CONNECTING POINT

 John Kovacic, RCIA Coordinator  rcia@stisidore.church

It seems like forever ago, but I can recall my initial quest for “treasure.” I was no Indiana Jones, but I thought I had a good treasure map focused on how much money I could make and how fast I could get to New York. Then, in 2012, it started to change. I began the RCIA process and received the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil in 2013. Shortly thereafter, I started taking classes at Sacred Heart Major Seminary and knew that my prior search for “treasure” had been leading me in the wrong direction - (I guess I ended up in the wrong canyon of the crescent moon). I changed jobs and started focusing on formation at Sacred Heart. What new map did I find? Or better yet, what new understanding of the original map did I have?

“Do you understand all these things?” They answered, ‘Yes.’ And he replied, ‘Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household both the new and the old.’
” Mt 13:44-52

In the Gospel this week, Jesus teaches three parables, and there are a couple of themes we learn about in them. First, like the treasure buried in a field, something of great value is present in the kingdom Jesus proclaims, but few are aware of it. A second important theme is the urgency to respond to the Good News of the kingdom; the person sells all that he has and buys the field, and the merchant sells all that he has to buy the tiny pearl.

Once we focus on the themes / teachings in the parables, we have to ask ourselves: do we understand all these things? In the Gospel, the disciples answer “yes.” But, can we answer yes? Jesus taught that there would be those in the crowds that would lack “understanding”; - those that could not honestly answer “yes.”

Sometimes the obvious “X marks the spot” on a map isn’t the real treasure. Only by listening to Jesus’ teachings and then taking action to understand the parables, can we see the true map to the treasure awaiting us in the kingdom. May the Lord continue to guide all of us on our spiritual quests and open our hearts in prayer to understand the way to find the true “treasure.”

▶ Grief Support

👤 Heather Herbst, Parish Nurse heather@stisidore.church

St. Isidore has a Grief Support Group! When you lose a loved one, your life changes. Your feelings sometimes overwhelm you and sometimes you may become depressed. At times, the grief can seem unbearable. Many emotional stages are experienced: Denial... Anger... Depression... Acceptance... If you need help coming to terms, our Grief Support Group is here to accompany you along your journey. We are part of the parish family, and WE CARE ABOUT YOU. We meet on the second and fourth Thursday of each month. Our next meeting is August 10 at 6:30 PM in the Executive Conference Room, and is open for all to attend.

▶ Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Interceding for Others

Suggested Prayer: Lord Jesus, may the Eucharist be my power in the battle of life and the power of my intercession for souls. As I receive Holy Communion, help me to offer my little sufferings to You for the sake of souls.

Did You Know? Intercessory Prayer

Intercession is a selfless act, fueled by love and a desire for the well-being of others. We are called to follow in Jesus' footsteps, to pray for those who are lost or hurting, to intercede for the broken and the wounded. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, our prayers can bring about transformation and healing. Let us not neglect this powerful tool that God has given us to bring about His will on earth.

MCREST

AUG 20-27

Macomb

County Rotating Emergency Shelter Team (MCREST) is a transitional shelter which provides homeless and displaced individuals the opportunity for successful transition to independence. MCREST started out as a one-day “camp” for the homeless in 1988. With the success of that endeavor, it grew into overnight shelters with 12 churches participating. It has since grown into over 70 churches.

St. Isidore will be hosting Sunday, August 20 – Sunday, August 27. We are asking anyone who might be available to help with this endeavor to volunteer, and put your faith into action.

Please consider volunteering to help make this a success. We’ve made signing up easy by either going to our website: stisidore.church/mcrest or you can fill out a form in the Gathering Space and drop it in the dedicated box.

In addition to the need for volunteers, you can also help by donating these essential items for the men while they stay here at St. Isidore:

▶ How to donate to St. Vincent de Paul

- Put Cash or a Check (made out to St. Isidore SVDP) in an envelope marked SVDP and put it in the collection basket as Mass
- Pay by credit card at: www.osvhub.com/stisidore/giving/funds

We use all donations to help your neighbors who are in financial distress with rent, utilities, and food. All donations are tax deductible.

► Prayer Blanket Ministry

All of us need a lift in life. We are down at times. Knowing others care might give a person the power to meet the afflictions of life - those burdens that bring someone down.

What is comfort? One definition is: A person or thing that helps you feel less frightened or upset. We can be both: that "person" and bring that "thing" (one of our blankets or shawls) to calm and comfort someone.

We all have wounds - from broken relationships, injuries, tragedies, illnesses, etc. These wounds are real. They may have healed, but the scars may still remain.

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the church office and are free of charge. We hope to comfort your family member or friend with a serious illness or a need for comfort. Please choose a blanket or shawl for your loved one. We also distribute rosaries and thank our parish rosary maker group for this donation.

God loves us, and wants us to share His love with others. May we always seek opportunities to show others the love of God.

We ask that you share this ministry information with other parishioners.

Thank you from The Comfort Crafters.

God comforts, not to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters.

John Henry Jowett

► Baby Pantry

St. Isidore parishioners are such kind, caring, compassionate, and generous supporters of our ministry. We are so very grateful for everything you donate.

God truly works His miracles through all of us. We are His hands on earth. Overwhelming circumstances plague the lives of the local families we assist. You, our parishioners, help alleviate the stress and worry of our neighbors in need. May God bless you for your donations!

God allows us to enjoy many things while we are here on earth, but they really belong to Him. Absolutely everything we have is given to us. Our time, talents and possessions are all on loan from God so that we can do His work effectively. Using His gifts to us, to help others, is what God asks us to do.

If possible, please donate:

- Boys Pull-Ups or Easy Ups - size 4T- 5T
- Baby lotion
- Sensitive, fragrance-free baby

laundry soap

- New toddler books. We do not distribute used books. Please save used books for the St. Isidore Rummage Sale in September.

We always distribute everything you donate to needy families.

Thank you, thank you, and thank you!

St. Isidore Baby Pantry Volunteers:
Angie, Kathy, Cindy, Mickey, Pat
