FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

HARVEST NEWS

How do I

my prayers
aren't answered?

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Matt Kush - Director of Engagement ✉️ matt@stisidore.church

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus compares himself to a vine and his followers to branches, emphasizing that, just as branches can only bear fruit if they remain attached to the vine, believers can only live fruitfully if they maintain a close connection to him. This relationship is crucial for spiritual growth and achieving God's purposes.

Every relationship has struggles: parent-child, child-parent, sibling, spousal, co-worker, and of course, one with God. Often, I struggle more in a relationship when I feel the person on the other end isn't doing their part or listening the way I'd like, and there are times when I feel less connected to God.

My relationship with him struggles the most during hard times, like losing someone I loved, feeling like life is unfair, or enduring other challenges that didn't turn out how I'd hoped. In relationships, we often "punish" the other person by giving them the silent treatment or going out of our way to avoid them. Yet, avoiding our connections to God is

▶ Message from Fr. Talbot

Right before Easter, I received a surprise call from the archbishop's secretary letting me know that the archbishop wanted to meet with me. When we met the week after Easter, Archbishop Vigneron asked me to take over for Monsignor Dan Trapp (God rest his soul) as the moderator of the lower eastside family of parishes. This family consists of SS. Augustine and Monica, St. Elizabeth, St. Charles, Nativity, and Sacred Heart Detroit. After much prayer and soul searching, I have agreed to this new assignment which will begin on July 1st.

While I'm excited about this new adventure that God is calling me to, I am saddened having to say good bye to all of you. I have grown to love you all dearly and will miss you all greatly. Yet I know that we will always be connected in the love of Jesus. Our Disciples Unleashed family of parishes will always have a special place in my heart. Please continue to pray for me as I make this transition over the next three months. Change is never easy, however, it is often necessary for our growth. I pray we will all grow in God's grace through this move of the Holy Spirit.

Peace and Love in the Risen Christ,
Fr. Chris

▶ St. Isidore Garden and Beautification Initiative

 Deacon Jeff Joeb  jeff@stisidore.church

We need volunteers who would like to plant and become zone captains for our St. Isidore Garden and Grounds Beautification Team! We created six zones to break up the grounds for volunteers for easier management and planning. Our garden leadership team will coordinate plans to revitalize our garden and surrounding areas. We would like to create a pollinator garden, in the near future, to help take care of nature's pollinators including the monarch butterfly population. It is one way we can respond to God's call to be caring stewards of his creation. Our garden has provided vegetables for our parish, Agape food pantry, St. Francis and St. Maximilian pantry, Harbor Lights food pantry in Mt. Clemens, and other organizations in need. We will have sign up tables placed in the Gathering Space outside of Mass on the weekend of May 4th and 5th. If you would like to volunteer and join our team please sign up. There will be an easel in the gathering space with a photo collage of what area is included in each zone so you have a better idea of what zone you would like to "adopt."

never the answer.

Remaining connected to God during struggles is the same as in any relationship: it involves showing humility in accepting the tension, showing accountability (because no relational struggle is ever one-sided), and listening first.

In my marriage, we have something called the "Forgiveness Cup," which was introduced and gifted to us. For the times we don't know what to say and are too afraid to be the first to admit we were wrong, we pour and share the cup as an olive branch.

So, in those times when you don't feel connected to God or don't think he is listening, remember, it's up to you (not him) to extend the spiritual Forgiveness Cup and open yourself up to listening to him and the greater plan that he has in store.

▶ Eucharist: The True Presence of Christ

 Amy Righi amy@stisidore.church

In this, our year of Eucharistic Revival, it is especially fitting for us to recall the awesome gift we have in the Eucharist. Every time we come to Mass, we are in the presence of the Lord, all the angels and saints, and we have the amazing privilege and honor to partake in the Body and Blood of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Eucharist is the True/Real Presence of Christ. At the last supper (1 Corinthians 11:24) Jesus said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Jesus said, "this is my body" not "this is a symbol of my body." We receive this most holy and spiritual food with the utmost respect and reverence. We bow before the Blessed Sacrament and acknowledge our faith in His Divine Presence in our resounding "Amen" as we receive the true Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

Homebound Ministers

Eucharist is the source and summit of all we do as Catholic Christians. Communion Ministers taking Eucharist to the homebound directly from Mass are entrusted with a powerful ministry of sharing the Body of Christ with the ill or infirm who are unable to join in the celebration of Mass. Prescribed protocols are required for this special ministry including the use of a pyx to transport the consecrated Host. A pyx is a small round container specifically designed for the purpose of taking consecrated host to those unable to attend Mass due to illness or other afflictions.

Using any other means such as a tissue, handkerchief, or plastic bag to carry the Blessed Sacrament is prohibited.

*Homebound ministers, if you need to borrow a pyx, please see Father or the Deacon prior to Mass. Then you can receive the consecrated host by holding it open for the Minister of Communion at distribution.

