CONNECTING POINT

👤 Matt Kush, FOP Director of Engagement 📧 matt@stol.church

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus meets a Canaanite woman, who begs him to heal her daughter. At first, Jesus explains that his mission is to save only the house of Israel, but the great faith of the woman overcomes cultural boundaries. Faith transcends all cultures, making the foreign familiar, distances close, and the exclusive inclusive. Our call is to live our Catholic faith with openness, and to bring all people, with respect and without judgment, to be agents of unity in Jesus.

Sitting at the front of the church and looking out at the congregation during Mass is such a joy for me. I see people of all ages, racial and ethnic backgrounds; a rainbow of diversity. We live in a time that has become increasingly divided, fueled by biased media personalities and political leaders. Yet, we can cast that aside and come together in church because we are all a family in Christ.

▶ Connecting Point (cont'd)

This broad spectrum of diversity and inclusion is found even moreso at our 5:30 "Sunday Night Mass," which is why it is my favorite Mass. I see more unfamiliar faces (i.e., probably not all parishioners) and more diversity. I see people attending in shorts and t-shirts (which is how I prefer to dress) and coming just as they are, which is how Jesus calls us to his table. All of this creates a beautiful energy at this Mass, which is somehow different and even more uplifting. Even after having a full weekend of singing and playing at Masses, the energy of the 5:30 Mass is still truly palpable and invigorating for me.

Embracing inclusivity, and therefore unity, in the Church embodies its core values of love and compassion, while also fostering a stronger, harmonious community. Inclusivity nurtures belonging, allowing for deeper connections and meaningful relationships that provide for spiritual growth. By exemplifying unity, the Church also serves as an example of what creating a more interconnected and compassionate world would look like. Let's actively embrace inclusivity in our Church family and beyond, ensuring that everyone feels truly valued and accepted, and together, we will cultivate a more vibrant and harmonious world.

▶ Grief Support Group

RCIA / OCIA INVITATION

Are you, or someone you know, interested or curious about the Catholic Faith; why we believe what we believe, why all Christian faiths aren't the same? Please join us for this informational RCIA (Rite to Christian Initiation for Adults) now known as OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) kick-off meeting.

RCIA/OCIA

Rite/Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.

Mt 15:6

Do you know someone interested in taking the next steps on their faith journey or someone who wants to become Catholic? Consider this their invitation to start thinking about receiving the Sacraments.

My name is John Kovacik, and I'm blessed to be the coordinator of this process. I had my calling to the Church in 2012, and, at the Easter Vigil in 2013, I was baptized, confirmed, and received the Eucharist for the first time. My life has never been the same. The Lord has blessed me in so many ways in such a short time.

Each person's faith journey is their own, and it is our privilege to help them all along the way. I pray you will consider joining us in September.

My wife and I were married by Father Ron at St. Isidore in 2014. We've been married for nine years and have two daughters. Both of our daughters were baptized at St. Isidore. Our oldest daughter began Catechism in the fall of 2022, and that's what inspired me to join the RCIA Program. My wife was my sponsor and I chose Isidore as my confirmation name. It was a blessing to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil in front of my family.

► Knights of Columbus

The St. Isidore K of C Council recognizes a "Knight of the Month" and a "Family of the Month" for their efforts in serving the council/parish/community. Shown is Dave (Karen not present) Bisdorf receiving a certificate for August's Family of the Month from Grand Knight Chijioko Oparaji at the recent General Membership Meeting. Announced as August's Knight of the Month, but not available for the picture, was PGK, Frank Oldani.

▶ Altar Server Appreciation Party

On Tuesday, August 8, our St. Isidore Altar Servers were honored with a fun and fantastic appreciation party at C.J. Barrymore's. The Altar Server Team and their chaperones (including Fr. Ron) were treated to cosmic bowling, a delicious pizza luncheon, and a wristband for the rides and other attractions. We are so very appreciative of the dedication and commitment these marvelous young ministers display.

Their service helps to bring Christ to our community in worship. If you are a young person ages 8-18 and would like to become a part of the team, please contact Amy at amy@stisidore.church.

Catechists Needed

 Dawn Ormsby, Catechist Coordinator  dawno@stisidore.church

► Being a catechist means...

Being a Catechist means being able to bring the joy of a lesson about God to children in a way where they'll understand its meaning and remember it for years to come. If creating and teaching engaging material about our faith appeals to you, we urge you to consider becoming a Catechist. We are looking for adults who are alive in the faith and eager to use their talents to share the message with children.

Our Discipleship Formation team here at St. Isidore is committed to your success as a Catechist. We understand how those of you who are interested may also be concerned about the time this entails, both in planning and actually teaching your lessons. While some worry about having to read the chapter a particular lesson or topic comes from before teaching, with the supplies we provide you, anyone should be able to come up with a fun way to present the content without doing that extensive reading. For example, after reviewing supplied videos, one of our Catechists designed an exciting game for our 8th grade students. You can expect this process to take approximately half an hour, but your investment depends on your commitment to the Lord in helping him retell his words and mission to our children.

