CONNECTING POINT

Peggy Casing - Director of Discipleship Formation peggy@stisidore.church

When I was discerning my path into ministry, I spent several hours grumbling and wondering what I should do. During one of many conversations determining whether God was calling me to lay ministry, my sister asked, “What? Do you need a burning bush in your backyard?” I replied, “It would help!” Well, that “burning bush,” an overt sign, came to me just two days later in the form of the song “Here I Am, Lord” by Dan Schutte. A song that I had heard countless times before was being sung, I was sure, directly for me! Each word seemed ripe with meaning, but had I missed the sign provided by my sister herself?

Our first reading this Sunday tells of the hungry, grumbling Israelites and God’s fulfillment of their need through manna and quail—overt signs of God’s care for them. In the Gospel, we find Jesus pointing out that this gift from God was a precursor to the gift that he gave (and gives) us in Jesus himself. What he asks for is belief in him. What do the people do? They ask for a sign so they “may see and believe in [him]!” Though Jesus goes on to assert that he is more than a sign, that through

In the Eucharistic Prayer "Jesus, Who Went About Doing Good," which we occasionally use at Mass, we pray that "the church may be a living witness to peace and justice, that all people may be raised up to a new hope." We, the people, are the church. Just how can we at St. Isidore be such a witness to the community? In upcoming articles in the Harvest News our Social Justice Committee, which has been studying the Church's social teachings, will be sharing some of the ways we can be that witness. Stay tuned.

Our Social Justice Committee's mission statement is: "We aim to inspire, educate, and make the world a more just place." If you have any suggestions on how we can go about this please let me know. The Committee meets on the second and fourth Mondays of the month at 7 PM in the Rectory.

him, we can obtain eternal life, I bet that they still wanted the sign!

It seems like we all want signs from God once in a while. We want the heavens to open up, the bush to burn, or something to happen so that we might believe, discern God's affirmation of a choice, or whatever. Without big and splashy events, however, how do we find these "signs?" One sure way is to look for what is good, true, and beautiful in our world and in those around us.

After all, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church asserts, "God's very being is Truth and Love" (CCC #231).

Now, being a Christian is not a spectator sport! Part of discipleship, for all of us, is serving others through acts of Christian love. As we do, we manifest God's presence to others. In the scripture, John says, "God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him" (1 Jn 4:16). Just think of the beauty of the parent who selflessly gives something up so their child will have more; of the homeowner who takes the time to check in on their elderly neighbor; or of the sister who patiently listens to her sibling fret for the umpteenth time! As St. Teresa of Ávila said, "Christ has no body now but yours/no hands, no feet on earth but yours/yours are the eyes with which he looks/compassion on this world.

Knights of Columbus

Brian McAleer

Have you ever driven on M53 between 27 and 29 Mile Roads? You will hopefully not have noticed much trash on the passenger side of the road. For the last 35 years, the Knights of Columbus Council 7200 has adopted both the Northbound and Southbound roadsides of this stretch of highway through the Adopt-A-Highway program. We pick up trash along this stretch three times per year. On Saturday, 7/13/24, 14 people spent an hour and a half each picking up trash during our second such session this year. Shown are members of Council 7200, along with some family members, prior to collecting on that Saturday.

Donation

The Knights of Columbus have been blessed with several successful events and committed to making an extra donation to St. Isidore Church. On Tuesday, 7/16/24, Grand Knight Chijioke Oparaji (RHS) and Deputy Grand Knight Pat Lang (LHS) presented a check for $10,000 to Fr. Ron. This money will be used for the top two forthcoming projects here at St. Isidore Church. We feel honored to be able to help in whatever way we can.

Foster Care Family Fun Day

On July 20, our community came together for a great day at the Foster Care Family Fun Day filled with activities like a petting zoo, inflatables, and face painting. Special thanks to the Macomb County Sheriff's Dept., Macomb Township Fire Dept., and all of the sponsors for their engaging displays and donations to make this possible. The event not only provided a day of joy but also raised awareness about the transformative impact of fostering and adopting. We are grateful to all who participated and helped illuminate the paths to becoming foster or adoptive parents.

► Eucharistic Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

👤 Dave Bisdorf

Jesus has made himself the Bread of Life to give us life. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist, come back to Adoration.

St. Teresa of Calcutta

What is the greatest Sacrament?

It's the Holy Eucharist, the Most Blessed Sacrament, because it contains God Himself, Jesus Christ, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity: His Body, His Blood, His Soul, His Divinity, really and truly and substantially present. ("Treasures of the Eucharist," 2024 National Eucharistic Congress)

Why do we have Adoration?

