CONNECTING POINT

 Peggy Casing - Director of Discipleship Formation  peggyc@stol.church

It is getting close to election time. As such, in the near future, I bet many of us are going to have uncomfortable conversations with friends or family because their thoughts and choices don't align with ours. As we know, those conversations can even devolve into verbal attacks. The uneasy feelings that result can be overwhelming and make us want to insulate ourselves from the outside world. Discomfort can also come from times when we read scripture or hear a homily at Mass and are challenged by the message because we are falling short in how we live our lives. This reality of discomfort coming from both outside sources and inside ourselves is a reality when we live as disciples of Jesus!

Fortunately, we can look to this week's readings for inspiration as to how we can manage the discomfort of following him.

Our first reading provides some guidance regarding confrontation with the attitudes of the world around us. To "set my face like flint," knowing that "the Lord GOD is my help,” points to the fact that our silence is often the best answer. Think about it; it’s rare to engage in a verbal altercation with someone and have them come away from that encounter totally won over to our point of view! As mentioned in the Gospel, taking up our cross involves losing our lives for Jesus’ sake. In practice, that “losing” is often a willingness to set our egos aside in order to let Jesus, or Jesus’ message, take center stage. While not providing us with an opportunity to prove how smart or “good” we are, a simple “that’s not what I believe,” followed by silence, repeated if necessary, states our position without the extra words that the other person is probably going to shut out anyway. Furthermore, the beauty of de-escalating a disagreement in this way is that the resulting silence provides a space for the Spirit to enter, especially if we ask in prayer. Knowing that God is with us as we uphold justice, love, and peace is quite the consolation for a bruised ego. Moreover, hopefully, this technique also provides us with the time to feel understanding and compassion for those who persecute us—and to pray for them, as well. As mentioned before, in addition to external influences, we have times when we find ourselves confronted by our internal discomfort as we struggle to live as disciples of Jesus. The second reading reminds us that, sometimes, we separate faith from life, especially when actually behaving like a follower of Jesus proves to be uncomfortable. For example, I think most of us have taken on a “what’s in it for me” kind of attitude when making a decision, like voting, barely considering if others would be negatively affected. Furthermore, we may practice our faith and go to church every Sunday but fail to help the poor person on the side of the street, turning our heads the other way when we see them. Sure, each of these scenarios represents complex situations, yet in the second reading, we hear, “Faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead.” Essentially, the scripture is saying that thoughts and prayers, while good and purposeful, aren’t putting food in people’s bellies. We have a choice; when confronted with our failing to actually act upon our faith, the discomfort that results can be one that we embrace—or one that we push aside. Again, from the Gospel, we hear, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” Taking up our crosses involves not shying away from these situations but instead using them to propel us toward “doable” actions that provide us the opportunity to live our faith through “works.”

To conclude, whether our source of discomfort is an external influence that rubs us the wrong way or the internal disquiet of struggling to put our faith into action, we have the choice of pushing those feelings aside or embracing them. Nobody likes to be upset or feel lousy, but embracing that discomfort and using it as motivation for action, even when that action is silence, is key to building the “faith-and-works” connection and having a hand in building God’s kingdom here on earth.

Infertility can be an isolating experience, impacting our marriage and other relationships, and testing our faith. If this is your experience, you're not alone! We invite you to join with others walking this path in a small group for women: Arise. We will be guided by materials from Springs in the Desert, a Catholic infertility ministry, and our group will be a place to acknowledge the pain and complex emotions associated with infertility and loss through prayer, sharing, and reclaiming our identities as beloved daughters of God. ► Eucharistic Adoration Hours Extended

 Dave Bisdorf

Starting with Tuesday, October 8, St. Isidore's hours of Eucharistic Adoration will be as follows:

- Second Tuesday of each month: following 8:00 AM Mass and concluding with Benediction at 7:00 PM.
- All other Tuesdays: following the 8:00 AM Mass and concluding with Benediction at 4:15 PM.

We hope these extended hours on the second Tuesday of each month will give a chance for Adoration to those who are limited by the earlier closing. Perhaps you can plan to stop by on your way home from work, school, or other activities.

