TO GET ME TO TURN?

CONNECTING POINT

Deacon Jeff Loeb jeff@stisidore.com

We are in that time again where we set back our clocks an hour, turn on the heat in our houses, make sure our cars are holding up (along with the air in the tires), get our snow blowers and shovels ready, and put away our summer clothes to bring out our sweaters, hats, and gloves. These are all steps we must take to prepare for another winter season in Michigan!

We do these things because we know what is coming, but what would happen if we didn't do these things? We would be caught off-guard and left out in the cold—literally!

Our scripture readings on this first week of Advent warn us to stay alert and turn back to our Lord so we are prepared. We do not know when Jesus will return, but we know he will come to us when we least expect it.

A few weeks ago, we heard about the parable of the ten virgins, half of whom neglected to fill their lamps with oil in preparation. This parable represents our lives regarding our obedience to the Lord's teachings. When we become disobedient and turn away from him, we lose vigilance and become unprepared to receive Jesus when he comes again. This is the same warning he gives in the Gospel this week, where the man traveling abroad leaves his servants in charge of his home and orders a watch at the gate. We are the servants of his Church, which he left in our care. We are entrusted with continuing his work and have been given the gifts of the Holy Spirit to do so.

Advent lets us refocus where we are in our readiness and turn back to the Lord so we can be prepared for the season of his return. How can we do this? Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful time to sit before the Lord and be with him. We move away from the many distractions in our lives and focus on what he tells us in our hearts. We feel the movements of the Spirit within us. We can use our gifts to volunteer at our parishes and serve the community. This service could be with the Knights of Columbus, Altar Society, Ushers, Altar Servers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, or other ministries that support our community. If we have not been to confession in a while, we can turn back to pray for forgiveness. If we haven't attended Mass very often, we can resolve to attend weekend Mass. The critical thing to remember is the Lord wants us to return to him with open arms. No matter where we are in our faith lives, Jesus always meets us where we are now. So, we have an opportunity in the weeks of Advent to ask ourselves: What will it take for me to return to Jesus so I am prepared?

▶ K of C Star Council Award

 Brian McAleer briantmcaleer@gmail.com

At the end of each Fraternal Year, the Knights of Columbus awards qualifying councils a Star Council Award. This award is quite an honor, as less than 10% of the over 16,000 councils world-wide earn Star Council. To achieve this award, councils need to meet or exceed requirements in various elements of council activities. The main activities focus on Culture of Life, Youth, Family, the Council, and Service to the Church and Community.

Our K of C St. Isidore Council 7200 was awarded this Star Council at the November General Membership Meeting. Shown is Past Grand Knight (GK) Frank Oldani receiving the Star Council Award from District Deputy Joseph Suminski (on the right) and the State Deputy Regional Representative Paul Thorn (on the left). Congratulations and thank you GK Oldani and the entire council for your year-long efforts!!

► Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

👤 Amy Righi ✉ amy@stisidore.church

A common misconception is that the Immaculate Conception occurred when Jesus was conceived in Mary's womb. The Immaculate Conception actually celebrates the conception of Mary in the womb of her mother, St. Anne. The misconception could be due, at least in part, to the Gospel reading heard on the feast of the Immaculate Conception. Luke 1:26-38 includes the dialogue between Mary and the angel Gabriel at the time of the conception of Jesus.

Although there are no Gospels that go back to the time of Mary's own conception and birth, we certainly honor her as the greatest of Saints and as the recipient of the holiest gifts of God's grace. These gifts and her consequent holiness were bestowed on her by the father to honor his Son, who was incarnate through her. The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines the Immaculate Conception as: The dogma proclaimed in Christian Tradition and defined in 1854, that from the first moment of her conception, Mary - by the singular grace of God and by the virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ - was preserved immune from original sin (491).

The proclaimed Roman Catholic dogma states "that the most Blessed Virgin Mary, in the first instance of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege granted by Almighty God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the human race, was preserved free from all stain of original sin".[1] Being always free from original sin, she was from the start filled with the sanctifying grace that would normally come with baptism after birth. Although widely-held since at least Late Antiquity, the doctrine was not formally proclaimed until Pope Pius IX did so in 1854 in Ineffabilis Deus.

We give thanks for our Blessed Mother Mary, for her courage, acceptance, and witness to God's Divine plan unfolding in her.

Advent Blessings,
Amy

Our Lady of Guadalupe

Under her title of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mary was declared the patron of New Spain (1710), of Latin America (1910), the Queen of Mexico and Empress of the Americas (1945) and patroness of the of the Americas (1999). Her feast on December 12 is joyously celebrated with mariachi music, liturgies, dancing, meals, the re-telling of the story, and an abundance of roses in December. Her shrine in Mexico City is the most popular one after the Vatican in the Catholic world.

194 Online Gifts

23% Families Contributing

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

Visit stisidore.church/give for the safest and easiest way to support St. Isidore

▶ How to donate to St. Vincent de Paul

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

👤 Pat Schmeiser 📧 babypantry@stisidore.church

Do you know a person who is alone? Lonely? How about that someone who is sad over the loss of a family member or good friend? Or a frightened woman or man who has just been diagnosed with a serious medical problem? During this season of Advent, please deliver a prayer blanket or shawl to comfort that person. You can gift someone with a hand-made item created by one of our Comfort Crafters. Prayer blankets and shawls are available - free - for a friend or relative needing comfort.

Please get one for someone you know and love.

Reaching out and lifting people up is what we are called to do. What a blessing it is to the comforted person.

► Baby Pantry

👤 Pat Schmeiser 📧 babypantry@stisidore.church 📞 586-745-9501

First Sunday of Advent: The day to begin waiting for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives. We are all called to the service of the poor. Our service must come from hearts that live in joyful anticipation.

Right now, our needs are:

- ** Fragrance-free, sensitive wipes **
- Similac Total Comfort formula
- Size 5 diapers
- Combo baby wash/shampoo

We often feel helpless knowing there are so many needy families in our immediate surroundings. When we offer what we have been given, we take Jesus to our neighbors.

Your continued support enables us to help others through you and for you. May your Advent be peaceful and prayerful.

The Baby Pantry Team feels blessed that you donate to help someone else. And help, indeed, you do! Be happy because God is answering that person's prayer through you.

It is wonderful to have so many generous St. Isidore parishioners who enable us to help others. Advent is a time of prayer, giving and loving. Your gifts allow your immediate neighbors, who are poor, to know the good news of Jesus

If you are low income, have WIC, and need help, call anytime and leave a message. We will return your call as soon as possible.

God bless you!

The Baby Pantry Team: Cindy, Mickey, Kathy, Angie, Carol, Pat