Responsibilities include the lesson planning just described, as well as getting to know the parents and children you work with on a caring, personal level. Sometimes, this may mean working with staff and parents to find the best way to support a child in the way they learn best.

If you are interested and are available to help on the days and times below, don't hesitate to reach out to us:

Monday/Tuesday: 4:30 - 5:45 PM and/or 6:15 - 7:00 PM

Sunday: Children's Liturgy of the Word at 9:30 or 11:30 Mass

To get involved today: go to stisidore.church/catechists

► Power in Prayer

Praise doesn't change God. It should change us. It changes our perspective on situations. We move from our limited view to God's unlimited view, and this provides an open door for God to move.

Jeff Cavins, Praise God And Thank Him: Biblical Keys for a Joyful Life

This Week's Intention: Praising God

Suggested Prayer/Activity: Spend a few minutes each day this week praising God for all He is.

Did You Know? Assumption of Mary

May 1, [1938]. This evening, Jesus said to me, 'My daughter, do you need anything?' I answered, 'O my Love, when I have You, I have everything.' And the Lord answered, 'If souls would put themselves completely in My care, I Myself would undertake the task of sanctifying them, and would lavish even greater graces on them. There are souls who thwart My efforts, but I have not given up on them; as often as they turn to Me, I hurry to their aid, shielding them with My mercy, and I give them the first place in My compassionate Heart.'

▶ St. Vincent de Paul

When we serve the poor and the sick, we serve Jesus. We must not fail to help our neighbors, because in them we serve Jesus.

St. Rose of Lima

Our Back-to-School Distribution was a great success! We helped 39 families and 177 people (77 adults and 100 children) with breakfast items, school snacks, and other miscellaneous items. We want to first thank Fr. Ron and the parish staff for supporting our work. We could not help as many people as we do without you all! We also want to thank our faithful contributors to the pantry, who give week after week. Finally, we'd like to extend our many thanks to the Altar Society for their donation of gift cards the children can use to purchase school supplies. Our SVdP Conference is so grateful to the St. Isidore community; your generosity helps us help others.

Please keep our pantry list in mind as you shop in stores or online this week:

- Club Crackers
- Mashed Potatoes - Boxed, Pouched
- Scalloped & Au Gratin Potatoes - Boxed
- Helpers - Tuna, Chicken
- Chicken - Canned
- Chili
- Pineapples, Peaches, & Fruit Cocktail - Canned
- Pasta & SpaghettiOs - Canned
- Jell-O - Boxed
- Cereal
- Laundry Soap
- Deodorant - Unscented
- Cookies
- Candy

Meijer has selected us for another "season" (three months) of the Simply Give Program at their new grocery store on 24 Mile and Hayes. You can purchase items from our list or buy $10 Simply Give donation cards, which, at the end of September, will transfer into a gift card that we can use to fill the holes in our pantry. Cards are located on tables in the Gathering Space or at the manned and self-serve registers.

► Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters

There are too many people around us who ache with loneliness. We can ease their sorrows by noticing them and telling them they matter. But how? We can change lives, one person at a time. Start the curing process, first with a visit, and by taking that person a prayer blanket or shawl.

Who could be a prayer blanket or shawl recipient? Anybody, really, but here are some examples:

- Someone who is grieving the loss of a spouse, child, or another loved one
- Someone battling cancer or another serious illness
- Someone with an emotional or spiritual crisis in their life
- Someone going through a difficult time with family worries
- Someone in rehab, a nursing home, or memory-care facility
- Someone dealing with job loss and unemployment
- Someone experiencing disappointment, emptiness, stress, or anxiety
- Children, for any reason
- Someone who could just use some comfort (including you!)

Show your love by giving one of our (free) prayer blankets or shawls, available in the St. Isidore office, to a person you know who needs comfort, love, and prayers.

Let us also pray for those who need comfort.

Thank you for your constant support by distributing our items to those who need to know that we care about them.

“The Comfort Crafters”

It's easy to forget the positive contributions of our lives – our words of encouragement, intercessory prayers, compassionate and loving gestures, friendly smiles, etc.. We do make a difference. Today, someone may be blessed simply by your existence.

► Baby Pantry

Making the daily intention to offer the time and effort of our days to the needs of others is one way to touch the lives of those around us. Let people see Jesus through us.

Together, we can do this! There is joy in doing even little things out of love for one another. In turn, our simple acts of kindness reflect the heart of God.

If possible, please donate the following to our parish Baby Pantry:

- Diapers (newborn size)
- Similac Formula (powdered and canned only):
  - Advance
  - Sensitive
  - Soy
- Diaper-rash ointment (both with and without zinc)
- Baby shampoo
- Goldfish crackers (small snack bags)

Prayer: "Dear Lord, help us to see that even the smallest acts of love and kindness remind us of Your love for us. Give us the faith to realize how much our donations can bring crucial help to the lives of others."

From everyone in the Baby Pantry Team, thank you for everything you donate! Your help is so very valuable to our program, because we rely solely on donations. We distribute everything you donate to needy families.

God bless all of you for your help, Baby Pantry Ministry (586) 745-9501
