#CONNECTINGPOINT

CONNECTING POINT

 Msgr. John Kasza - Moderator  frjohn@stol.church

Whenever we want to learn a new skill, we must sacrifice. Athletes must take time to practice individually and with teammates to hone their abilities. As a musician, practicing scales and determining intonation are important if I am to improve. Similarly, chefs need to spend time reading recipes and sampling their dishes, all of which take time and effort. In short, if we want to improve in life, it will involve some sacrifice on our part.

The same is true of wisdom. One becomes wise not by osmosis (simply sitting somewhere and absorbing the atmosphere) but by study, practice, reflection, discussion, and experimentation. Wisdom, like any skill, is acquired by deliberate action.

There are different kinds of wisdom: "book smarts," "street smarts," "reading"

Whenever someone tells me that they “don’t get much out of Mass on Sunday,” I ask: “Do you pray privately every day?” It is important to distinguish between “private prayer” and “communal prayer.” Private prayer is the time we spend with God by ourselves every day to reflect on God’s presence in our lives. Silence is an important part of this prayer, as it is in silence that the Holy Spirit moves within us. Sunday Mass is a communal prayer. It is the time we join the entire community to praise and thank God and to experience Christ’s presence in the community. We need both private and communal prayer. Without daily private prayer, we have very little to praise and thank God for when we gather with the community at Sunday Mass. Without communal prayer, our private prayer can become self-centered. God comes to us through the community. It is not helpful to see Sunday Mass as “my time with God this week.” It is the time when we join the community in prayer.

We have heard complaints that there is too much talking in church before Mass begins. I think that it is fine to quietly greet friends as we enter the church or talk briefly with them. It connects us in worship. However, we should try to refrain from being too loud and disturbing those preparing in silence to enter into the liturgy.

The Gathering Space should be used for longer conversations.

Of course, there is a difference when it comes to infants and little ones. I never mind it when they cry or are noisy in church. Parents cannot control it. I am extremely grateful to parents who bring the little ones to church. I know that it is not easy! Yet, our communal prayer is not complete without our children. It is crucial that our parish is “baby friendly” and that we go out of our way to thank and support our young families.

Blessings!
Fr. Ron

28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

The Lord guides us to follow the commandments and not hold onto our riches just to be able to join him in heaven. We should already know that if we follow him in life we will gain more than riches.

Family Time Fun

Find time this weekend to set aside today's technology and do something fun as a family enjoying the beautiful fall season, like taking a hay ride or walking through a pumpkin patch.

Christmas Giving Tree

 Evangelical Charity Committee

Once again, it's time to start thinking about our annual Christmas Giving Tree Program. Due to the increase of fraud in purchasing gift cards, we will not be requesting gift cards this year. We will gladly accept checks, cash or donations made online using push pay, available at www.stisidore.church/give, to make it more convenient for everyone.

Checks and online donations may be made in any amount.

The Giving Tree is meant to be a living symbol of the true meaning of Christmas. As we all know, "Jesus is the reason for the season." God has been good to us, and we can express our thankfulness by sharing with those less fortunate when we use our Giving Tree envelopes. Please be as generous as you can.

The trees will be located in the Gathering Space at each entrance to the Church and at the Prayer Garden entrance.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Conversion of Sinners

Suggested Prayer/Activity: Make sacrifices this week for conversion of sinners and in reparation for offenses, offering each one for the love of Jesus.

Make sacrifices for sinners, and say often, especially while making a sacrifice: "O Jesus, this is for love of thee, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Told to the children of Fatima by Our Lady of the Rosary

Did You Know? Our Lady of Fatima

At Fatima, Portugal the Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children, Lucia dos Santos and her cousins Jacinta and Francisco Marto, on May 13, 1917, and in each subsequent month until October of that year. Mary told the children to say the rosary every day, to bring peace to the world and an end to the war. She also gave them this prayer to say after each mystery, "O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fire of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those who are most in need." On the last day of the apparitions, a crowd of about 70,000 made up of believers, skeptics, and atheists witnessed the "Miracle of the Sun". On that day the rainy sky cleared up and the wet and muddy ground dried up. A transparent veil came over the sun, making it easy to look at, and multicolored lights were strewn across the landscape. The sun began to spin, twirling in the sky, and at one point appeared to veer toward the earth before jumping back to its place in the sky. The first newspaper to report this event with a full front page was an anti-Catholic, Masonic newspaper in Lisbon called O Seculo.