We are grateful for the ministry of these homebound disciples willing to share prayer and Sacrament in this essential ministry of service. The graces we receive sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ are infinite and beyond human understanding. Jesus Christ, yesterday, today and forever. Soli Deo Gloria!

► Highway Clean-up

Have you ever driven on M53 between 27 and 29 Mile Roads? You will hopefully not have noticed much trash on the passenger side of the road. For the last 33 years, the Knights of Columbus, Council 7200, has adopted both the Northbound and Southbound roadsides of this stretch of highway through the Adopt-A-Highway program. We pick up trash along this stretch three times per year. On Saturday, 4/13/24, 14 people spent an hour and a half each picking up trash during our first such session this year. Shown are members of Council 7200, along with some family members, prior to collecting on that Saturday.

Monthly Recognition ◀

The St. Isidore K of C Council monthly recognizes a “Knight of the Month” and a “Family of the Month” for their efforts in serving the council/parish/community. Steve Schmitt and his wife Laura were recognized as April’s Family of the Month. Andy Galambush was recognized as April’s Knight of the Month. While this was announced at April’s General Membership Meeting, neither Steve nor Andy were available to attend the meeting and accept their certificates.

► Breakfast - Thank You!

St. Isidore Church: Thank you for your attendance at the April 14th pancake breakfast. A very nice turnout; almost 200 people. With your help and support, the money we were able to raise will be used for the benefit of others. We hope you enjoyed the food and the fellowship of this breakfast. It was very nice sharing breakfast with you. As always, your generosity and continued support of our events is greatly appreciated, as they would be fruitless without your involvement. We pray that you have a safe spring and summer. We hope to see you at the Strawberry Festival and at our next Pancake Breakfast on September 29th.

God Bless You and Yours,

The Lord tells us that so long as we remain with him we can live a happy life. Those that do not remain but fall away may not be so happy.

Family Time Fun

Take a walk this week and look around you at the beautiful branches that are beginning to flower. How many different types can you find?

Have you misplaced something recently? Our Lose and Found is overflowing with items longing to be reunited with their owners. We encourage you to come by and reclaim your belonging.

Located along the left wall of the Gathering Space, just before you enter our worship space through the glass doors, our Lost and Found box awaits. From toys to scarves, glasses to books, the assortment is vast.

▶ Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Guidance of the Holy Spirit

Suggested Prayer: A Prayer for Spiritual Guidance

Heavenly Father, Thank you for sending your Holy Spirit to comfort us in our weakness. Dear Holy Spirit guide our steps, our thoughts, and our attitudes. Shower us with your gifts so that we may use them to glorify you, imitate your love, and do our part in building up the body of Christ, your Church. I invite you into my life to keep me obedient, fruitful, and bold in my faith. Amen.

Did You Know? The Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit has been given to us so that we can know who God is and know how to follow Him. Often the Holy Spirit will speak to us in our minds by giving us a thought or an idea. Or He will lead us by making an impression upon our hearts to say something, do something, or think something, according to God's will. The Spirit speaks into our hearts, minds, and lives just as we are, gently leading us toward the truth. A quiet whisper drawing us to rest in God's peace and love. Invite the Holy Spirit to dwell within you - "Holy Spirit, come."

▶ St. Vincent de Paul

The Lord has created each human being to shine, to enlighten the world; you are the light of the world. Each man is a lantern meant to shine.

St. Sharbel Makhluf

We know that God is the true power that shines his light within us. He gives each of us gifts to help each other, perhaps it is by calling a loved one, listening to people in need, helping those less fortunate, or visiting the sick. It is not complicated, but the comfort these efforts provide is priceless. Thank you for your kindness.

Our pantry team is hard at work. Please continue to help by keeping our pantry list in mind as you shop in stores or on-line this week. Thank you!

Giving Report

FOR APRIL 22, 2024

BUDGET THIS WEEK

FISCAL YEAR TO DATE

CSA

485 Envelopes Returned

258 Online Gifts

24% Families Contributing

The generosity of the St. Isidore community continues to amaze. We have again exceeded our CSA goal! Meaning, from this point forward, every dollar directed toward CSA comes back to St. Isidore. For years, we've said CSA is the best way to support the parish, and from now until April 2024, all funds will remain at St. Isidore for parish use and will not be assessed. If you are able, now is a great time to consider giving an additional gift to CSA.

Visit stisidore.church/give for the safest and easiest way to support St. Isidore

▶ How to donate to St. Vincent de Paul

We use all donations to help our neighbors who are in financial distress with rent, utilities, and food. All donations are tax-deductible.

To make a donation, put cash or a check (to St. Isidore SVdP) in one of the blue envelopes located at church entrances, and place in the collection basket at Mass. Thank you!

The Vine and the Branches

Jesus tells us something about Himself. What does He say?

Unscramble the letters. Write the words on the correct lines.

Jesus said, "I am the _____,
 and My _____ is the _____."

Follow the arrows through the letters to find Jesus' words.

Jesus said,

“ I _____
