SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

HOW CAN I

APPROACH

SOMEONE WHO

doesn't believe?

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Fr. Chris Talbot - St. Francis / St. Maximilian 📧 frchris@sfsm.church

In the Gospel this week, Thomas does not believe the other Apostles' proclamation of the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus. We tend to put the blame for his disbelief solely on the shoulders of poor "Doubting Thomas" himself. Shouldn't some, if not most, of that burden fall on the other Apostles? After all, their proclamation of the Resurrection did little to inspire Thomas to believe. Contrast that to the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, where "With great power, the Apostles bore witness to the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus" inspires the community to be of one heart and mind in their belief. So, what's the difference?

The difference lies in the living out of their witness. Their telling Thomas about Jesus was not supported by a change in their actions. They were still locked in a room and afraid. As the old saying goes, actions speak louder than words. In the readings, the believing community led by the Apostles boldly lived out God's command to love our neighbors as ourselves in how they treated each

Today, the Sunday within the Octave of Easter, is also Divine Mercy Sunday. Divine Mercy opens our hearts to the mercy and forgiveness that flow from the heart of Jesus. Please take note of information found elsewhere in this issue of Harvest News and, if possible, join us for at least some of the service. We are grateful to the members of our Divine Mercy Prayer Group for organizing our liturgy.

Our recently organized Adults with Disabilities Group has gotten off to a great start. The Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine parties were well attended and great fun was had by all. The next event is a Circus-themed party on Thursday, April 18, complete with a circus-themed dinner, games, prizes, and a magician! If you or someone you know is 18 years of age or older with disabilities, I encourage you to check out the group by contacting Beth Beebe in the parish office.

The Solemnity of the Annunciation is usually celebrated on March 25, nine months before Christmas. However, because that date fell during Holy Week this year, the feast was transferred to tomorrow, April 8. This is a powerful Marian Feast, as we celebrate Mary's "fiat" which led to her conceiving Jesus. We encourage you to join us at the 8:00 AM Mass to honor Mary and pray to follow her example of humility and trust.

Blessings.

Navigating through your grief

👤 Heather Herbst, Parish Nurse ✉️ heather@stisidore.church

Grief is a natural response to loss. The pain of loss can feel overwhelming, but there are healthy ways to cope with your grief and learn to heal. These tips can help:

1. Acknowledge your pain.
2. Accept that grief can trigger many different and unexpected emotions.
3. Understand that your grieving process will be unique to you.
4. Seek out face-to-face support from people who care about you.
5. Support yourself emotionally

by taking care of yourself physically.

6. Recognize the difference between grief and depression

Allow us help you along your grief journey. There is life after loss. We are here to help you find acceptance and inner peace. St. Isidore hosts a Grief Support Program that meets the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at 6:30 pm. The meetings are open to everyone; you do not need to be a parishioner to attend! Here you will find acceptance, support, hope, and encouragement from the caring members who faithfully journey through these difficult times together. Please feel free to call the parish office for more details, or email the facilitators: Heather@stisidore.church or Diane at dialbuck123@gmail.com

▶ Easter Egg Hunt

Thank you to the more than 600 attendees who came out for our annual Easter Egg Hunt and breakfast on Saturday, March 23. Although the snow on the ground kept the hunt indoors, there was still a lot of fun and egg hunting to be had!

► First Holy Communion at Mass

👤 Dawn Ormsby 📧 dawno@stisidore.church

The Sacrament of First Holy Communion is fast approaching for many of our young parishioners and we want to share it with our community. The Discipleship Formation team has chosen several upcoming Sunday liturgies for us to accomplish this. Please be aware that these First Holy Communion will occur from Saturday, April 20 through Sunday, May 5 at our 4:30, 9:30, and 11:30 Masses. At these Masses, we will welcome up to at least six First Holy Communion families. They will have reserved seating in the front rows of the church so that they can participate fully in their First Holy Communion.

After each Mass, the Communicants will be available in the Gathering Space with the presiding Priest to be congratulated.

We thank you all for your continued support of our young people and look forward to seeing you during these special Masses.

