👤 Fr. Chris Talbot, St. Francis/St. Max ✉ eljefetalbot@hotmail.com

Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers or sisters of mine, you did for me.

Matthew 25:31-46

This Sunday, we culminate the liturgical year with the Feast of Christ the King. Our King demonstrates what it means to serve the Kingdom by his selfless surrender for our salvation. As the good shepherd, he came down from Heaven to seek and save us—his lost and scattered sheep (first reading). His sacrifice on the cross frees us from sin and death. By his resurrection, he offers us new and eternal life. By his ascension, he opens the gates to His Kingdom of Mercy for us. He desires to be with us in His Kingdom forever.

All we need to do is respond to his loving invitation with faith in his promise. That response begins with Baptism, in which we become members of Christ and His Kingdom. His Kingdom is not just in Heaven but, through us, His Kingdom extends to the here and now. Our baptism calls us to serve His Kingdom as members and faithful Disciples of Christ. However, another kingdom entices us to serve it instead. St. Augustine describes it as the selfish Kingdom of the World. In fact, we must constantly choose between these two kingdoms because, like it or not, everything we do or say serves one or the other.

As we finish the liturgical year and anticipate the beginning of the next, it may bode well to evaluate our journeys of faith together with the members of our community. What have I been doing to serve Christ's Kingdom of selfless love? The gospel for today gives us a challenging list to start with. How have I been feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, welcoming the stranger, and visiting the sick and imprisoned? This question may make you a little uncomfortable if you're anything like me. I have not always done this very well, but thanks be to God, for Jesus is patient and merciful. He is always giving us chances to choose his love and mercy anew. Therefore, we evaluate our successes and failures in serving God's Kingdom not to feel bad about ourselves but to start anew and to serve more intentionally and faithfully going forward.

Sister Mary Finn, of fond memory, used to give this simple three-step daily routine to help us serve God's Kingdom. She even made it rhyme so we can remember it easily. It goes:

*Exercise and Pray
And a Work of Mercy Everyday*

What a powerful proclamation of the Kingdom we would make as a faith community if we each committed to this simple daily routine. But how can we sustain this commitment? Even though it sounds simple, it won't be easy. If we go it alone, we will most likely quit when it gets tough or when we stumble. However, if we do it together, sharing our successes and struggles, supporting each other, keeping each other accountable, and helping each other when we fall, we can live this commitment to serve God's Kingdom of Mercy each day. We can do this. Who's with me?

▶ Music & Screens Survey

👤 Matt Kush & Amy Righi ↗ matt@stisidore.church

Church music preferences vary widely among individuals. Just as people have diverse tastes in food, art, and literature, their musical inclinations within the context of worship can be equally diverse. Some find solace in traditional hymns, appreciating their rich history and timeless melodies, while others are drawn to contemporary worship songs with modern arrangements and lyrics that resonate with today's issues. The beauty of this diversity lies in the ability of church music to cater to the spiritual needs of a diverse congregation, ensuring that everyone can connect with their faith through the melodies and lyrics that speak to their hearts.

We do our best in comprehensively planning music each week including traditional hymns, contemporary Christians hits, and folk hymns (music in the middle) at most Masses so that everyone finds at least one song that allows them to connect with God through sung worship. However, we'd love to know more about how you sing and worship at St. Isidore to help ensure that our approach to music and the way in which it is projected on screens continues to enhance the worship experience.

Please take this short survey to share your feedback by going to stisidore.church/music-survey, scanning the QR code, or using one of the survey cards in the Gathering Space.

▶ When Christmas Falls on a Monday

 Amy Righi amy@stisidore.church

The Advent and Christmas Seasons are as short as they can possibly be this year. Christmas falls on a Monday. The Fourth Sunday of Advent is December 24, which is also Christmas Eve. As a result, we have adjusted the Mass schedule for the Fourth Sunday of Advent on December 24 accordingly to allow for a full schedule of Christmas celebrations.

- Fourth Sunday of Advent, 4:30 Mass, 7:30 & 9:30 Mass (No 11:30 or 5:30 Masses)

The remainder of the Christmas Masses are as usual:

- Christmas Eve 4:00 & 6:00 PM Masses
- 12:00 midnight Mass (with 11:30pm Choral Prelude)

- Christmas Day 8:30 & 11:00 AM Masses

Although the Christmas Season is short, we can make the most of our festive celebrations of the Incarnation by devoting special time with family and friends as well as attending Mass on the Holy Days of the season.

