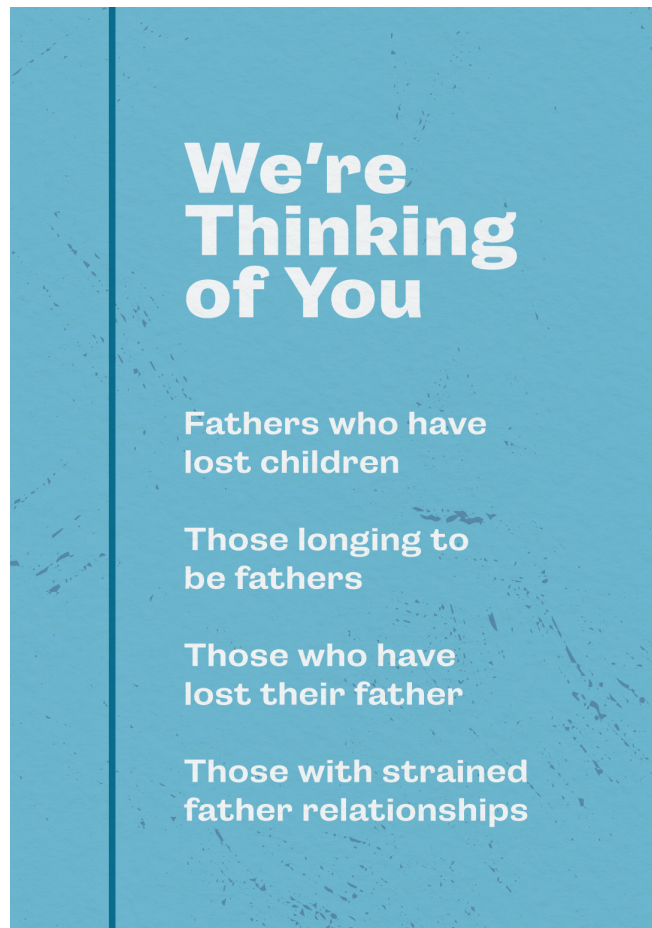

Registration for Vacation Bible School is now open!

- July 24 - 28 / 9:15 AM to 12:30 PM
- $20 per child
- All forms are available on the KIOSK in the Gathering Space or in the Parish Office.

▶ Power in Prayer

This week's Intention: St. Joseph's Intercession

Suggested Prayer: Memorare to St. Joseph

Remember, O most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who asked for your help and sought your intercession was left unaided. Full of confidence in your protection, I hasten to you, and beg your protection. Listen, O foster-father of the Redeemer, to my humble prayer, and in your goodness hear and answer me. Amen.

Did You Know? St. Joseph

God chose a faithful and loving man to foster His Son on earth. Joseph, through many trials and dangers, cared for and protected Mary and Jesus. Joseph mentored Jesus in his trade and in the Jewish laws and customs, preparing Jesus for the road ahead. Joseph, a model of fatherhood, help all men follow your virtues of self-giving love and perseverance.

▶ St. Vincent de Paul

I am sent not only to love God but to make Him loved. It is not enough for me to love God, if my neighbor does not love Him.

► Prayer Blanket Ministry

It's Father's Day!

If your dad is ill, lonely, or depressed, please get one of our prayer blankets for him. It's a great way to show him love and assure him that others are praying for him.

Our ministry has many caring volunteers who pray for the recipient. The blankets and shawls made by our volunteers are for parishioners to give to family members and friends who need comfort. These prayer blankets/shawls are available free of charge in the parish office.

We ask that you share this ministry information with other parishioners and thank you for your participation.

Thank you,
The Comfort Crafters

"We love because he first loved us." (1 John 4:19) Love gives. God so loved the world that he gave his Son. In dying for us, we have the forgiveness of sins. By trusting in Jesus, we have his love and can share that love with someone else. Look for different ways to give love away and experience the real joy of loving.

Retired Pastor Mike Lutz, Immanuel Lutheran