► VBS Volunteers Needed

👤 Dawn Ormsby 📧 dawno@stisidore.church

As we prepare to dive into Vacation Bible School (VBS) this year, we need your help! Adult volunteers are needed to help run the stations for VBS. Some of the stations that need help are for our preschool and kindergarten children and others are for our grade school children. Vacation Bible School will run from July 15-19 beginning at 8:30 AM for volunteers and running until approximately 1:00 PM. We ask that our adults try to volunteer for the whole week but we do understand that scheduling conflicts arise. If you are interested please contact Dawn Ormsby.

In recognition of the Divine Mercy we want to challenge our families to pray a short prayer by saying, “Jesus, I trust in you” each day at 3:00 PM (the hour of mercy) for one week. Set a reminder on your phones if you need and pray for an increase of trust in God.

▶ Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Inspiration to Holiness

Suggested Prayer: Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may be all holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy. (St. Augustine)

Suggested Activity: Act out that holiness in charity, joy, peace, and patience.

Did You Know? Prayer to End Abortion

The US Bishops are calling for nationwide prayer to St. Joseph for the end of abortion beginning this past March 25th, the Feast of the Annunciation. The Supreme Court is hearing a case about the legality of the abortion pill March 26th but their ruling won't come until June. The prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life, is as follows: Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life - especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.

The mercy of God always triumphs!

Pope Francis

How have we felt the joy of God's mercy in our life? It is a question to really think through on a personal level. One needy family expresses it so well, "God works miracles and I know He is with me and my two children each and every day!"

As members of our St. Isidore Community, we are so overjoyed to help families who are struggling. Our mission as Vincentians, is to follow Christ through service to those in need. Thank you for your acts of kindness in continuing to serve families such as these.

Please keep our pantry list in mind as you shop in stores or on-line this week.

FISCAL YEAR TO DATE

CSA

615 Envelopes Returned

28% Families Contributing

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

Visit stisidore.church/give for the safest and easiest way to support St. Isidore

▶ How to donate to St. Vincent de Paul

We use all donations to help our neighbors who are in financial distress with rent, utilities, and food. All donations are tax-deductible.

To make a donation, put cash or a check (to St. Isidore SVdP) in one of the blue envelopes located at church entrances, and place in the collection basket at Mass. Thank you!

other by providing for everyone's needs. The way they lived gave power to their words and inspired others to believe. They "talked the talk" and "walked the walk."

First and foremost, we must approach people who don't believe in our actions. We need to lead with mercy, as Pope Francis often says. We need to treat them with kindness and generosity—making friends. Then, we have to be true and faithful friends to them, laying down our lives for them. Only then can we effectively bring those friends to Christ.

A huge part of bringing those friends to believe in the Living Christ is prayer. Before we talk to our friends about Jesus, we need to talk to Jesus about our friends. Some of the most powerful words you can use with someone who doesn't believe are "I'll pray for you," "I am praying for you," and, when you feel they're ready, "Can I pray with you?" Even if your friends seem to react badly to your prayers for them, don't give up on them or get offended. Just remain faithful, continuing to lift them up to Jesus.

If we live authentically in the love of Jesus every day, people around us will begin to ask why we are so different. If they are not asking, we need to look again at how we are living (or not living) our own faith. When the questions come, we must be genuine and humble. We don't have to know everything; we just have to help our friends find the answers they are looking for. We simply have to walk with them as friends in Jesus.

▶ Missing something in the kitchen?

 Brian McAleer

Thank you to all who have brought desserts to our various church activities. They are wonderful and appreciated as they greatly enhance our church functions. Please check to ensure that you have retrieved your pans or containers. We have a few in the kitchen that have been there for a long time and need to be disposed of, as there is limited storage space.

▶ Baby Pantry Request List

 Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church  586-745-9501

We have a "new and different" request:

Please help us with gift cards to stores that sell yarn (Hobby Lobby, Joann's, Michael's) so that we can purchase yarn to create baby blankets for infants in low-income families. Moms and their babies love getting a "blanket!"

Our other requests (we have very low stock of these items):

- Diapers – size 6
- Wipes – sensitive and fragrance free
- Similac Sensitive formula

(powdered, in a can)

We desperately need:

- Baby shampoo & baby wash

May God bless you for your prayers and donations. Thank you to St. Isidore parishioners. You always respond to our call for assistance. With your help, we provide the necessary baby items to many, many families.

Thank you from our Baby Pantry Team: Mickey, Cindy, Angie, Kathy, Carol, Lenee, Jeanette, and Pat.