► “Our” CIA Monthly Update: Travel Partners

👤 Bill Hicks, OCIA Coordinator 📧 ocia@stisidore.church

The LORD God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make a suitable partner for him” (Gn 2:18).

Each time I gather with our OCIA catechumens and candidates, I see the profound truth of the LORD's statement. This year's OCIA group truly reflects the vastness and grandeur of God's creation, ranging in age from 10 to 70 with family ties as far away as Massachusetts, Texas, and Bosnia, serving society with skills in culinary arts, pharmaceutical sales, football, and competitive dance. Each one is on a journey to join us as part of the mystical body of Christ! And I agree with the sentiments from this scripture passage; it would not be good for them to journey alone.

To ensure that our soon-to-be

Catholic brothers and sisters aren't walking alone, we're forming a group of Parish Sponsors—travel guides, if you will—who will provide friendly faces and a warm welcome by being available to answer questions and point out things of interest to newcomers who are navigating their way in a large, diverse, and active Family of Parishes faith community. As a Parish Sponsor, we will only ask you to do four things:

1. Attend an OCIA session at your local parish, where we will introduce you to the group. This will take all of 3–5 minutes out of a single Sunday (plus you'll get a donut and coffee).
2. Agree to have a brief “bio” included in our directory of Parish Sponsors, which gives OCIA travelers the ability to reach out if they have questions or interests that align with your own specialties and/or ministry.

3. Consider representing OCIA at the parish functions that you normally attend by simply wearing a lanyard that says “OCIA – Becoming Catholic? Ask Me!”
4. Enjoy the consolation and graces that flow to you—a suitable partner—as you walk with a brother or sister who is longing for Christ and His Church!

Does that sound like something you could do? Yeah, I knew it would. Please send a note to OCIA@stisidore.church or a text to (586) 345-0825, and together, we'll see where the Spirit leads us!

people, emotional wisdom, empathetic wisdom, and the like. But for those of us who are Christian, we want to acquire God's wisdom, which involves sacrifices of time and self. We must ask ourselves: What am I willing to give up as a human in order to grow in God's wisdom?

In many ways, we need to give up our own opinions, wants, needs, and desires and literally "die to self" to achieve God's wisdom. His wisdom does not merely come from books or memorizing facts and figures; it involves putting ourselves at the service of God and neighbor so that Christ shines through us.

God's wisdom sometimes calls us to be countercultural—to go against the grain of commonly held beliefs. Occasionally, we are invited to fight for the rights of those whom the world considers "nobodies." God's wisdom challenges us to view the world through the eyes of faith and see potential in others by looking beyond the obvious. Ultimately, growing in God's wisdom means becoming a person of service and going above and beyond—not just doing the bare minimum.

This week, ask the Lord what you need to give up in order to grow in God's wisdom.

▶ 10 Surprising Things That Happen When You Go to Adoration More Often - Part 2

Here are the first three ways that going to Adoration may impact you...

1. You develop a sense of awe and wonder

There is nothing like the atmosphere of a quiet chapel or church, the smell of incense and the splendor of the monstrance to help you understand the truth of what is happening in Adoration. We are truly before Jesus Christ, His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. The more you sink into that silence in front of the Host, the more you'll realize the only response is awe and wonder at the greatness of our God.

