19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

#CONNECTINGPOINT

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Rebecca Poupard, FOP Director of Worship, St. Therese 📧 rebeccap@stol.church

In the scripture this weekend, we're told about Elijah hearing the voice of God. We also hear about all of the places in which Elijah did not hear Him; everywhere we may have expected him to hear God's voice. In fact, the voice of God is heard as a tiny whispering sound. How many times have we gone searching for God's voice, let alone put ourselves in a space to hear "a tiny whispering sound?"

We are surrounded by noise—noise that is not only audible, but mind- and soul-consuming. This noise is expected, it is learned, and it is deafening, without us even realizing it. Our screens and their sounds are on all the time: TVs, computers, smartphones, gaming systems, tablets; you name it...we have it (or someone we know does).

Why have we let these things become so consuming? They consume our time, moments with friends and family, relaxation, church—we can't even ignore them for an hour to spend time with the

God we came to worship and the faith we have chosen to profess. We are reminded, in most places we go, to turn off or silence our cell phones and to end phone conversations, be it at the counters where we shop or do business or the lobbies where we wait for medical assistance. Why is that phone so important? Why is this noise so important?

Many of us cannot accept silence. We hate it. We detest it. We fear it, and yet, God has told us 365 times in the bible not to be afraid. Silence can be freeing, healing, soul-searching, and life-changing. When we pray, we can get so frustrated at God's lack of answer, which many people have told me as we discussed faith. My question to them, and to you, in kind, is: How can you hear His answer if you don't have the space to listen? You cannot hear a conversation with friends or family if the TV is blaring or if the bar is too loud! How would you hear God through all this noise you have let into your life?

However, the best question I can pose to you is: What part of silence makes you so uncomfortable? Once you can answer this question, you will be able to open your eyes, your heart, and your mind to a new level of freedom. Maybe you will see how much time is spent on screens. You can see your friends' faces, the joy in the eyes of your loved ones, and the beautiful creation that God has made for you. That's right—for you. He put you here and now for a specific purpose. Enjoy His creation. Learn your purpose. Live your best life to the Glory of God.

Let's take this challenge together. Let's get uncomfortable. Can you turn the car radio off for two minutes this week? Can you turn off all devices five minutes before you go to bed? Can you use your morning routine as some silent prayer? Can you accept, and possibly learn to love, some silence in your life? Can you trust in the God who you profess to speak to you in a "tiny whispering wind" in ways you may never have dreamed of? Are you ready to try? You can do this. I believe in you.

Volunteers Needed

We are still in need of volunteers to help with MCREST week at St. Isidore. Please consider volunteering to help make this a success. We've made signing up easy by going to our website: stisidore.church/mcrest.

MCREST Volunteer meeting notice

There will be a voluntary meeting for anyone interested in understanding the volunteer job duties for MCREST week at St. Isidore. If you are currently signed up or just thinking about volunteering please join us on August 17 at 7 PM in the Resource Center. Enter at Mary's Prayer Garden (door #2).

EVENTS

THE 19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the Lord commands us to do something we need not be terrified but "Trust in Jesus" and he will be with us "At All Times."

FAMILY TIME

If Peter can trust Jesus to get out of the boat and walk on water, let's all make a decision to trust God this week.

► Power in Prayer

A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

Rev.12:1

This Week's Intention: Honoring Mary as Mother

Suggested Prayer: Blessed are you, O God, in the Virgin Mary. Through her, your Son came into the world. Through him, she entered into the new world of your glory. Come and sow in our bodies the gift of eternal life, so that one day we may enter with her into your kingdom through Christ, your Son and Son of Mary, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Did You Know?

Assumption of Mary

Pope St. Benedict XVI wrote that "precisely because Mary is with God and in God, she is very close to each of us. While she lived on this earth she could only be close to a few people. Being in God, who is actually within all of us, Mary shares in this closeness of God." She "knows our hearts, can hear our prayers, can help with her motherly kindness. She always listens to us, and being Mother of the Son, participates in the power of the Son and in his goodness. We can always entrust the whole of our lives to this Mother." Assumed into heaven, Mary reveals our own destiny.

► Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

Fr. Joe Dailey

I lead my first pilgrimage to the Holy Land in 2000. I had no idea what to expect, but that first experience was an invitation to visit again and again. In the Holy Land, we tell the Gospel stories we know by heart and hear them in a new way. I put together a digital hymnal for the pilgrimage with art and song and scripture that we pray and sing along the way. I also prepare a playlist with all the music for the pilgrimage. The scripture and song help to make our pilgrimage together an encounter of the heart. It's like being on retreat, walking in the way of the Lord.

▶ How to donate to St. Vincent de Paul

- Put Cash or a Check (made out to St. Isidore SVDP) in an envelope marked SVDP and put it in the collection basket as Mass
- Pay by credit card at: www.osvhub.com/stisidore/giving/funds

We use all donations to help your neighbors who are in financial distress with rent, utilities, and food. All donations are tax deductible.

► Prayer Blanket Ministry

There are so many people around us who need encouragement, love, hope and comfort. We can help by letting people know that we're thinking of them. We can listen when they need to talk to someone. We can pray for them. We can love them. We can give them a prayer blanket or shawl. Please get one - free of charge - in the St. Isidore office for a person you know who needs comfort because of a medical, emotional, or spiritual crisis in their life. Bring hope and peace, love and strength into the mind and heart of someone with your gift of prayer and comfort. Get and deliver a blanket or shawl and watch for the smile on the face of the recipient. You'll smile, too, and so will God.

If you'd like to join our ministry, our friendly group meets every Tuesday at 1:00 in the St. Isidore Social Hall. We invite you to join us in this ministry of comfort. Questions? Call and ask.

We ask that you share this ministry information with other parishioners. Thank you from The Comfort Crafters.

"God comforts, not to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters." (John Henry Jowett)

God knows that we need comfort and encouragement. The question is - have you ever comforted anybody? How did you do it? Little children hold up their cut finger and cry, 'Kiss it.' We say, 'There, there, it's all better now.' But as we grow older, that won't work. We can't tell someone 'You'll soon be good as new' if he is dying, can we? Yet, many times our presence can bring encouragement. Look for someone to comfort or encourage today.

Pastor Mike Lutz, Retired from Immanuel Lutheran Church

► Baby Pantry

As we celebrate the Assumption of Mary, Mother of Jesus, this week, may we be reminded of Mary's great love in our attempt to imitate her.

The needs are great. Prices are high and too many people are struggling. Watch for sales, use coupons and, if possible, please donate:

- Size 6 diapers
- New toddler books
- Baby lotion (generic is ok)
- Baby sensitive, fragrance-free laundry soap
- Toddler snacks (Puffs, goldfish, fruit pouches, etc.)

Jesus said, "I command you: Love one another." And just how do we do that?

Let us follow the Jesus command by loving individual people, by paying attention to those who are outside our daily experience.

If we seek out someone new to whom we can show love, then we are making a "Holy Moment" effort to follow our Lord's command. It's a smile to a stranger or a special prayer said for someone who has no idea we are asking God to bless them. Simple acts of love, like donating, are pleasing to God, and show that we are trying to follow the example of Jesus.

We distribute everything you donate to needy low-income families.

Thank you, thank you, and thank you! St. Isidore Baby Pantry Volunteers say, "God bless all of you for your help!"