It is always nice to be close to loved ones in a phone call, FaceTime, or a text message/email, but nothing beats face-to-face personal time. Coming to Adoration puts us face-to-face with Jesus, the same Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity that resides in every Tabernacle, in every Catholic church in the world, who is revealed for us to see in the monstrance during Adoration.

Where can I spend time with Jesus being revealed in the Eucharist?

Every Tuesday at St. Isidore following morning Mass, the Holy Eucharist is removed from the Tabernacle, placed in the monstrance, and processed to the Resource Center. Adoration continues until 4:15 and concludes with Benediction and a procession back to the Tabernacle.

How can I make spending time in the presence of Jesus part of my weekly devotion?

Pick any time slot that fits your busy schedule from 8:30 AM to 4:15 PM and contact the St. Isidore office at 586-286-1700 or Dave Bisdorf at 586-202-7000. The graces that you will receive for any time spent in Adoration will be time well spent.

▶ The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

👤 Amy Righi, Director of Liturgy amy@stisidore.church

Celebrated each year on August 15, this Christian Feast is primarily celebrated by Catholics, Orthodox Christians and some Anglican and Lutheran churches. This day is set aside to commemorate the belief that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was taken (assumed) body and soul into heavenly glory at the end of her earthly life. Theologically speaking, the Assumption signifies Mary's unique role in salvation history as the mother of Jesus and her purity and sinlessness, making her a fitting vessel to be taken into heaven.

The scripture readings for this feast reflect on Mary's unique role in our history as well as her glorious assumption into heaven. The first reading from Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab describes the vision of the woman "clothed with the sun," (who is often interpreted as a symbol of Mary) and her victory over the dragon which symbolizes the ultimate triumph of good over evil.

In the Responsorial Psalm 45, we sing: "The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold." This psalm reflects the honor and glory given to Mary as the Queen of Heaven. The Second Reading from 1 Corinthians 15:20-27, discusses Christ's resurrection describing Christ as the "first fruits" and those who belong to him following. It emphasizes the victory over death, which is also celebrated in Mary's assumption.

The Gospel from Luke 1:39-56 includes the account of the Visitation, where Mary visits her expectant cousin Elizabeth and the infant John leaps for joy in her womb at the sound of Mary's voice. The Magnificat, Mary's song of praise to God, expresses Mary's humility, faith, and the great things God has done for her: "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior."

Mass schedule for August 15

8 AM, 12:15 PM & 7 PM

May we all accept God's plan for our lives, even amidst the heartaches and struggles.

▶ The RCIA Journey to OCIA

Bill Hicks - OCIA Coordinator ocia@stisidore.church

RCIA may be the best known acronym in all of Catholicism.

For more than two generations, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) has been preparing people to enter the Catholic faith and catechizing Catholics in need of completing their sacraments.

Just prior to the COVID pandemic, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) had taken initial steps to change the name of the program from RCIA to OCIA. Formally announced in November of 2021, the name change was simple – replace the word Rite with the word Order. And, the logic behind the change was simple as well.

Liturgically speaking a rite is comprised of the ceremonial aspects associated with the celebration of a sacrament (e.g. the Rite of Marriage, the Rite of Baptism). Rite can also describe specific liturgies based on local customs and languages (e.g., the Rite of Committal at burial). Since the process of Christian Initiation incorporates many rites in preparation for the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist – it really isn't correct to refer to the entire effort as a rite.

Hence, the word “order” is more appropriate, as people being called to Christ and His Church are, as we hear in the gospel, challenged to re-order their lives that they may follow Jesus. This is similar to religious orders adopting the rules set forth by their founders (e.g., Franciscans, Benedictines, etc.).

Along with the name change, the USCCB set out to restructure the program; moving from a rigorous Labor Day to Easter Vigil schedule towards a more ideal continuous and ongoing program tailored to individual Catechumens and Candidates. By meeting people where they're at on their faith journey we can ensure that their conversion to Catholicism, or their coming into full communion (completing their Sacraments), happens when they are spiritually ready to order their lives to Christ and His Church rather than based simply on the calendar.

The Disciples Unleashed Family of Parishes has been working to engineer an effective transition to the USCCB's vision for adults and continuing catechesis. We started with simple things like using both RCIA/OCIA in our letter head and presentation materials and combining the instructional aspects for the three individual parishes into a single FOP activity.

Now we have set our sights on the more substantial transforming of OCIA into a personalized formation process. And, we've identified the high leverage enablers required to make the vision of OCIA a reality.

And, you may be surprised to learn, that at the very top of our list of key enablers is YOU. Yes, YOU.

In the coming year we'll challenge every member of our Disciples Unleashed faith communities to consider taking a role in expanding and improving OCIA. In order to fully realize the vision, we'll need everyone to consider how the Lord is calling us to help transform OCIA into Our-CIA. After all, when Jesus commissioned his church to “go, make disciples of all nations” he was talking to all of us!

