CONNECTING POINT

👤 Deacon Jeff Loeb 📧 jeff@stisidore.church

We have all had those days where, while driving along, we are met with trying situations behind the wheel. A few days ago, I was stopped at a light in the right-turn lane, and I was waiting for the green arrow to signal my turn. As the light turned green, I began to let up on the brake and hit the accelerator. I had barely hit the gas when the sound of a horn blared. The driver behind me was impatiently signaling his displeasure with my reflexes, which, by the driver's reckoning, were insufficient. My surprise turned to anger at the impatience of this individual, and I instantly had stirrings of my own response. Thank goodness I pushed my 'pause button' before I acted on that impulse. I forgave this driver in my heart as I completed my turn.

When we feel wronged by others, no matter the situation, it is impossible not to feel hurt. We can feel it; we can think about it. Even so, this week's scripture passages challenge us to reconcile with others. We are invited to forgive from the heart. It is in the heart where we hold on to grudges, and it is from the heart where we forgive the things that hold us captive. There is a line in the Catechism of the Catholic Church that says, "the heart that offers itself to the Holy Spirit turns injury into compassion and purifies the memory in transforming the hurt into intercession." The Lord wants us to be prayer warriors—not avenging ones. We need lots of prayer when we are weak. We ask the Lord for the strength and courage to seek a new response to those who hurt us so we can reconcile with them. Jesus shows us, by his sacrifice on the cross, that love is stronger than sin. His words of forgiveness become a living reality.

We are all debtors who are unable to pay back the great debt we owe to God, yet he sent his only son to pay our debt. Jesus wants us to feel renewed and rejuvenated by this fact that our debt is paid, but we are also to do the same for others. We cannot help those who flat-out refuse, but we can plant the seed. We can forgive those who hurt us or our community. Jesus reminds us how it is our duty to lovingly guide those who were led astray back to the path of Christ. It is difficult because our hearts can cause us to exclude those individuals and, in some way, may even want to punish them and retaliate. Think of someone who angered or hurt you in the past. It could be your family member, friend, co-worker, boss, or someone on Facebook or Twitter. Now, pause for a few seconds and take a deep breath in and slowly let it out. Imagine Jesus on the cross, as he provides us with a great example of a heart big enough to forgive all offenses and, in that pause, find peace.

This is our way; this is our struggle; this is our challenge, but thank God we have him on our side to help us along the way of forgiveness and to receive his mercy.

▶ I AM HERE

Rebecca Poupard, FOP Director of Worship | rebeccap@stol.church

Jesus, in the Eucharist, reminds us that we are never alone—that he is with us. In our brokenness, sorrows, and frustrations, he is with us. He never leaves us. Jesus wants to walk with us in our journeys toward eternal life.

Over the next four weeks, Fish Tales will include real-life stories from Catholics across the Archdiocese of Detroit, as well as from parishes across the country, who have been transformed by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist. These stories and many more can be found on the I AM HERE website (iamhere.org/stories).

We hope the stories of men and women who, in the Eucharist, have found the strength and purpose for their lives inspire you to experience it for yourself.

Visit your parish or find a chapel and sit in the presence of Jesus, opening yourself up to his voice. We hope you come to believe, without a doubt, that Jesus died for you. He rose from the dead, he loves you, and he extends his mercy to you.

He is truly present here.

I AM HERE is a campaign by the Archdiocese of Detroit and Hallow App in support of the National Eucharistic Revival.

▶ Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Responding to Jesus

"As Jesus passed by, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at a customs post. He said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. While he was at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat with Jesus and his disciples. The Pharisees saw this and said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" He heard this and said, "Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. Go and learn the meaning of the words, I desire mercy not sacrifice. I did not come to call the righteous but sinners." Matthew 9:9-13

Suggested Prayer: Meditate on the above verse

Did You Know?

Saint Matthew's Gospel

Although little is known about the life of St. Matthew, we know he was close to Jesus, becoming an apostle and authoring one of the four gospel accounts. The Gospel according to Matthew was likely written to a Christianized Jewish audience, evidenced by its distinctive continuity with Hebrew tradition and the Old Testament. The account contains nearly 100 references to nearly 60 direct quotations from the Old Testament. A clear theme of fulfillment is evident throughout. One such example is Matthew 1:22-23. He mentions that Jesus' birth took place to fulfill the prophecy foretold by Isaiah. Matthew's example of faith demonstrates that Jesus can redeem any sinner. When Jesus first saw Matthew at his customs post, he said "Follow me." Matthew's response was one of immediate obedience—he directly abandoned his position and became one of Jesus' disciples. Jesus came to save all who are lost, "For those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do." Matthew 9:13.

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

Visit stisidore.church/give for the safest and easiest way to support St. Isidore

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church

We all know someone who is going through a difficult time, right? We can reach out to those suffering and offer them comfort. Let us ask God for encouragement and help to accomplish this and to love others as He loves us.

Let's do this together-join our crochet/knit group. We meet on Tuesdays at 1:00, in the Social Hall, to make and donate prayer lap blankets and shawls for anyone needing comfort. Call the church office during regular business hours to have one of our group members call you and answer any questions you may have.

Select one of our prayer blankets or shawls-free of charge-in the St. Isidore office for any person who needs comfort due to a medical, emotional, or spiritual crisis in their life.

Please pray for those who need comfort and for all recipients of our blessed items.

We ask that you share this ministry info with other parishioners.

Thank you from The Comfort Crafters.

"God comforts, not to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters." (John Henry Jowett)

You may think that you are completely insignificant in this world. But someone drinks coffee every morning from their favorite cup that you gave them, heard a song on the radio that reminded them of you, remembered a joke you told and smiled, loves him/herself a little more because you gave them a compliment. Never think that you have no influence whatsoever. Your trace, which you leave behind with good deeds, can never be erased.

► Baby Pantry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church

Let us try to imagine how our donations affect the lives of the low-income families we help. A mom with very little money, when diapering her child, might reflect on the gift of free diapers from a person she does not know. Imagine how thankful she is for us. Imagine her sadness that she cannot tell us "thank you." So, she thanks God and utters a prayer for us.

Your St. Isidore Baby Pantry extends to you our heartfelt thanks for all you do to help us.

If possible, please donate:
(God bless you for your generosity!)

- Diapers: size 5
- Baby lotion
- Winter clothes: girls size 3T
- Fruit-flavored Puffs

Prayer: Dear God, you are the Giver of all our good things. Please help me to be generous in offering Your gifts to others.

We distribute everything you donate to low-income families in need.

Thank you, thank you, and thank you!
