HARVEST NEWS

WHEN AM I A

SHEEP,
SHEPHERD,
& WOLF?

CONNECTING POINT

 Chris Piebiak - Director of Family Ministry  chrisp@stol.church

Good Shepherd Sunday is when we honor Jesus as the Good Shepherd who cares for and guides us. From this perspective, let's look at when we are sheep, shepherd, and wolf: sheep when we follow Christ, shepherd when we lead people to Christ, and wolf when we become defenders of the faith and, ultimately, Christ.

As sheep, we are called to be dependent, trustworthy, united, and vulnerable at times. We must be dependent on Jesus for guidance and protection. We can depend on him by surrendering our worries, trusting in his guidance, and seeking his strength in every aspect of our lives. We must always rely on trust, even when it seems impossible. As believers, we are called to trust in God's wisdom and guidance. As part of a community, sheep often travel in flocks; this reflects the importance of fellowship and community among believers. Prayerfully participating in Mass and becoming involved in our parishes are great ways to share in community life. Sheep can sometimes become vulnerable as

This weekend and next, we continue our Easter Joy as we celebrate First Communion with our second graders. Families were given the choice to have their child make their First Communion at the traditional Corporate First Communion Masses celebrated yesterday and next Saturday, or at one of our regularly scheduled Weekend Masses. First Eucharist, along with Baptism and Confirmation, is one of the three Sacraments of Initiation into our worshipping community. It is good to have the worshipping community present to welcome the children to the Lord's table. It is for this reason that First Communions are celebrated at a weekend Mass with the community present. It is also for this reason that the best way to prepare a child for First Communion is to bring them to Mass regularly. I know that it is difficult to bring young children to church. I do believe that our parish is very "child-friendly." I myself am never upset when I hear babies or young children cry or act out at Mass. In many ways I like to hear it, as it shows some new life! Our worshipping is incomplete without our children. I am grateful to the parents who bring their young ones.

We encourage our First

Communicants to wear their First Communion clothes to Sunday Mass throughout the Easter Season. When you see one, please welcome them and make a fuss over them!

We are grateful to our Divine Mercy Prayer Group for planning our Divine Mercy celebration two weeks ago. We had a great turnout and a very well organized and prayerful afternoon. I encourage you to check out the Divine Mercy Chaplet and prayers if you are not familiar with them.

Blessings.

they are led astray. We, too, can become vulnerable, but we can find solace in knowing the risen Lord is here to guide us back into his loving fold.

Shepherds are called to lead, care, teach, nurture, and, ultimately, bring people closer to Christ. As shepherds, we lead by example. The examples we set for our children, friends, and coworkers should emulate those that shepherd people closer to Christ. How often do we take the time to care for our fellow man? Caring for people does not have to be some grandiose action; it can simply be sitting with someone, letting them talk, and not judging them for their views. The ultimate role of a shepherd is to bring people closer to Jesus. This means guiding individuals toward deeper relationships with God and helping them experience his love, grace, and presence.

The metaphor of being a wolf and defending God is less common when compared to the imagery of being a sheep or shepherd. However, one could interpret it symbolically, drawing on the characteristics traditionally associated with wolves:

protectiveness, strength, respect, and reverence. Wolves are known for their fierce protectiveness of their pack and territory. In this context, defending God could imply fiercely advocating for one's faith and the principles it represents, standing up against injustice or falsehoods that may challenge religious beliefs. Strength, courage, and resilience are symbols often seen in wolves. Similarly, defending God may require inner strength and courage to withstand criticism, persecution, or adversity while upholding one's faith. While wolves are often depicted as fierce predators, they also play a vital role in maintaining ecological balance. Likewise, defending God may involve showing respect and reverence for the divine, recognizing the sacredness of religious teachings, and the responsibility of upholding them.

You may primarily see yourself as a sheep, but you also find opportunities to act as a shepherd by supporting and encouraging others in their faith. There may be times when you feel called to defend your faith like a wolf, standing firm in the face of adversity or speaking out against injustice. As you continue to grow and mature in your spiritual journey, you may find yourself moving fluidly between these roles, depending on your own needs and those of others around you. Ultimately, embracing these roles allows you to engage more deeply with your faith, serving God and others in impactful ways.

▶ Funeral Luncheons

▶ Blood Drive in Honor of Tony Kendzierski

Deacon Jeff Loeb jeff@stisidore.church

Tony Kendzierski was a long time Blood Program Leader with the American Red Cross. Through his efforts he coordinated three blood drives a year, at St. Isidore, for over 17 years, totaling 51 drives! His coordinating not only brought desperately needed blood to those who required it, it brought together St. Isidore parishioners, community members, volunteers, and the Red Cross staff.

Tony, and those who donated, helped save hundreds of lives through these drives. Tony never knew the true impact of his efforts, but those who were the recipients do. Tony passed away on November 30, 2023 after a courageous battle with cancer. Our April 28 Blood Drive is being held in honor of Tony. Please donate and help continue his legacy. (See the Event section of the bulletin for details on how to sign up.)

▶ Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Doing God's Will

Suggested Prayer: You have given all to me. To you, Lord, I return it. Everything is yours; do with it what you will. Give me only your love and your grace.

Suggested Prayer: Lord, if what I seek is according to Your will let it be successful. If not, let it not happen. Do not leave me to my own devices, keep me safe in your protection, and gently guide me as you know best.

Suggested Activity: Use any one of these prayers before making decisions.

Thy will be done.

An often used prayer by St. Teresa of Calcutta

Did You Know? Follow the Sign Posts Along the Way

Fulfilling what we do know to be God's will for us ought to be our top priority. God's will for us is holiness, loving Him and our neighbor, rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances, doing justice, loving mercy, walking humbly with our God. Beyond that he has given you free will and he has told you his purpose for you: "You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide." John 15:16

5 Practical Steps in the Right Direction

1. Persevere - Finish what you've been given to do.

2. Pray - Seek God and commit your way to him.
3. Discern - Where can you best use your gifts? Consider pros and cons and outcomes.
4. Evaluate - Rule out things that are against Scripture or Church teaching, that cause harm or require sin, that act against your chosen vocation.
5. Navigate - Now make your best choice, staying attentive to God's voice and moving where you have inner peace.

(In part from Ascension's, The Great Adventure Blog, Feb 26, 2014.)

Giving Report

CSA

563 Envelopes Returned

246 Online Gifts

27% Families Contributing

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

“When you care enough to send the very best...” Hallmark slogan, right? But... isn't that what God did? He cared enough to send his very best, Jesus, as our Savior. And now He sends us.

Together we are making a difference in the lives of those who are hurting. During this Easter season, let us pray for the grace to put our Catholic faith into action.

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the church office for your family member or friend with a serious illness or a need for comfort. There is no charge for these items. All people need comfort and the knowledge that others care about them. Please get and give a blanket or shawl to a person you know.

You can include a complimentary rosary with the blanket or shawl. Rosaries are hand-made by our St. Isidore Rosary Ministry.

Your Comfort Crafters pray for you and every recipient of our hand-made blankets and shawls.