As usual, Eucharistic Adoration takes place in the Resource Center located at the Rosary Garden entrance. If you are interested in signing up as a regular Adorer for anytime during these extended hours on the second Tuesday of the month (or for any time on any Tuesday) please contact Dave Bisdorf (586) 202-7000 or the St. Isidore office at (586) 286-1700.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Consoling Mary

Suggested Prayer: Seven Sorrows of Mary

1. Simeon's prophecy that a sword will pierce Mary's soul. Hail Mary ...
2. The flight into Egypt. Hail Mary...
3. The loss of the Child Jesus in the Temple of Jerusalem. Hail Mary...
4. The meeting of Jesus and Mary on the Way of the Cross. Hail Mary...
5. Mary witnesses the Crucifixion and the death of Jesus on the Cross. Hail Mary...
6. The dead body of Jesus is taken down and laid in the arms of His Holy Mother. Hail Mary...
7. The Burial of Jesus, with Mary's tears and loneliness. Hail Mary...

Suggested Activity: Be a friend to those who need consolation.

Mary's sorrow was less when she saw her only Son crucified, than it is now at the sight of man offending Him by sin.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Did You Know? History of the Devotion To Our Lady of Sorrows

The biblical origin of the memorial of our Lady of Sorrows is found in the Infancy Narrative of the gospel of Luke when during the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, Simeon told the Blessed Mother Mary, "You yourself a sword will pierce" (Lk 2:35). It was a deeply disturbing message on what should have been an extremely joyful day. Simeon forewarned Mary she would endure much hardship in the future: burdens and anxiety, pain and suffering, tears and mourning. It was unknown when it would happen, how it would happen, or hard it would be, but trouble surely was coming. The announcement itself was a sorrow for Mary.

St. Anselm and the Benedictines were the first to introduce the concept of Our Lady of Sorrows in the eleventh century. The first liturgical feast was celebrated during the 12th century. By the 14th century the single sorrow of Mary had been expanded to seven. In 1913 Pope Pious X transferred the memorial to Sept. 15th.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church

We all know someone who is going through a difficult time, right? We can reach out to those suffering and offer comfort. Let us ask God for encouragement and help to accomplish this, to love others as He loves us.

Let's do this together. Join our crochet/knit/quilt/sew group. We named ourselves the Comfort Crafters and meet on Tuesdays @ 1:00, in the Social Hall, to make and donate prayer lap blankets and shawls for anyone needing comfort. Call the church office during regular business hours to have one of our group members call you and answer any questions you may have.

Select one of our prayer blankets or shawls - free of charge - in the St. Isidore office for any person who needs comfort due to a medical, emotional, or spiritual crisis in their life.

Please pray for those who need comfort and all recipients of our items.

We ask that you share this ministry info with other parishioners.

Thank you from The Comfort Crafters.

"God comforts, not to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters." (John Henry Jowett)

► Baby Pantry Request List

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church 586-745-9501

You may think you are completely insignificant in this world. But someone rubs lotion on her little girl and says thank you for the person who donated it, or perhaps heard a song that reminded her of your generosity, or happily smiles because you gave her something for her baby daughter. Never think that you have no influence. The comfort and assistance you give is vital for the moms that so desperately need help.

Try to imagine how your donations affect the lives of the low-income families we help. A mom with very little money, when diapering her child, might reflect on the gift of free diapers from a person she does not know. Imagine how thankful she is for you. Imagine her sadness that she cannot tell you thank you. So she thanks God and utters a prayer for you.

Your St. Isidore Baby Pantry extends to you our heartfelt thanks for all you do to help us. God bless you for your generosity!

If possible, please donate:

- Diapers - sizes 4, 5 & 6
- Fragrance free, sensitive wipes
- Fruit flavor Puffs
- Teething crackers

Prayer: Dear God, you are the Giver of all our good things. Please help me to be generous in offering Your gifts to others.

We distribute each and every item you donate to help low-income families in need.

The St. Isidore Baby Pantry Team says, "Thank you, thank you, and thank you!"

- Move the "G" after the "S" and the "R" after the "G"
- Move the "A" after the "R" and the "C" after the "A"

Then Jesus called the crowd to Him along with His disciples. What did He tell them?

Use the code to write the words into the numbered blanks and read the verse.
