👤 Fr. Chris Talbot - St. Francis/St. Maximilian 📧 frchris@sfsm.church

Like it or not we are always making choices and are choices are taking us somewhere. It is estimated that the average adult makes in upwards of 35,000 remotely conscious choices every day. These choices all have consequences. They lead us to where we end up, whether we are aware of it or not. In the first reading we hear about how the choices of God's people slowly turned them away from God. Although he tried to turn them back by sending them messengers and prophets, they chose not to listen to them. Instead they "added infidelity to infidelity" which eventually led to their enemies burning down the temple and dragging them away into captivity in Babylon. Our choices can lead us, little by little, away from God and into "captivity" to many earthly powers such as greed, envy, drugs, alcohol, gambling, over eating, shopping, sexual pleasure, etc. All these leave us empty and despairing.

Thankfully, God is always steadfast in his choice never to abandon us. Just as through king Cyrus, he called

FR. RON'S Reflections

As we draw closer to Easter, we are reminded that at the center of our prayer during Lent are the ten Catechumens and ten Candidates for Full Communion, with the Catholic Church with whom we will be celebrating the Easter Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. The Catechumens will be baptized, and the Candidates, already baptized Christian, will make a Profession of Faith, in which they profess that they believe what the Catholic Church teaches. They will all then celebrate Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Having completed the three Sacraments of Initiation, they will be full members of our worshipping community.

Hopefully, many of our parishioners will join us at the Easter Vigil to welcome our new members. Guided by the ministry of our Order of the Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) team, they have put forth much effort, time, and prayer during the past several months. This includes the celebration of three "Scrutinies" at our 9:30 Mass beginning last Sunday. They "scrutinize" their hearts so as to rid themselves of anything that would prevent them from following Jesus and living the Gospel values. We, on our part, purify our community in order to receive new members.

Actors needed!

Join us for our annual Good Friday Living Stations of the Cross! We are seeking actors of all ages to bring to life the poignant moments of Jesus' journey to Calvary. No experience necessary, just a heart willing to portray the depth of these sacred events. This is a great way to contribute to our community's observance of Holy Week. Come be a part of this moving tradition. If interested, contact Amy at amy@stisidore.church.

This week's article will focus on Cross Catholic Outreach's: Nurturing Bright Futures Rooted in Christ. A plan to Expand Catholic Education Kobonal, Haiti*

Description: This project will expand the Kobonal Mission School to offer secondary education, giving impoverished children an opportunity to continue their education and break free from cycles of poverty.

Purpose: To empower impoverished children through a quality Catholic education, enabling them to break free from generational poverty and grow spiritually.

Location: Kobonal, is a rural farming community in Haiti's Diocese of Hinche.

Cost: $472,350 will sustain operational support of the Kobonal Mission School and help move forward a three-year plan to expand the school to offer seventh through ninth grade by 2025-2026.

Highlights:

- Need: Because of poverty, fewer than half of Haiti's children are able to complete a basic primary school education. (Source: UNESCO). Just 16.8 percent of the country's young people graduate from high school, and only one percent of Haiti's young adults enrolled in college (Source: USAID). This lack of formal educational opportunities has become a barrier to progress and leaves thousand of young Haitians unqualified for family-sustaining employment, trapping them in a life time of poverty.
- Impact: St. Isidore's financial support will enable the Kobonal Mission School to plan and construct new secondary education classrooms so more of the area's children can advance in their education. Investing in this mission of mercy will allow the school to continue to bless children in kindergarten through six grade. It can achieve this by attracting quality teachers, administrators, and staff with competitive salaries.

Respectfully in God's Love

Proverbs 24:14

ancient Israel out of captivity and back to Jerusalem, God calls us back to His light of truth and mercy to begin anew building the temple of His love. However, as Jesus points out in the Gospel we have to choose the light over the darkness. That's the opportunity of our Lenten journey. In order to choose the grace of God's love, first we need to choose to become aware of where our choices have brought us to. Can all my works "be clearly seen as done in God" or would I prefer that's some of my

"works might not be exposed".

We all have a mix of good and bad, darkness and light in our choices. No matter how far astray our choices have led us, God's mercy calls us back. As our Lenten reflection makes us aware of the darkness and despair that some of our choice have led us to, God begs us to make the critical choice to put our faith in His Saving Grace. The second reading clearly tells us that "by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God." Knowing that we cannot save ourselves from darkness and sin, Jesus came and died to take them away. Because of this saving gift of love we don't have to remain in the emptiness and despair of sin. We can choose to accept His gift, turn away from our sinful choices and begin again living in the Grace of Jesus Christ which will bring us to true Easter Joy or to continue in darkness and despair. But make no mistake, We Have to Choose.

