What in your life do you still wish

#CONNECTINGPOINT

CONNECTING POINT

Deacon Jeff Loeb jeff@stisidore.church

What in your life do you still wish Jesus would heal? This question strikes at the center of our human nature, touching on the vulnerabilities and yearnings we often carry silently within ourselves. Each of us bears wounds—some visible, others hidden beneath smiles and everyday routines. These wounds may be the results of grief, anxiety, depression, guilt, financial struggles, or unresolved conflicts. When we think about this question, we are invited to reflect deeply on our own lives. We are reminded that Jesus, the healer of souls, stands ready to embrace us in our brokenness. He intimately understands our pain because he endured suffering on the cross.

However, Jesus' healing goes beyond physical ailments; it encompasses the healing of our hearts, minds, and spirits. It involves the restoration of relationships, the lifting of burdens, of guilt, and the peace that is beyond understanding. Jairus and the ill woman, in the Gospel story, approached Jesus in faith. Their example shows us how we should bring our wounds before Jesus.

Sometimes, our doubts, grudges, unforgiveness, and mistrust get in

FR. RON'S Reflections

We thank everyone who helped to make this year's Strawberry Festival another huge success. It took literally hundreds of parishioners coming together to make it a fun weekend for everyone. Of the many parish festivals I have been involved in, our Strawberry Festival is by far the most family-oriented, and great community builder. Special thanks, of course to the Festival Committee which has been meeting monthly for close to a year. They will soon be meeting again to plan the 2025 Strawberry Festival.

Archbishop Allen Vigneron presided over a beautiful liturgy to consecrate our new altar and bless our new altar furnishings on June 15. We thank all those involved in planning the liturgy, the choirs for the many special hymns and antiphons which accompanied the liturgy, and all of the liturgical ministers who took part. We are continually grateful to Nancy Campbell, who bequeathed to the parish the funds for the new furnishings, and the Campbell family.

One important element of the liturgy was "burying" the first class relic of St. Isidore the Farmer in the new altar. The relic is a piece of one of his bones. It was placed in an opening in the middle of the top of the altar, and then the opening was ceremoniously sealed.

There continue to be several "moving parts" when it comes to the placement of the altar furnishings, as we experience the use of the new furnishings and the best flow for the liturgy. All of the furnishings, including the altar table, are portable.

Have a great Fourth of July!

the way of his healing. Jesus meets us not with judgment or indifference but with compassion and love. He invites us to surrender our pain to him, trusting that he can bring about healing in a way we didn't expect. Furthermore, healing is not always instantaneous, it requires patience, faith, and openness to God's timing. Sometimes, healing comes through the support of others: a friend's listening ear, a counselor's advice, a clergy member's guidance, or a community's prayers. This is why living as a community of faith is so important. We help and support each other!

As we reflect on what we wish Jesus would heal in our lives, let us also consider how we can be instruments of his healing for others. Perhaps there is someone we know who is silently carrying a burden that we could lighten through kindness, understanding, or a simple gesture of compassion. May we take comfort in knowing that Jesus walks with us in our pain, desiring to bring healing into our lives. Let us approach him with patience and open hearts so that any obstacle to faith may be removed and our prayers of intercession may fall at his feet, allowing his healing grace to touch our hearts.

► Our Previous Altar Has a New Home!

Fr. David Cybulski and the parishioners of St. Patrick's Catholic Parish Church in White Lake Township have provided a new home for our previous altar.

It's a perfect fit for their sanctuary, and for Fr. David it holds extra special memories. After his ordination 15 years ago, it was at St. Isidore, on that very altar that he presided at his first Mass!

Both of our sanctuaries have gone through changes, and both are more beautiful as a result. May our new altars help us reflect on the gift Christ has given us, appreciate the meal that is prepared on them, and the fellowship in Christ's Body that is created as a result.

► Low Back Pain

👤 Marilyn Cito - St. Therese Parish Nurse ✉ marilync@stol.church

Why does it seem like so many people have back pain? Low back pain is one of the most common types of pain reported by patients and causes more disability than any other condition. It is the most common cause of job-related disability and a leading contributor to missed days and visits to physicians.

In 2018, 28% of men and 31.6% of women aged 18 years or greater reported they had lower back pain within the last three months. The percentage of women with back pain increased as age increased. Among men, the percentage increased with age through 74 years, then decreased. About 80% of adults have low-back pain at some point in their lives.

Conditions commonly linked to back pain include:

Muscle or ligament strain. Occurs with repeated heavy lifting or a sudden awkward movement. If you are overweight, or in poor physical condition, constant strain on your back can cause painful muscle spasms.

Bulging or ruptured disks. Occurs when the disks in your back, which acts as cushions between the bones (vertebrae) in your spine, bulge or rupture and press on a nerve.

Arthritis. Osteoarthritis can affect the lower back and sometimes leads to a narrowing of the space around the spinal cord, called spinal stenosis.

Skeletal irregularities. This is a condition where the spine curves to the side, called scoliosis, and can lead to back pain in middle age.

Osteoporosis. Vertebrae in the spine can develop compression fractures if you have osteoporosis and bones become porous and brittle.

Anyone can develop back pain, even children and teens. Risk factors include age (more common as you age), lack of exercise (unused muscles in back or abdomen), excess weight (extra weight puts extra stress on your back), certain diseases (arthritis, cancer), improper lifting (using your back instead of your legs), certain psychological conditions (depression and anxiety) and smoking (reduces blood flow to the lower spine).

Back pain may feel like a dull, constant ache or a sudden, sharp pain. Pain can result from an accident, fall, lifting something heavy, changes that happen in the spine as you age, or a medical condition. Although most patients do not go to the doctor for acute low back pain, sometimes treatment is needed, if severe. Treatment depends on the cause and symptoms of pain. Treatment may include over-the-counter and/or prescription medications, superficial heat, massage, acupuncture, or spinal manipulation.

Preventing back pain is key and can be helped by using proper body mechanics, using good posture, not standing in one position for a long time, exercising, increasing your muscle strength and flexibility, maintaining a healthy weight, and not smoking. One way to help with prevention is by joining our Stretch and Strength classes at St. Therese of Lisieux on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:30 AM - 10:30 AM in the Social Hall.

St. Therese will also be hosting a Back Pain educational lecture on July 11, 2024 from 12:30 PM-1:30 PM. presented by Sara Geisman, from Plymouth Physical Therapy. Since a light lunch will be served, please RSVP to the Parish Secretary at 586-254-4433 or Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse at 586-254-4433 Ext 320 or via email at Marilync@stol.church.

This Week's Intention: Those in Authority

Suggested Prayer: The Peace Rosary

Make the Sign of the Cross, pray the Apostles Creed, then seven sets of Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Glory Be.

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people - for Kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

Jesus wasn't done.
Read what He did next.
