33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

How can I INVEST my talents to turn a profit for the Lord?

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Elaine Rhein, St. Francis/St. Max 📧 elaine.rhein@gmail.com

In my eyes, this week's Gospel is Jesus' way of telling me that I need to stop and self-reflect. Am I the servant who uses the talents given by the master to multiply his wealth and work? Or am I more similar to the third servant who, out of fear, goes and buries the talents? First of all, I have to remember that everything I have (deep faith, loving family, comfortable wealth, reasonable intelligence, etc.) is a gift given to me by God. I must learn that every aspect of my life is centered on God's many gifts and the countless challenges that come my way. Through this parable, Jesus asks me to think about what I am doing with the gifts and challenges he has given me and how I can improve my life and the world.

It takes prayer to realize what God is asking of us. Many of us who grew up in the Church would hear about the gifts of time, talents, and treasures. The church still utilizes that phrase periodically when trying to recruit volunteers and bolster the collection, but honestly, it is a question we need to ask ourselves regularly. Do we only utilize our gifts and talents to benefit ourselves and our families, or do we also use them to help our neighbors: the strangers, the homeless, the refugees, etc.? “Turning a profit for the Lord” can sometimes be daunting. We are all busy with work, family, and various life situations; trust me, God understands. However, we must be careful of it becoming our norm—using those same excuses repeatedly throughout our lives. Jesus is not asking most of us to change our lives radically. He is asking us to reflect and see how and where we are using our time, talents, and treasures to make the world better.

“Turning a profit for the Lord” does not solely apply within the confines of the Catholic Church. It can refer to many opportunities and outreach organizations in our local communities. As winter approaches, many local shelters need financial assistance and people to volunteer their time. We again see the Salvation Army Bell Ringers at our store entrances and the Marines’ Toys for Tots boxes asking for donations. The opportunities are endless, and not all needs are financially based. Many communities have food pantries; we can use our gift of time to help them out occasionally. I just received a notification that the Boy Scouts have a food drive in our area! We also have many veterans and elderly neighbors who need a helping hand. It could be as simple as raking their leaves and cleaning off the snow in their driveway this winter. The possibilities are endless for using our time and talents to make our world a little bit better place to live in.

This week’s question is, “How can I invest my talents to turn a profit for the Lord?” Through prayer, we each have to answer that question as individuals, with each of us having our own self-defining time, talents, and treasures. I can tell you that by taking the time to answer that question with an open heart and having the courage to act on it, you will experience the unexplainable joy of giving. Perhaps you can start living with the answer, “I can use my talents to become a prophet for the Lord,” for as Christians, that is our true calling.

May we all have the courage to start our day with this simple prayer: “Lord, what are we gonna do today?” - Deacon Arthur L. Miller, Archdiocese of Hartford.

▶ Music & Screens Survey

👤 Matt Kush & Amy Righi ↗ matt@stisidore.church

Church music preferences vary widely among individuals. Just as people have diverse tastes in food, art, and literature, their musical inclinations within the context of worship can be equally diverse. Some find solace in traditional hymns, appreciating their rich history and timeless melodies, while others are drawn to contemporary worship songs with modern arrangements and lyrics that resonate with today’s issues. The beauty of this diversity lies in the ability of church music to cater to the spiritual needs of a diverse congregation, ensuring that everyone can connect with their faith through the melodies and lyrics that speak to their hearts.

We do our best in comprehensively planning music each week including traditional hymns, contemporary Christians hits, and folk hymns (music in the middle) at most Masses so that everyone finds at least one song that allows them to connect with God through sung worship. However, we’d love to know more about how you sing and worship at St. Isidore to help ensure that our approach to music and the way in which it is projected on screens continues to enhance the worship experience.

Please take this short survey to share your feedback by going to stisidore.church/music-survey, scanning the QR code, or using one of the survey cards in the Gathering Space.

WELCOME Diana

FAMILY OF PARISHES
YOUTH MINISTER

 Diana Devine, FOP Youth Minister
 diana@stisidore.church

Hi everyone, my name is Diana Devine, and I am thrilled to introduce myself as the FOP Youth Minister! There are a few fun things I think you should know about me. I love reading, spending time with my family and friends, doing pottery, and playing with my beautiful cat. Movies, music, and art are all a big part of my life. I am the youngest of three girls, and the daughter of some amazing people that I'm lucky to call my parents.

Before I moved to Shelby Township a year ago, I grew up in Canton, MI, where I attended St. Thomas a' Becket Parish with my family. While at St. Thomas a' Becket, I was an active member of the youth group from sixth grade all the way up until I graduated from Salem High School. Upon graduation, I attended University of Detroit Mercy, where I obtained my Bachelors of Social Work while also studying English. Throughout my time in college, I spent time each week going to St. Edith Parish in Livonia, MI, and volunteered my time to work with their youth group.