The Disciples Unleashed 2024/2025 OCIA sessions kick off at St. Isidore on Sunday, September 15 at 10:30 AM. We will host an OCIA Informational Night at St. Isidore on Wednesday, August 28 at 7:00 PM in the Social Hall. And, we plan to keep you informed on the progress of the OCIA (Our-CIA) as we march toward the 2025 Easter Vigil.

Your OCIA team humbly asks every parishioner to commit to taking two critical “first steps” toward transforming OCIA into Our-CIA:

- Invite anyone who may be called to our Catholic faith or who is in need of completing their sacraments to our Informational Night on August 28. (Offering to attend with them would be a great “ice-breaker” and expression of top notch hospitality.)
- Put the OCIA team and our incoming Catechumens and Candidates on your daily prayer list.

Stay tuned for upcoming Our-CIA Updates in the bulletin. We will be highlighting the exciting things happening with the program and, from time to time, we will let you know the specific ways we're counting on you to make Our-CIA a success.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Priests

Suggested Prayer: Heavenly Father, grant that our priests be strengthened and healed by the power of the Eucharist they celebrate. May the Word they proclaim give them courage and wisdom. We pray that all whom seek to serve may see in them the love and care of Jesus, Our Eternal High Priest, who is Lord for ever and ever.

Suggested Activity: Be supportive of our priests and include them in your prayer intentions.

The priesthood is the love of the heart of Jesus.

St. John Vianney

Did You Know? Practicing Gratitude

It is God's love that has brought you into existence and to this exact moment. Practice looking for His hand in your day.

- Where did you feel His loving gaze upon you today?
- What people or moments helped you see God in your life?

Thank God for all these moments! Ask Him to help you recognize His blessings and providence tomorrow.

RENEW YOUR COMMITMENT TO CHRIST

- Remember our Faith is founded upon a person - Christ!
- Thank God for the gift of His Son Jesus and our call to be disciples.
- Tell the Lord of your desire to know Him more personally.
- Set an intention for your day tomorrow asking for Our Lord to guide you.
- Pray a Hail Mary, Our Father, or another beloved prayer.

▶ St. Vincent de Paul

📧 conference621@gmail.com

When we take a step towards others in need, we may be helping them take a step towards Jesus. You, through your generous donations, allow us to take His love to them.

We are less than two weeks away from SVdP Back-To-School distribution on August 16. We will be helping 40 families. SVdP is desperately in need of donations of wellness and paper items, since these items cannot be purchased with SNAP/Bridge cards. With your help, families with school children will be more securely prepared.

Our pantry is in greatest need of the following items, listed in order of importance.

- Cash Donations - Blue Envelopes at Church entrances
- Laundry Soap
- Toilet Paper
- Shampoo
- Dish Soap
- Pump Hand Soap
- Bar Soap
- Deodorant (unscented if possible)
- Toothpaste
- Kleenex

▶ How to donate to St. Vincent de Paul

We use all donations to help our neighbors who are in financial distress with rent, utilities, and food. All donations are tax-deductible.

To make a donation, put cash or a check (to St. Isidore SVdP) in one of the blue envelopes located at church entrances, and place in the collection basket at Mass. Thank you!

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church

Many people silently suffer and think that no one understands what they are experiencing. Sometimes we don't know what to do to help them. People may likely forget words we speak. Others cannot remember anything we did. But people will always remember how we made them feel. Sharing their pain and offering our support helps them to know they are not facing struggles alone and can also make their lives more bearable. We might not be able to fix their problems, but we can offer our presence, concern, and, perhaps, a prayer blanket or shawl. Get one - free - in our church office for that person you know who needs comfort.

The Oscar Hammerstein / Richard Rogers song "You'll Never Walk Alone" reminds us of God's ever-faithful presence in our lives. And maybe God is calling on us to help Him let others know that they, indeed, are not alone.

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church 586-745-9501

If you are low-income, have an infant age three or under, and are seeking assistance for the first time, please follow these directives:

If you live in Macomb County and have a Macomb County WIC card, call the Baby Pantry Office (586-745-9501). A Baby Pantry volunteer team member will return your call, explain our requirements, conduct a required interview, and get you set up for once a month help.

You must provide proof of residence, your WIC card and verification of live birth for your child/children.

We are here to help you. Call us.

A Prayer: Dear Lord, grant me the ability to help someone who needs me to do just that.

If possible, please donate: (We have very low stock of the following:

- Baby lotion (generic is ok)
- Baby wash
- Sunscreen for babies

If you'd rather not shop for us, we can always use gift cards to stores that sell baby items (Kroger, Meijer, Target, etc.).

Thank you for everything you give to our pantry.

Please keep us and the families you help in your prayers.

May God Bless You!
