15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HOW DO I RESPOND
WHEN I DO NOT FEEL WELCOME?

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Fr. Ron Victor ✉ frron@stisidore.church

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus sends the disciples to continue his mission, preaching repentance and healing the sick. This mission has now been handed to us. In his instructions to the disciples, Jesus says, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet as testimony against them."

With these words, Jesus prepares the disciples—and us—for possible rejection and failure.

We can often feel unwelcome when we try to share our faith and challenge others to live a more just life in accordance with the Gospel values of love, forgiveness, nonviolence, etc. In those times, we should not harbor resentment, anger, or frustration, nor should we feel like we have failed. We must lovingly move somewhere else where God may be calling us. We must continue to call others to Christ.

Years ago, at another parish, I preached a homily on Jesus' call for us to live nonviolent lives and love our enemy. A person in the assembly approached me afterward and ▶ We're Hiring!

👤 Peggy Casing - FOP Director of Discipleship Formation

We are looking for someone to work with our young people, and their volunteer catechists, implementing formation programming for Grades 7-9 of our Discipleship Formation Program. This is a part-time, 19 hours per week position, with some flexibility in scheduling. Evenings and some occasional weekends should be expected.

If you accept this position, you will be asked to lead recruitment and oversight of volunteer facilitators (catechists) for formation gatherings, occasionally facilitating sessions as needed. You would also plan lessons, oversee and facilitate sacrament preparation, most especially the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Applicants should be Catholic, and engaged in their faith community. A background in education, catechetics, or youth ministry is encouraged, but not mandatory.

Consider joining our team! For more information contact Peggy Casing at (586) 286-1700 X 2110, or peggy@stisidore.church.

angrily listed a number of reasons why we need to be violent and why we should not love our enemy. My immediate response was not very gracious; I was a bit snarky. I pointed out that those were Jesus' words, not mine. I probably should have just listened to him, understood why he felt that way, thanked him for his input, and critically, moved on. I would not quit, but instead continue to preach the Gospel of Jesus to those who would welcome it.

When trying to share your faith with children or others who may not welcome you, be gentle. Don't argue. Don't shame them. Don't dig in your heels. Move on. God is calling you somewhere else. Keep carrying on the mission of Jesus. Some will welcome you.

▶ Making Connections Helps Loneliness

👤 Marilyn Cito - St. Therese Parish Nurse ✉ marilync@stol.church

According to recent studies, loneliness is becoming a global concern affecting up to a third of the world's population. The feeling of loneliness comes from wanting social connection in one's life, but not having it. Feeling socially connected means having relationships in our life we can rely on to give us a sense of belonging, feel secure, loved, accepted and valued. Although we live in a hyper-connected world, many people feel less connected on a personal level.

A National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine (NASEM) reports more than one-third of adults aged 45 and older feel lonely, and nearly one-fourth of adults aged 65 and older are considered to be socially isolated. Older adults are at increased risk for loneliness and social isolation since they are more likely to live alone, experienced the loss of family or friends, have a chronic illness and/or hearing loss.

Loneliness is the feeling of being alone, regardless of the amount of social contact. Social isolation is a lack of social connections. Social isolation can lead to loneliness in some people, while others can feel lonely without being socially isolated. Although some people are perfectly happy being alone, others may not be. Alone doesn't necessarily mean being physically by yourself, but rather the connections you have with others. Studies have shown, people who have strong connections with others tend to be happier, healthier and more productive.

Loneliness can contribute to health conditions like obesity, high blood pressure, and high cholesterol and is associated with 29% increased risk of heart disease and 32% increased risk of stroke. Loneliness over a long period of time makes it harder for the body to fight sickness since it triggers the hormones the body makes when under stress.

When people feel lonely, people may not want to eat healthy or exercise. It is important to make a conscious effort to eat a healthy diet of fruit, vegetables, fiber, less red meat, lots of water, and to avoid alcohol, drugs, and smoking. Although you may not feel like exercising, it is important to challenge yourself to do so. Plan a daily walk or exercise class (like the St. Isidore's Armchair Aerobics class) with a friend. People who walk regularly are more likely to be healthy and feel well emotionally.

