CONNECTING POINT

 Msgr. John Kasza - Moderator  frjohn@stol.church

It is Easter morning. Do you believe? Are you rejoicing? How are you announcing the Good News? We are the disciples of Jesus. We are the spiritual heirs of Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of James, Salome, Simon Peter, and the other disciples. What is our reaction to the resurrection some 2000 years after the fact?

Do we truly believe that Jesus rose from the dead? Do we know that the resurrection allows us to achieve eternal life? In addition to transforming the whole of creation and all of human history, Jesus' passion, death, and resurrection renewed each of us—personally. Jesus died for us and our sins. His life was meant to save us.

Therefore, the resurrection is a cause for celebration. We should rejoice because this is the day the Lord has made. Death has been conquered. Life has been restored. The gates of paradise are open to those who genuinely believe and desire to enter God's Kingdom. We are invited to sit at God's banquet table in heaven.

"The angel rolled the stone away, the angel rolled the stone away
 'Twas on a bright and shiny morn, when the trumpet began to sound
 The angel rolled the stone away."

These words, from an historic Negro spiritual, express the joy we celebrate this Easter day! It rejoices in the heart of our faith: God led Jesus through suffering and death on the cross to the glory of the Resurrection. It is also our promise of eternal life. Our physical death is a transition to something much better and more glorious! It is our belief that in Baptism we died with Christ so as to rise with him to new life! We, too, shall rise!

We remind ourselves that Easter is not a day, it is a Season. The joy and new life of Easter is so abundant that it cannot be contained in just 24 hours. We celebrate the first eight days of Easter, the "Octave of Easter," as though it were still Easter day. And then we continue to celebrate for a total of fifty days.

Central to our Easter celebration was the celebration of the Easter Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) with our elect and candidates at the Easter Vigil. We welcomed twenty one new members into our worshiping community. During the Easter Season the newly baptized, now called "neophytes," will be wearing their white Baptismal garments to Mass. Please take time to welcome them, and keep them in your prayers.

We will also be celebrating First Communion with our young people during the Easter Season.

Some of our young people will be celebrating their First Communion at our weekend liturgies. Since Eucharist is initiation into a worshiping community, it is good for the worshiping community to be present to welcome them! Other of our young people will celebrate their First Communion at traditional First Communion Masses. We ask our First Communicants to wear their First Communion clothes when they come to our weekend liturgies throughout the Easter Season. Please take time to welcome them and make a fuss over them!

We have so much to celebrate and rejoice in during this fifty-day Season of joy. Please join us throughout this season.

Have a Blessed Easter!

Preparations are already under way for this year's festival. Once again this year, the themed basket raffle will be a highlight. Here is where Amazon shoppers can help. We have put together a list of items needed to make our raffle special this year. Using this QR code, you can shop on Amazon and have it delivered directly to the church. No carrying items home or remembering to bring them to church! Easy as pie is easier than ever!

The traditional strawberry patch will also be up in the gathering space in May, as usual. Thank you "berry" much for your support!

▶ Holy Communion to the Homebound

👤 Deacon Jeff Loeb 📧 jeff@stisidore.church

I am writing to our parishioners to let you know of one way you can help our parish community. There is a growing need for those who cannot come to Mass due to ill health and are in need for someone bringing them Holy Communion. We do have a small group of wonderful volunteers who give of their time as stewards of those in need. However, we need more help! Maybe the Lord is calling you to this ministry? Please pray on this request, and if you feel the Lord speaking to your heart on becoming his hands and feet bringing holy communion to the homebound, please contact me.

The Good News, then, needs to be proclaimed and shared with everyone—but not just verbally. We need to share it through the very ways we live our lives. Discipleship, like the word “love,” is an action. It is a decision containing a definite purpose. As disciples of Jesus, we need to live like Jesus and be Jesus for others. Discipleship is not merely paying lip service to the Gospel but instead taking its message to heart, allowing it to become an integral part of our very being, and then issuing forth in our words, actions, and lifestyles.

This Easter is an opportunity to recommit ourselves to the Gospel message and truly believe what we have heard, rejoice in the message, and then announce it to the world.

Happy Easter from all the clergy and staff in the Disciples Unleashed Family of Parishes. May the Risen Christ continue to enlighten our hearts and minds throughout the Easter season.

▶ How often do we not recognize Jesus?

