12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Elaine Rhein - St. Francis / St. Max 📧 elaine.rhein@gmail.com

“Do not be afraid.” (Matthew 10:26)
Four amazingly simple words. There is a claim that between the Old and New Testament this phrase (or a form of it; i.e., fear not, have no fear, be not afraid) is referenced 365 times – which equates to one for each day of the year. So, these words must be difficult to live by.

Studies show that 85% of the things we worry about never happen. We can agree that is a lot of time and energy wasted, when we could utilize it on more useful things, such as exercising, reading, volunteering... and yes even golfing. Or would it be better for us to use this extra time in another way?

First, we have to identify our fears. Sure, we can begin with the typical list of snakes, spiders, heights, mice... Or we can go with sickness, death, cancer, failure... Or we can go with homelessness, loneliness, forgetfulness, depression... The list of possibilities is endless, but I do not necessarily think these are the fears that Jesus is talking about in today's Gospel.

Throughout scriptures we are told that being a follower of Christ is not going to be easy, so perhaps that is where some of our fears come from.

For many of us, we fear that we are not smart enough to speak about our faith. Sure, we have a strong belief in God, but we do not know how to talk about God, much less quote a Bible verse. That is where other Christian faiths have us beat in their ability to quote scriptures – but that should not hinder us. We know God exists in our heart and our soul – we just need to get more comfortable with the idea of speaking about our faith and our beliefs.

Many of us fear what the future might bring, so we are constantly wondering about what is going to happen. The human characteristics of wanting control can play havoc on our daily lives, but what good does it really do? A lot of time and energy is wasted on wanting control of things we truly cannot control. Our faith teaches us that God is in control not us, yet we still continue to try.

Then there is the fear of not being accepted by others. We all want to be accepted by the people we meet, by those we love, the people we work with, and the strangers we meet. As Christians we are taught that we are to live the Gospel, yet we find it difficult to talk about our faith to a fellow believer, much less with someone who does not share the same beliefs. Unfortunately, many of us struggle with speaking about our faith because it is not necessarily acceptable to our society today.

So, we need to start worrying less about things we cannot control and utilize that extra time and energy on something we can control – our own personal relationship with God. As Catholics we have countless ways to do that. We have to find our own distinct way of communicating with God (prayer, scriptures, bible study...), then our own unique relationship with God will develop, and fortunately we will find ourselves becoming more comfortable with the person God created us to be. It will be through that comfort and acceptance that we will develop the courage to speak up about our faith, and our love of God to others.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus said to the Twelve, "Fear no one... What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops" (Matt 10:27). As we go through our busy week, let us try to "let go" of our fears and "let God" help us live our faith through words and actions – even from our housetops if the occasion arises. Who knows, perhaps as we build up our relationship with God, we may find that our fear of snakes, spiders, heights, mice, sickness, death, cancer... might subside as well.

Unity, and Fraternity in powerful contemporary language.

▶ The Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist - Part III

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

The Liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the preparation of the gifts and the altar. As the ministers prepare the altar, representatives of the people bring forward the bread and wine that will become the Body and Blood of Christ. The celebrant blesses and praises God for these gifts and places them on the altar, the place of the Eucharistic Sacrifice. In addition, to the bread and wine monetary gifts for the support of the Church and the care of the poor, may be brought forward. The Prayer over the Offerings concludes this preparation and disposes all for the Eucharistic Prayer.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer is the heart of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. In this prayer, the celebrant acts in the person of Christ as head of his body, the Church. He gathers not only the bread and the wine, but the substance of our lives and joins them to Christ's perfect sacrifice, offering them to the Father.

The introductory dialogue establishes that, this prayer is the prayer of the baptized and ordained, is offered in the presence of God, and has thanksgiving as its central focus. Following this dialogue, the celebrant begins the Preface, which consists of four different Eucharistic Prayers. After these prayers, communion is then given.

The following timeline follows the traditional Liturgy of the Eucharist:

- Presentation of the Gifts and Preparation of the Altar
- Prayer over the Offering
- Eucharistic Prayer
  - Preface
  - Holy, Holy, Holy
  - First half of prayer, including Consecration
  - Mystery of Faith
  - Second half of prayer, ending with Doxology
- The Lord's Prayer
- Sign of Peace
- Lamb of God
- Communion
- Prayer after Communion

The document "The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church" was developed by the Committee on Doctrine of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). It was approved by the full body of the USCCB at its November, 2021 General Meeting and has been authorized for publication.

Our Hymnals Need a Home

With the automation of having our music displayed on the screen at our liturgies, the need for hymnals has become unnecessary. With that, we're in the process of trying to find homes for them. If interested in a book or two, please stop by the office. They are free of charge (because you already paid for them at some point) and ready for pick up. First come, first served.

▶ Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Healing

Suggested Prayer: Prayer to St. Therese

O beautiful Rose of Carmel, Saint Thérèse of the Infant Jesus, deign according to your promise to descend from Heaven to visit those who implore you, to pour down on us in profusion those Celestial Grace's that are symbolized by the shower of roses that Jesus, Your Spouse, has put at your disposal. Your power is great with His Heart. He can only listen and hear your Prayer. I recourse then to you, O Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus; assist me in this need (mention your intention). Speak for me to Jesus and to Mary and obtain for me the grace to live a holy life and die a happy death.

Saint Thérèse, hear my prayer. Show your power with God and cure me, if it be for the honor of God and the good of my soul. Amen.

Did You Know?

Rhoda Wise Shrine

In a small house in Canton, Ohio, lived a woman named Rhoda Wise. During a long stay at Mercy Hospital, she became interested in praying the rosary and formed a devotion to St. Thérèse, The Little Flower of Jesus. Rhoda, formerly a Protestant, met Monsignor Habig, the pastor at St. Peter's Church. Monsignor gave Rhoda instructions which eventually led to her being received into the Catholic Church.

Hers is an incredible story of suffering which includes painful medical conditions and, in time, the stigmata of our Lord, Jesus Christ. But her story also includes many healings, both for herself and others, one of which is a teenager who we now know as Mother Angelica. Christ and St. Therese appeared to Rhoda many times over a nine year period.

Rhoda died on July 7, 1948, but you can visit her house and learn more about this Servant of God at rhodawise.com or call (330) 453-0322.
