22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

What temptations do I need to overcome to spark renewal?

#CONNECTINGPOINT

CONNECTING POINT

 John Kovacik, RCIA Coordinator  rcia@stisidore.church

"Temptation." In today's society, that word gets thrown around and used in so many ways, most commonly as a synonym for "attraction." I was tempted to eat that ice cream cone, have another slice of pizza, or, better yet, move to New York. All of these inclinations seem innocent enough, but they are not the ideas or definition of temptation we hear about in the readings this week.

In the readings, the idea of "temptation" refers instead to the choice between being faithful or unfaithful to our obligations to God. What kind of temptations are those? Maybe breaking a Commandment or not following one of the Beatitudes? Not listening to what God's plan is and thinking only about our human plans?

Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me.

These are some of the most intense words you will hear Jesus speak to Peter. But, in those words is an invaluable lesson. Jesus has just made his first Passion prediction, and, instead of listening to him, Peter decides to challenge Jesus and tell him that “No such thing will ever happen to you.” Why does Jesus rebuke Peter? Because Peter is thinking about his own, human plan and not the plan God has foretold.

Jesus continues and outlines that all disciples must “pick up their cross and follow him.” “Picking up our cross” is an incredibly powerful statement meant to remind us of the immense suffering Jesus underwent at his crucifixion. It is a direct instruction from Jesus to step forward, commit to our faith, and embrace the will of God wherever it leads.

Embracing our faith and “carrying our cross” isn’t always easy. Temptations are everywhere. You may have family or friends who do not support your faith journey. You may have an occupation that makes it tempting to “put down the cross.” Whatever your personal temptations are, renewal can be found in prayer and in the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist. I know that anytime I feel my cross is “heavier,” or my ears seem too clogged to hear God, the Sacraments and diving into the Gospel give me that spark and armor to continue following God’s plan.

Taking up the cross becomes participating with Christ in the salvation of the world... Let us not allow ourselves to be drawn to the other side, by the temptation of the Evil One. As a result, if we want to be his disciples, we are called to imitate him, expending our life unreservedly out of love of God and neighbor.

Pope Francis

▶ Eucharistic Revival Message from the Archdiocese of Detroit Worship Office

Jesus said, “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble of heart, and you will find rest for your souls” (Mt 11:28-29). As our summertime wanes and the school year begins, our vocation to holiness does not lessen but intensifies. We need to make even more room for the Lord as we are pressed into the busyness of life. Every moment is an opportunity to be grateful for the gift of Jesus, truly present in the Most Holy Eucharist. Together we need to reclaim our Sunday Celebration of the Day of the Lord.

We are all called to be saints and to prepare for eternal life. This also involves sacrifice and recognizing that we can only embrace the suffering of life when we recognize the gift of the Paschal Mystery: the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus. It is Jesus who gives us joy and the hope of eternal life. At the Offertory Rites of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we offer our own suffering, whatever that might be, in union with the offering of Jesus. We accept our suffering and unite it with the Passion of Jesus, who offers it to the Father. When we recognize that our suffering can also be a participation with his, for his Body, the Church (Col 1:24), our sorrow can be turned to joy (John 16:24).

May this time of our parish year of participation in the National Eucharistic Revival bring us to greater healing and hope on our own path to holiness. With Blessed Solanus Casey, OFM Cap., we thank God ahead of time for the many gifts we will receive through our greater participation in the Eucharistic Revival.

In Christ,
Sr. Esther Mary Nickel, RSM
Director of the Office of Sacred
Worship, Archdiocese of Detroit

How can I repay the Lord, for all his goodness?

K OF C 4TH DEGREE VETERAN'S RAFFLE

The Sacred Heart Assembly of the Knights of Columbus will be hosting their annual raffle to benefit veterans. Tickets will be sold after each Mass on the weekends or until tickets are sold out. Each ticket provides 28 chances to win. Drawings are held daily (except Sundays) in the month of October. See a Knight for more information.