Mental sharpness can also be affected by loneliness. The ability to solve problems or remember things as we get older can be affected by loneliness. Social isolation has been associated with 50% increased risk of dementia, so mind stimulating activities like crossword puzzles, checkers/chess, reading, playing cards or word games are recommended.

Look for ways to connect with people. Too much time is spent on phones and computers. Call someone you haven't spoken to in a while or make a plan to get together. Getting involved with the community is another way to "stay connected." Check-in with a neighbor when you see them in their yard or driveway, attend a neighborhood meeting, attend church and some of the many St. Isidore events, join a St. Isidore Ministry or a social group like the Young at Heart, Grief Support or Friday Fellowship, or volunteer at a hospital, theater, library, animal shelter, or other organization that interests you.

Although loneliness may be precipitated by being alone, having some time by yourself is also important. Find a balance between the two. Self-care time is important to "refresh" your body, mind and soul.

Loneliness has been associated with higher rates of depression, anxiety, and suicide. Talk with your friends or family about feeling lonely if you think it would help. If you don't, make an appointment to talk with a professional. If you feel you are not getting better, it is important to talk with a therapist, doctor, or healthcare provider. Another resource if you feel unable to cope with your loneliness is the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-8255, which is available 24 hours.

Take good care of yourself. Exercise, eat healthy, get enough sleep, meditate, pray, reach out to others, and be good to yourself and others.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Intercession of Mary

Suggested Prayer: A Prayer to the Blessed Virgin

O Most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart, to help me in this necessity (state the request); there are none that can withstand your power. O, show me herein you are my Mother.

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. (3 times)

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands. (3 times) Amen.

Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did.

St. Maximilian Kolbe

Did You Know? Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Hermits lived on Mount Carmel near the fountain of Elijah in northern Israel in the 12th century. They had a chapel dedicated to Our Lady. By the 13th century they became known as "Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel." They soon celebrated a special Mass and Office in honor of Mary. In 1726, it became a celebration of the universal Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Many of their great saints had a special devotion to Mary. St. John of the Cross credited Mary with saving him from drowning as a child, leading him to Carmel, and helping him escape from prison.

St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus believed that Mary cured her from illness. On her First Communion day, Thérèse dedicated her life to Mary.

There is a tradition that Mary appeared to St. Simon Stock, a leader of the Carmelites, and gave him a scapular, telling him to promote devotion to it. The scapular is a modified version of Mary's own garment. It symbolizes her special protection and calls the wearers to consecrate themselves to her in a special way."

► Chairman's statement on Dobb's Anniversary

On June 24, 2024, we celebrate the second anniversary of the Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, ending the tragic reign of Roe v. Wade. It is a day for thanksgiving to God for answering our prayers and blessing the many years of hard work. This anniversary calls us to reflect on where we have been and where we are going.

As we navigate this shifting political landscape, I cannot help but think the Holy Spirit has inspired our National Eucharistic Revival for such a time as this. Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist has the power to transform our own hearts and the heart of our culture. Even now, Catholics across the country are processing with Christ in the Eucharist from city to city, with their journeys culminating in the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis.

Strengthened by our Eucharistic Lord, each of us must rededicate ourselves to serving the cause of life. May our Catholic parishes continue to welcome, embrace, and accompany women facing unexpected or challenging pregnancies, offering material, emotional, and spiritual support. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the countless individual Catholics who have dedicated themselves to parish and community initiatives, like Walking with Moms in Need.

May we never tire of sharing Christ's message of mercy with all who are suffering in the aftermath of an abortion. The Church continually offers hope and healing to women and men through ministries like Project Rachel.

I invite you to join a growing community of Catholics who have subscribed to Respect Life Prayer and Action. When you sign up, you will receive prayers, alerts to contact Congress and government leaders on important legislation, and ways to strengthen a culture of life in your community. Sign up today at respectlife.org/prayer-and-action.

Jesus tells us: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). I pray we will be united in our efforts to protect God's gift of life, in every stage and circumstance. Let us draw strength from our communion in the Body and Blood of Christ our Savior.

Jesus Sends Out the Disciples

Jesus told 12 disciples to go out into the villages. What supplies could they take with them?

Find the sum of the number values for the letters in each word. If the sum is even, the disciples may take it with them. If the sum is odd, cross that item out. The disciples may not take it.
