CONNECTING POINT

 Chris Piebiak, Director of Family Ministry  chrisp@stol.church

Bitterness and anger are like heavy chains that bind our hearts, preventing us from experiencing full joy and peace. They are often born from deep wounds, unmet expectations, or perceived injustices that have taken root over time. To ask, “Where are there bitterness and anger in my life that need to be released?” is to embark on a courageous journey of self-discovery and healing. In this Sunday’s second reading, we hear from St. Paul how “all bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice.” Let’s take a closer look at how to remove these toxic traits.

Begin by looking inward with honesty and compassion. Reflect on past hurts and unresolved conflicts.

Is there lingering resentment toward a friend or family member who wronged you? Do certain memories still evoke a sense of injustice or betrayal? Identifying these sources of bitterness is the first step toward release.

Consider the impacts of holding onto these emotions. Bitterness and anger affect your emotional well-being,

We thank everyone who has stepped forward to plan, donate supplies, and volunteer to help during our MCREST Week, August 18-25. MCREST Week requires many volunteers. "Sheltering the Homeless" is one of the Corporal Works of Mercy. Yet, it is difficult to do that on our own. Most of us are not in the position to allow a homeless person or family to come and live with us. Yet, this is something we can do as a church community. In addition to giving shelter to those who need it, MCREST is an opportunity for our parish to grow in hospitality. I think our past history of hosting MCREST is one reason we are a very hospitable community: many of us working together to serve our guests. Welcoming them, preparing meals, helping with laundry, driving them to places they need to be, etc. We learn to do the Corporal Works of Mercy the same way we learn to drive a car: by doing it. And spending time with our guests and getting to know them will help us to overcome some prejudgments we have regarding homeless people. For the most part, they are people just like us who are facing a crisis or emergency in their lives. I love the Polish saying: "When a guest is in our house, God is in your house."

as well as your spiritual growth, physical health, and relationships. They can create barriers to love and trust, isolating you from those who care about you. Recognize that releasing these burdens is not about condoning the wrongs done to you but, instead, freeing yourself from their hold.

The next line in the second reading gives us a solution to bitterness and anger: "And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ." Forgiveness is a powerful antidote to bitterness. It is a conscious decision to let go of resentment and to extend grace, even when it feels undeserved. Forgiving others (and, sometimes, ourselves) opens the door to healing. It allows us to move forward, unencumbered by the weight of past hurts.

Prayer and meditation can be invaluable tools in this process. They offer moments of stillness where you can seek divine guidance and strength. Ask for the courage to face your pain, the wisdom to understand it, and the grace to let it go.

Release the bitterness and anger that have held you captive. Embrace forgiveness, let your heart be light again, and surround yourself with a supportive community that encourages and uplifts you. In this newfound freedom, you will find peace, joy, and a deeper connection to the divine and those around you.

The readings this weekend bring us closer to God through the words and actions of Elijah, St. Paul, and Jesus. All three could rightly have been filled with bitterness and anger, yet they looked past the heavy chains that could have bound their hearts, showing us a pathway to joy and peace.

► K of C Sacred Heart Assembly Raffle Ticket Sales

Frank Oldani

The Knights of Columbus, Sacred Heart Assembly #2599, is the Fourth-Degree arm of the Knights of Columbus. The principle of the Fourth Degree is Patriotism, and the Assembly hosts such events as the annual flag retirement and selling replacement flags, providing free meals for First Responders, cleaning the grave markers and placing flags and wreaths on the graves of veterans at Cadillac Memorial Gardens East, and donating to various veteran organizations. The Assembly is made up of Knights from St. Isidore, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. John Vianney, St. Sharbel, and St. Jane Francis De Chantal. To raise money for these endeavors, we will be selling lottery tickets in the Gathering Space beginning August 17 after the 4:30 Mass and will sell them after each weekend Mass until our allotted tickets are sold. Like previous lottery drawings, the lottery is based on the 3-Digit Daily Lottery during the month of October this year. The tickets cost $10 and the winners can win $25, $100 or $200 determined by the Michigan Daily 3 number drawn each day (except Sunday). The number drawn on Oct. 9, Columbus Day, will earn the first-place winner $300. Starting August 17, purchase your tickets before or after Mass and look forward to your October winnings.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Intercession of St. Clare

Suggested Prayer: I, Clare, a handmaid of Christ, a little plant of our holy Father Francis, a sister and mother of you and the Poor Sisters, although unworthy, ask our Lord Jesus Christ through His mercy and through the intercession of His most holy Mother Mary, of Blessed Michael the Archangel and the holy angels of God, and all his men and women saints, that the heavenly Father give you and confirm you this most holy blessing in heaven and earth.

With your prayer, O Blessed St. Clare, we ask that you take our intentions to God the Most High in Heaven.

(mention intentions).

St. Clare, Pray for us!

Do not be disturbed by the clamor of the world, which passes like a shadow. Do not let false delights of a deceptive world deceive you.

St. Clare of Assisi

Did You Know? St. Clare of Assisi

August 11th is the feast of St. Clare of Assisi. Clare was born July 16, 1194 as Chiara Offreduccio the eldest daughter of Favorino Scifi, Count of Sasso-Rosso and his wife Ortolana. Clare was a 13th century virgin and friend and contemporary of St. Francis of Assisi, who founded the Clarissan Sisters - the "Poor Clares." Influenced by St. Francis, who rejected wealth and embraced poverty, at 18 Clare meets up with Francis, cuts her hair, dons a tunic of course wool, and finds shelter in the Benedictine monastery. In vain are her father's attempts to bring her home. The divine light that shines through Clare draws many other women to her, including her mother and sisters. Strong and determined, she is the first woman to write a Rule and obtain approval for it from Pope Gregory IX. She had great devotion to the Eucharistic Lord. Illness marked the last 30 years of her life and she died on August 11, 1253, on the bare floor of San Damiano. (Vatican News)

► Baby Pantry Request List

Pat Schmeiser | babypantry@stisidore.church | 586-745-9501

As we celebrate the Assumption of Mary, Mother of Jesus, this week may we be reminded of Mary's great love in our attempt to imitate her. The needs are great. Prices are high and too many people are struggling. Watch for sales, use coupons and, if possible, please donate:

- Size 4 & size 5 diapers
- Baby wash
- Baby lotion
- Baby sensitive, fragrance-free wipes

Jesus said, "I command you: Love one another." And just how do we do that?

Let us follow Jesus' command by loving people. Simple acts of love, like donating, are pleasing to God, and show that we are trying to follow the example of Jesus.

We distribute everything you donate to needy, low-income families.

Thank you, thank you, and thank you!
The St. Isidore Baby Pantry Team says,
"God bless all of you for your help!"