2. You experience peace in other areas of your life

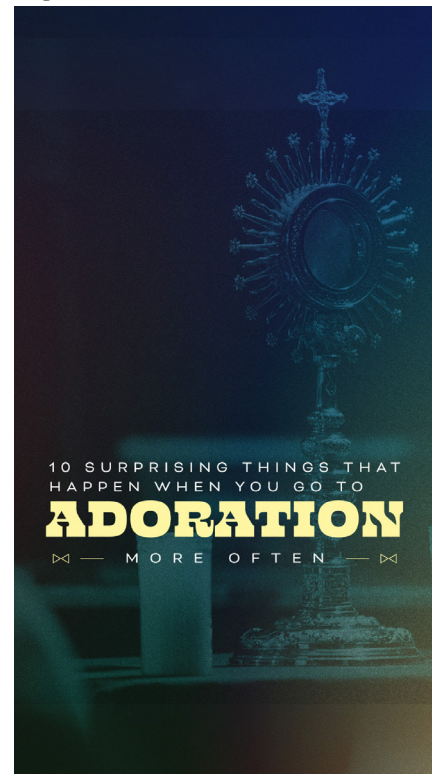

Jesus said "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you." (John 14:27). The outward peace we can experience in Adoration

(the quiet and the stillness) reaches much deeper. It leads to an inner peace that affects all areas of our lives. It doesn't mean everything in our life will be perfect and without suffering, but Christ's peace means we know the storms of life can't shake us.

3. You begin to look outwardly

Jesus told us to "love one another as I have loved you". (John 13:34) Spending time in Adoration connects us to the whole world – after all, we're spending time with the Creator of all things! More time praising and adoring God means you can look beyond your own concerns and see the needs of others in your life and in the world we live in.

▶ Oktoberfest

Pat Lang

On September 21, the Knights of Columbus hosted an Oktoberfest here at St. Isidore. The evening included great food and beer, the Dyna Brass German Band, the raffle baskets and many games (both inside and out). Attendees participated in a euchre tournament and a stein holding competition (both male and female). They had fun playing fowling (bowling with a football), cornhole, and Hammerschlagen (a competition of pounding nails into wood from a tree stump). Whether it was talking with other attendees, listening to the authentic German music, playing games or just enjoying the food and drink - all reports indicate that everyone had a great time.

The basket raffle winners were:
 Kathy Ciaramitaro - Weber 18-inch Smokey Mountain Charcoal Smoker & $200 Visa gift card
 Sue Thomas - Blackstone 1883 Original 28" Griddle

Vince Bookwalter - Fast food gift cards
 Elizabeth Johnson - $200 in instant scratch-off tickets
 Linda Jenuwine - $50 gift card from Tony's meat market
 Kenny Meerschaert - Basket of cheer

The 50/50 winner chose to be anonymous
 Thank you to those who attended. All net proceeds will go toward vocations.

▶ K of C Breakfast - Thank You

Brian McAleer, Knights of Columbus - Council 7200.

St. Isidore Church: Thank you for your attendance and donations at the September 29th pancake breakfast. We had a very nice turnout, especially after the 9:30 Mass, totaling 201 people. With your help and support, the money we were able to raise will go to the K of C Disaster Relief Fund and help with the efforts for victims of Hurricane Helene. We hope you enjoyed the food and the fellowship of this breakfast. It was very nice sharing breakfast with you. As always, your generosity and continued support of our events is greatly appreciated, as our efforts would be fruitless without your involvement. We pray that you have a pleasant fall season. We hope to see you at our next Pancake Breakfast on November 17th. God Bless You and Yours.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the church office compliments of the Comfort Crafters ministry.

Do you have a friend or relative who hopes for comfort? Someone who needs to know others care about them and pray for them? We think you do know that special someone. When we comfort someone, we can be happy and feel blessed because God is answering that person's prayer through us.

When someone close to you is hurting or recovering from physical, emotional, or mental anguish, please bring that person one of our prayer blankets or prayer shawls for comfort. They are available free of charge at St. Isidore. Also give that person a rosary. They are offered to you (at no cost) by our St. Isidore Rosary Maker Ministry. Want to help our ministry?

Check the St. Isidore Bulletin (available in church or online) for the column titled "We pray for the sick..." to see if someone you know is on the prayer list. Gift that someone with a blanket or shawl.

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church 586-745-9501

Please donate so that we may help the local low-income families who desperately need us.