► Strawberry Festival Help Wanted

Mike Fontana, Strawberry Festival Chairman ✉ mfontana31@gmail.com

The St. Isidore Strawberry Festival Committee (SFC) is looking for new volunteers to help head up some new areas for the upcoming three day festival, which will take place June 21 – 23 on the St. Isidore campus. The open Coordinator positions we are looking to fill are:

Inflatable Coordinator

Help with the staffing and oversight of the inflatables outside the church rectory. Must be able to work well with children.

Communications Coordinator

Help to communicate the needs of the SFC to the parish Engagement team and work together to create a comprehensive strategy for effective communication across the church's established marketing channels.

50/50 Raffle Coordinator

Coordinate the sales of 50/50 raffle tickets and assist in the drawing and distribution of funds to the winners.

Dessert Walk Coordinator

Assist with the preparation and execution of the Dessert Walk and assist with the delivery of baked goods to the winners.

Sponsor Coordinator

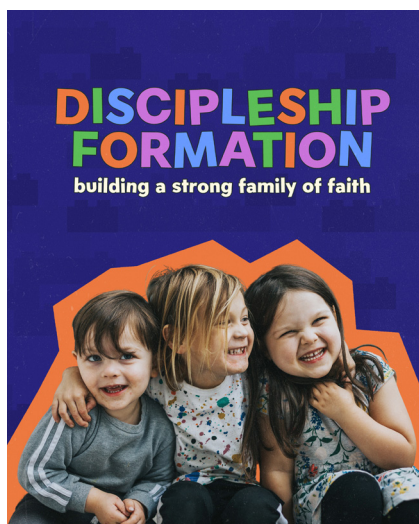

Solicit local businesses for sponsorship opportunities.

The SFC meets once each month leading up to the festival. Meetings are typically not longer than two hours and occur the first Saturday morning of each month. You will be given a complete roster of all of the other Coordinators in case you have any questions or need to bounce something off someone.

Your time and talent is what we are looking for. We hope you might be able to join us and fill one of these positions. If you have any questions or need any more information, do not hesitate to reach out to Mike Fontana via phone or text at 248-224-5583 or via email at mfontana31@gmail.com.

The 4th Sunday in Lent

God's love in today's reading is so important to what we believe that we should never allow such love to go unnoticed. He is the light that came into the world to save us from the darkness.

Family Time Fun

Play a game of flashlight tag with your family or friends this week. And remember that Jesus is the light shining in the darkness!

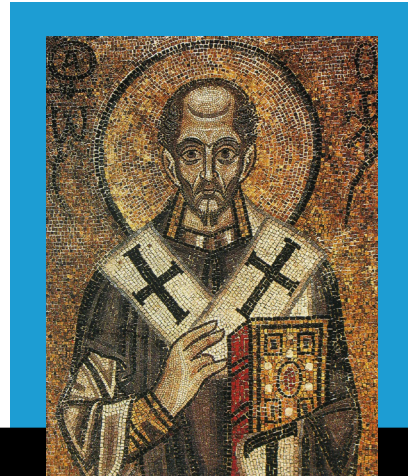

The fast of Lent has no advantage to us unless it brings about our spiritual renewal. It is necessary while fasting to change our whole life and practice virtue. Turning away from all wickedness means keeping our tongue in check, restraining our anger, avoiding all gossip, lying and swearing. To abstain from these things-herein lies the true value of the fast.

St. John Chrysostum

▶ Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Taming Our Speech

Suggested Prayer and Activity: Meditate on the quote to the left and ask for the grace to keep your tongue in check.

Did You Know? St. John Chrysostum

St. John Chrysostum was born as John of Antioch in 347AD of Christian parents. His father died shortly after his birth and his mother devoted herself to raising John and his older sister. "Chrysostum" is a title attributed to him, meaning "Golden Mouth," An honorific Greek title emphasized the power of his preaching and writings. John studied under Libanus, a famous pagan teacher. Around the age of twenty, John met Bishop Meletius, a powerful preacher. John abandoned his pagan studies and began devoting himself to the study of Scripture, the ascetic life, and prayer. He was baptized, became a lector, and underwent a profound conversion. Drawn to solitude and prayer, he became a hermit, living in a cave near Antioch, embracing extreme fasting and continuous study of the Bible. After eight years he returned to Antioch to recover from poor health. When John was thirty-three, 381AD, he was ordained a deacon and about five years later, ordained a priest. For eleven years his fruitful ministry was pastoral in nature. His many sermons, commentaries, and teachings were practical, relevant and bold. In 397AD he was ordained Archbishop of Constantinople and lived in simplicity, cared for the poor, railed against sin. His fiery preaching offered clear moral and spiritual guidance on how to live. In the year 403 John was falsely accused of heresy and cruelty to the empress, deposed, and exiled. Due to a natural disaster that damaged the imperial palace and a revolt among the people he was recalled for fear of God's wrath. Soon after he was exiled again. After three years in exile as John was being taken to a more isolated area, he died on route due to poor health, harsh conditions, and cruelty of the soldiers. His prolific writings, 700 sermons, hundreds of letters, commentaries on Scripture and theological treatises, important teachings on the Eucharist and priesthood, earned him the distinction of being a Doctor of the Church.