Growing up I was a member of a youth group for seven years where I had countless amazing opportunities come my way. In middle school I was asked to be part of the W.I.N.D. Conference planning team before eventually joining the C.Y.O. Youth Council, the group of young people who planned and executed the Rainbow Conference. I had the opportunity to hold multiple leadership positions within the youth council, the most prominent being the Rainbow Coordinator.

Through my time in the Catholic community I found myself attending Catholic Heart WorkCamp (CHWC). I attended multiple times as a camper before joining St. Edith's youth group as a chaperone. The following summer, I joined the summer staff of CHWC. I have attended camp almost every summer since I was a junior in high school, so some may say I love camp. This mission experience was one I have been honored to be a part of and I cannot wait to share the experience with even more teens.

I have always thought of the Catholic youth not as the future of our church, but the present. I am looking forward to creating an environment for teens to feel comfortable to talk and grow in their faith with one another. I am so excited to begin this new adventure with Disciples Unleashed and cannot wait to get started!

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits 📧 evangelization@stisidore.church

Simply drawing near to Christ's loving presence in the Eucharist is a tremendous blessing for our spiritual lives. As blessed Carlo Acutis once said, when "we face the sun, we become tan... but when we place ourselves in front of the Eucharistic Jesus, we become saints." BEHOLD THE LAMB OF GOD.

This Week's Intention: Drawing near to Jesus

Suggested Prayer/Activity: Spend some time sitting with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration or in front of the Tabernacle.

Lord I am not worthy to receive you but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Did You Know?

Where does the Bible teach about the importance of receiving Holy Communion?

At the Last Supper, Jesus commanded the apostles to eat his Body and drink his Blood. In the Bread of Life discourse, he emphasized the importance of this: "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood you have no life in you" (John 6:53). St. Paul also affirms the importance of partaking of the one bread of the Eucharist: "The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" (1 Corinthians 10:16).

Kids Coalition Against Hunger

IN AN INCREDIBLE

display of community, the Kids Coalition Against Hunger event surpassed all expectations! With an outstanding fundraising effort, over $40,000 was raised, enabling the assembly of an impressive 110,000 meals for those in need. The overwhelming response to the fundraising campaign highlighted the generosity of our Family of Parishes as well as local organizations in our community.

On November 11, nearly 600 people came together for an energetic meal-packing session. Volunteers of all ages worked together to create nutritious meals for those facing food insecurity.

We want to extend a heartfelt thanks to every participant, donor, and volunteer who contributed to its success. The $40,000+ raised and the 110,000 meals packed will make a significant difference in countless lives. This event exemplifies the power of collective action, proving that we can effect positive change in the world. We hope the success of this will inspire ongoing efforts towards a future where no person experiences hunger.

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser ✉ babypantry@stisidore.church

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the church office during daily business hours and on Sundays after morning Masses.

Have a blessed Thanksgiving!

This Thursday we celebrate Thanksgiving, a special holiday that is truly a “holy” day – a day set aside to give thanks to God, family, friends, those we love, and the people who help us.

Let us give thanks, not just on Thanksgiving Day, but every day of our lives. May your Thanksgiving be prayerful and joyous and filled with love and laughter. Thanksgiving calls us to share: A sharing based on our gratitude to God. We invite you to gift one of our blessed blankets or shawls to someone in your life.

There is no charge for our blankets and shawls. They are not for sale. You can get a free one for a friend or relative in the church office.

Wonderful cards, letters and reports have been received to tell us about the comfort our prayer blankets and shawls give to recipients. If you have a story to share, please write to us.

The St. Isidore Prayer Blanket and Prayer Shawl Ministry; the Comfort Crafters, treasure all testimonies.

Our crafting group always prays for the recipients as we create blankets and shawls for you to give to someone who needs comfort.

We ask that you share our ministry information with other parishioners.

Happy Thanksgiving and thank you!
“The Comfort Crafters”
God bless you!

Poverty is not having necessities. Poverty is hunger. Poverty is lack of shelter. Poverty is being sick and not being able to see a doctor. Poverty is not having a job and fearing for the future. Poverty is living one day at a time without hope.

The Parable of the Talents

Before he left on a journey, a master entrusted his servants with some talents (a type of money).

Find 15 things that are different in the bottom picture.

When the master returned, he called his servants to him to settle his accounts. His words to the first two servants are below.

Circle the underlined words in the puzzle.

"Well done, good and faithful servant!"

You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!"