- The Holy Family - December 31 (Regular Mass Schedule)
- Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God - January 1, 9:00 AM Mass ONLY (not a Holy Day of Obligation this year)
- The Epiphany of Our Lord - January 7 (Regular Mass Schedule)

Breakfast-Thank You

St. Isidore Church: Thank you for your attendance at the November 12 pancake breakfast. What a great turnout, over 200 people. With your help and support, the money we were able to raise will be used for the benefit of others. We hope you enjoyed the food and the fellowship of this breakfast. It was very nice sharing breakfast with you. As always, your generosity and continued support of our events is greatly appreciated, as they would be fruitless without your involvement. We pray for your safety through the holiday season and Christmas. We hope to see you at our next Pancake Breakfast on February 4.

Exemplification

On November 9, members our K of C Council conducted an Exemplification ceremony welcoming two new Brother Knights into the K of C. This ceremony imparts lessons that inspire men to serve and teaches our time-honored principles in a way that is appropriate for today. It presents the lessons of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity in powerful contemporary language.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits ✉ evangelization@stisidore.church

Put aside your hatred and animosity. Take pains to refrain from sharp words. If they escape your lips, do not be ashamed to let your lips produce the remedy, since they have caused the wounds. Pardon one another so that later on you will not remember the injury. The recollection of an injury is itself wrong. It adds to our anger, nurtures our sin and hates what is good. It is a rusty arrow and poison for the soul. It puts all virtue to flight.

St. Francis of Paola

This Week's Intention: Banishing animosity

Suggested Prayer/Activity: Meditate on and act on the above quote.

Did You Know?

St. Martin of Tours

When he was younger, St. Martin of Tours dedicated himself to military service. When he heard the call of Christ, he realized that his call was to fight a spiritual battle. His armor and weapons were virtue and a life guided by the Holy Spirit of God. Do I consider my spiritual life to be a type of battle against the forces of evil?

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser ✉ babypantry@stisidore.church

Prayer blankets and shawls to comfort people are available in the St. Isidore Church Office during normal business hours and after Sunday morning Masses.

We have heard that our prayer blankets and shawls bring relief to the suffering and peace to the fearful. As people use their blanket or shawl, they know they are not alone. They realize there are those who care about them and are praying for them and their healing.

Our blankets and shawls become prayer blankets and shawls because they are made with prayers for the recipient and prayers are included with each item. So, please get a blanket or shawl for a friend or relative needing comfort (available, free, in the church office). Show the recipient that you and the parishioners of St. Isidore Church care about them and offer prayers, encouragement, compassion, and loneliness relief.

We ask that you share our ministry information with other parishioners. You can help us bring comfort to those in need.

Thank you from “The Comfort Crafters,”
God bless you!

... misery is often invisible, but perhaps that is because we refuse to notice it. The truth is, human need screams out for attention and we are too self-absorbed to respond. Instead, we avert our gaze and step over those inconveniently lying in our path. Perhaps the very reason they are there is to give us the opportunity to stretch our hearts and to practice love.

We offer supplemental-to-WIC assistance to local low-income families with infants, babies and toddlers.

Advent begins next Sunday. Please help us assist low-income families with babies through the St. Isidore Giving Tree. Thank you very much!

May our prayers and practices root us in gratitude and in a renewed commitment to reach out to those needing assistance.

Our ministry provides help with diapers, wipes, and other items that are necessary for child care.

Put all donations in our Pac-n-Play outside the church office. Thank you!

We really, really need:

- New toddler Christmas books (ages 2-4)
- Baby lotion (pink stuff)
- Fragrance-free, sensitive wipes
- Baby wash (Head to Toe)

(Adapted from an article by Mitch Finley):

If we have been blessed with good things, God asks us to do good things with what we've been given. We need to use our gifts and blessings to help those who have fewer gifts and blessings.

Your continued support enables us to help others through you and for you.

If you are low-income and need baby items, call (586) 745-9501 anytime and leave a message. We will return your call as soon as possible.