👤 Mike Aprile, Eucharistic Revival Committee

The Road to Emmaus story appears in Luke 24:13-35. It recounts an encounter between two disciples of Jesus who were traveling from Jerusalem to Emmaus on the day of Jesus’ resurrection, although they did not yet realize that he had risen. As they walked, they discussed the events surrounding Jesus’ crucifixion and the reports of his resurrection.

Suddenly, Jesus himself approached and began walking with them, but they did not recognize him. He asked them what they were discussing, and they explained their sadness over the crucifixion of Jesus and their confusion about reports of his resurrection. Jesus then interpreted the Scriptures for them, explaining how the Messiah had to suffer before entering his glory.

Upon reaching Emmaus, the disciples invited Jesus to stay with them, and as they shared a meal, Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them. It was in this moment that their eyes were opened, and they recognized Jesus. However, he disappeared from their sight.

How often do we not recognize Jesus in the people we cross paths with each day... In the events of our lives... In the beauty and wonder of creation... In the breaking of the bread at Mass... His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

The Disciples Unleashed Eucharistic Revival Committee is hosting a half-day summit on Saturday, April 13, 2024, from 2 PM to 8 PM, at St. Therese of Lisieux Parish. The theme of the summit is “Road to Emmaus - Meeting Jesus in the Eucharist” and will feature two talks by Steve Ray, author of “Crossing the Tiber,” creator of “Footprints of God” documentary series, popular radio personality, and international Catholic speaker. The summit will be centered around 4:30 PM Mass and will include a delicious dinner following Mass.

Registration is required and can be done online at <https://disciplesunleashed.org/emmaus/> or at St. Therese’s Parish Office.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

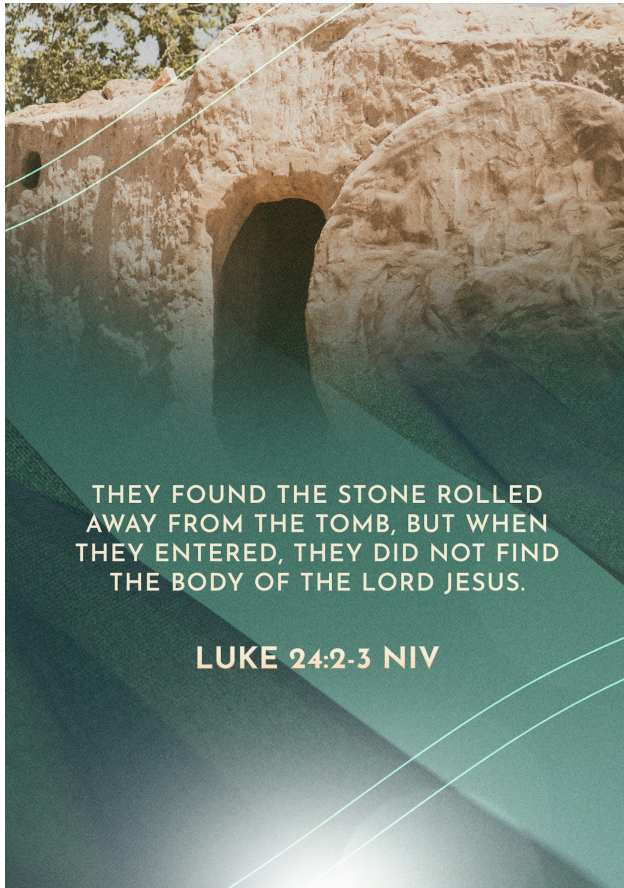

Our Lord Has Risen! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Family Time Fun

In the remaining days of the Easter season make a paper chain. To do this have each family member write something they are grateful for on a piece of paper and then turn that into a ring for the chain. Join them all together to see just how much your family is grateful for. Consider using a different color paper for each family member and then saving the chain to use on your Christmas Tree.

▶ Power in Prayer

Month of March dedicated to St. Joseph

Did You Know? Easter Traditions

EASTER EGG ROLL

In the UK and in the US, rolling Easter eggs down a hill is a popular tradition. Participants decorate hard-boiled eggs and then roll them down a slope, with the egg that travels farthest without breaking is declared the winner. It's even an annual event at the White House, dating back to 1878.

LIGHT A BONFIRE

In Austria, people celebrate Holy Saturday night by lighting bonfires on hillsides. This tradition symbolizes the end of winter and the triumph of light over darkness.

FLY A KITE

Bermudans celebrate Easter by crafting traditional Bermuda kites and flying them on Good Friday. This tradition represents the ascent of Jesus into heaven and fosters community.

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.
