THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Fr. Ron Victor 📧 fron@stisidore.church

Our second reading at Mass this weekend is from the second letter of St. Peter. In it, he tells us that we should be persons "conducting (ourselves) in holiness and devotion, waiting for and hastening the coming day of God."

I am blessed to be a part of a faith community in which I am surrounded and inspired by people who conduct themselves in holiness and devotion. I see it in loving, compassionate people who live by Gospel values and devote themselves to building a more just and peaceful world.

I see it in parents who bring infants, toddlers, and young children to Mass—a task as difficult as it gets. I see it in those who come to church with walkers, wheelchairs, oxygen tanks, etc. I see devotion and holiness in those who serve us devoutly as our liturgical ministers, catechists, and parish staff members, as well as in those who serve in our outreach ministries. I see it in those who volunteer in our schools, hospitals, and soup kitchens. I also see it in caretakers, teachers, counselors, coaches, scout leaders, first responders, health care workers, hospice workers, smiling store clerks, and those many kind people I encounter every day.

Today's readings remind us that we are not only preparing for Christ's coming, but we are also called to hasten it! To bring it about! We do so by living holy lives, that is, by living according to Gospel values and devoting ourselves to building the Kingdom of justice and peace.

► Deacon Jeff Takes on New Roles at St. Isidore

Deacon Jeff Loeb, who was ordained in October, 2018, and has been serving us at St. Isidore for these past five years, has now joined our parish staff on a full-time basis. He is serving as our Pastoral Associate and Director of Evangelical Charity, formerly called Christian Service. Deacon Jeff has superb organizational skills and a servant's heart. Under Deacon Jeff's leadership, we hope to expand our outreach ministries. We welcome Deacon Jeff, and thank him for leaving the corporate world to serve us.

And what one thing does Deacon Jeff ask of us? Prayers! Prayers that in his ministry he is open to all of the new ways the Lord will use him as an instrument to help and support all of us. May the Holy Spirit guide Deacon Jeff and may he be open to those movements and the journey that awaits.

Did You Know?

"Do not forget all his gifts." (Psalm 103:2)

The Scottish writer James M. Barrie, author of Peter Pan, once said that "God gave us a memory so that we may have roses in December." I suspect he meant the memory empowers us to imagine roses from the past-joyful experiences and pleasant times in our life-even if we are presently enduring a cold and barren season or are going through personal difficulties. As Catholics, we might also think of the coming feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, whose gift of miraculous roses to Saint Juan Diego reveals that through her, "the wilderness and the parched land will exult," that the desert will "bloom abundantly." (Isaiah 35:1-2)

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser ✉ babypantry@stisidore.church

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the church office during normal business hours and after all Sunday morning Masses.

Unconditional love always requires sacrifice. Partnership with Christ means living a life of love for others. A prayer blanket or shawl is one way to bring the loving comfort of Christ to others.

Advent is a sharing-with-others time. Know that you will bring hope and love to others when you gift one of our hand-made items to a friend or relative needing comfort because they are sick, grieving, lonely, or discouraged. Prayer blankets and shawls are available - free - in the church office. Please include all our prayer blanket and shawl recipients in your prayers. We pray for our recipients at every meeting.

If you like to knit, crochet, sew or quilt, think about joining our ministry in January. We meet in the Social Hall every Tuesday at 1:00.

We ask that you share our ministry information with other parishioners. You can help us bring comfort to others.

Thank you from "The Comfort Crafters"

"God comforts, not to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters." (John Henry Jowett)

Reaching out to others takes loving time: time to talk with the lonely, frightened, worried... We can become Christ for others when we allow ourselves to glimpse Christ in them. Prayer: O God of Love, help us to see Your face in the faces of others.