YOUTH GROUP

👤 Diana Devine, Youth Minister ✉ diana@stisidore.church

Navigating

one's place within the community can be intimidating for young people, but joining a group that empowers youth and embraces all, can be the key to feeling more rooted in one's faith. Youth Ministry serves as a space where teens unite to enrich their spirituality through prayer, engaging activities, discussions, and enjoyable experiences!

In the past year, we've dedicated ourselves to redefining the essence of Youth Ministry, and we're thrilled to unveil our program to you. We understand that everyone has their unique approach to learning and forming connections.

That's precisely why our new program unfolds in three distinctive parts. Whether you're a thinker, doer, or a game-changer, there's a space for you to excel and evolve here.

Let us introduce the first of three parts. Immerse yourself in Message Nights, where we go deeper into the nitty-gritty - addressing your burning questions and delving into topics that pique your interest.

It's about exploring diverse viewpoints and experiencing those 'aha' moments in a manner that resonates with you.

Stay tuned in the coming weeks to discover more about our exciting new program, "YTH"!

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

Visit stisidore.church/give for the safest and easiest way to support St. Isidore

▶ How to donate to St. Vincent de Paul

We use all donations to help our neighbors who are in financial distress with rent, utilities, and food. All donations are tax-deductible.

To make a donation put cash or a check (to St. Isidore SVdP) in an envelope marked SVdP in the collection basket at Mass. Thank you!

► Divine Mercy Chaplet

👤 Sue Rebits 📧 evangelization@stisidore.church

"GOD AND SOULS" is the motto of St. Maria Faustina of the Most Blessed Sacrament. One of the elements of the devotion that Jesus desired St. Faustina to spread is called the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

"Pray as much as you can for the dying. By your entreaties obtain for them trust in My mercy, because they have the most need of trust, and have it the least. Be assured that the grace of eternal salvation for certain souls in their final moment depends on your prayer. You know the whole abyss of My mercy, so draw upon it for yourself and especially for poor sinners. Sooner would heaven and earth turn into nothingness than would My mercy not embrace a trusting soul." (Diary 1777)

"At the hour of their death, I defend as My own glory every soul that will say this chaplet; or when others say it for the dying person, the indulgence is the same." (Diary 1541)

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

(Prayed using a rosary, prayers can be found online and brochures are available at the Book KIOSK in the Gathering Space)

1. Make the Sign of the Cross.
2. Say the optional Opening Prayer.
3. Say the "Our Father."
4. Say the "Hail Mary."
5. Say the Apostles Creed.
6. Say the "Eternal Father."
7. Say 10 "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion" on the "Hail Mary" beads.

8. Repeat for four more decades step 6 & 7.
9. After the five decades, on the centerpiece say the "Holy God," three times.
10. Say the optional Closing Prayer.

Often added are "Jesus, I trust in You," said three times and then "St. Faustina, pray for us."

On Tuesday, after 8 AM Mass, we pray the Peace Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet in Church. Perhaps you may want to join us. This chaplet is traditionally prayed at the 3:00 hour, the hour of mercy. It takes about 10 minutes or so and is a powerful spiritual practice you may want to develop this Lent.

m_____ be se_____ plain_____ _____at wh_____ they _____ave do_____ h_____

be_____ thr_____ God."

God did something very special for everyone
because God loves us.
How much does God love us?

Reading from left to right, write all of the 1's in order. When you reach the last 1, return to the top and write all of the 2's in order. Then return to the top and write all the 3's in order.

➡ 1- For	2 - gave	3 - Him	1- God
2 - His	3 - shall	1- so	2 - only
3 - not	1- loved	2 - Son	3 - perish
1- the	2 - that	3 - but	1- world
2 - whoever	3 - have	1- that	2 - believes
3 - eternal	1- He	2 - in	3 - life