▶ K of C Council Picnic

▶ Brian McAleer ▶ BrianTMcAleer@gmail.com

The Knights of Columbus recently held a picnic at Chief Gene Shepherd Park, where family members spent the day socializing, playing games, and enjoying some food. The young kids participated in a few games and were able to take advantage of the Splash Pad waterpark area to offset the heat of the day. The older kids (i.e., the adults) enjoyed cornhole and bocce ball-the two most popular games. We thank Fr. Ron, visiting priest Jaime Hinojos, and Deacon Jeff for joining us. This picnic is just one of many reasons to consider joining the K of C.

▶ Power in Prayer

So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do it all to the glory of God.

1 Cor 10:31

This Week's Intention: Giving thanks before meals

Suggested Prayer: Grace Before Meals

Suggested Activity: Say the blessing below (or the traditional blessing) before each meal-no matter where you are.

*Father of us all,
This meal is a sign of Your love for us: Bless us and bless our food, And help us to give you glory each day, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Did You Know?

Month of the Harvest

Since man is both a physical and spiritual being, the Church provides for the needs of man in his everyday life. The Church's liturgy and feasts, in many areas, reflect the four seasons of the year (i.e., Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter). The months of August, September, October, and November are parts of the harvest season, and, as Christians, we recall God's constant protection over his people and give thanksgiving for the year's harvest. The September Ember days, three days (Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday) set aside by the Church for prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, were particularly focused on the end of the harvest season and thanksgiving to God for the season. Since the revision of the Roman calendar in 1969, Ember days are to be observed at the discretion of the National Council of Bishops (catholicculture.org).

Consider praying, fasting, or almsgiving this month for all of God's provisions.

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

- Put Cash or Check (to St. Isidore SVDP) in an envelope marked SVDP in the collection basket at Mass
- Pay by credit card at: www.osvhub.com/stisidore/giving/funds

We use all donations to help our neighbors who are in financial distress with rent, utilities, and food. All donations are tax deductible.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser ✉ patschm@gmail.com

Labor Day gives us a chance to appraise not only what we do, but also how and why we do it.

Jesus gave us a clear answer to the question, what is the most important work we do? He said, "Love one another." Love of God and love of neighbor are at the heart of Christianity. Both "loves" are the foundation of the teaching of Jesus. Only by extending ourselves to others in love do we fulfill this mission Jesus has for all of us.

There's comfort in knowing people are praying for you. Sometimes the physical reminder of putting one of our prayer blankets on your lap or wrapping a prayer shawl around yourself is sufficient to raise your spirits and heal your hurt.

"We love because He first loved us." (1 John 4:19) Deep in the human heart is a hunger for love. Loneliness is a burden for more people than we realize. Jesus told us to 'love because He first loved us.' He loves us unconditionally and wants us to do the same for others. We can look for ways to show love to others. As we do, we will help them to know that Jesus loves them as well.

Please get one of our prayer blankets or shawls - free of charge - in the St. Isidore office for a person you know who needs comfort because of a medical, emotional, or spiritual crisis in their life.

Pray for those who need comfort. Thank you for your participation in this ministry.

The Comfort Crafters
"God comforts, not to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters." (John Henry Jowett)

Thoughts for Labor Day:

Let us pray for those who work, for people who can't work because they are unable to find employment, and for those who want to work, but can't, because of health reasons.

St. Isidore parishioners fill their lives with good works, as evidenced by donations to our baby pantry.

Be assured that all your donations will be used to help our needy neighbors. Our St. Isidore parishioners are a gift from God for those in distress.

We are always grateful for any help you give us. St. Isidore parishioners continue to help our local poor through donations. Thank you for your goodness and generosity.

We really need these things donated to our baby pantry:

- Total Comfort Similac powdered formula
- Rice baby cereal

- Baby shampoo - our supply is low
- Baby wash/shampoo combination - we have none!
- Gift cards to stores that have baby/toddler departments

You reach out to others with your amazing donations. It is a blessing from God through you!

Thank you from your Baby Pantry Team: Kathy, Angie, Cindy, Mickey, Pat
