CONNECTING POINT

and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we have for you, so as to strengthen your hearts, to be blameless in holiness before God...

Thessalonians 3:12-13

Jeff Loeb, Deacon jeff@stisidore.church

As we enter the holiday season of Christmas parties, shopping, and gift-giving, we begin the wonderful cycle of retail discounts. These shopping blowout sales provide benefits for retailers and consumers alike. Retailers enjoy revenue boosts, while consumers find deals on products that might be considered beyond their budget. We have all seen news stories of people lining up for days to wait for Black Friday deals. These stories always include unfortunate videos of people stampeding over each other to obtain these marked-down gifts; they reflect not only a consumer-driven culture but also raise deep questions regarding the value we place on material goods and the pressures to chase the deal.

 Fr. Ron Victor  frron@stisidore.church

Today we begin the beautiful, joyful season of Advent. I am very excited about our Family of Parishes' attempt to "Turn Christmas Upside Down." Advent Conspiracy," developed by several pastors of various denominations, is the tool we will be using to accomplish what we hope is a fresh approach to Christmas, making our Advent and Christmas more meaningful, Christ-centered, community-centered, and transformative. I strongly encourage your family to join in by using the Advent Coupon Book being distributed today.

Advent is a season of joyful anticipation of Christmas with many beautiful symbols: the pregnant virgin, the lion and the lamb at peace with each other, John the Baptist, the prophet Isaiah, the Jesse Tree, etc. Let's take the time to really focus on them over the next few weeks. In other words, let us celebrate Advent during the Advent Season, and celebrate Christmas during the Christmas Season. The Christmas Season begins at 4 PM on December 24 and continues through the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord on January 12. There will be plenty of time to celebrate Christmas. The more we patiently wait and prepare for the Christmas Season, the more joyful it will be. It is sad when people are kind of all "Christmased Out" shortly after Christmas Day, and do not celebrate the entire season with great joy.

Also, please join us for our Parish Mission beginning next weekend. Please see details elsewhere in this edition of Harvest News.

► Rediscover the Heart of Christmas: Join Our Advent Conspiracy

 Matt Kush, Director of Engagement  matt@stisidore.church

This Advent, we invite you to join a movement that will transform how we prepare for Christmas. Advent Conspiracy is about choosing a different path—a way to step back from the hustle and embrace the deeper meaning of the season.

At the heart of our initiative is the Advent Action Book, a beautifully designed tool filled with simple, thoughtful actions for each week of Advent. These actions are meant to be achievable by individuals, couples, and families of all ages and situations. The goal? To help us refocus on what truly matters—worshipping fully, spending less, giving more, and loving all.

Here's how it works:

1. Pick up your Advent Action Book after Mass this weekend.
2. Complete the actions and tear out the coupons as you go.
3. Drop your completed coupons into the Advent Action Dropbox at church.

Each week, we'll gather the coupons and assemble them into a display on our bulletin board, showing the collective impact of our parish family. Together, we'll see how small acts of kindness and faith can bring hope and joy to our community and beyond.

In addition, each weekend during Advent, we'll show a short video at Mass to inspire us to live out the core principles of Advent Conspiracy: Worship Fully. Spend Less. Give More. Love All.

Let's reclaim the season and celebrate Christmas as it was meant to be—with intention, generosity, and love. Join us this Advent in making a difference in our church, our community, and our hearts.

▶ Young Catholic Society

Daniel Ladzinski - Young Adult Coordinator

Hello! My name is Daniel Ladzinski and I am pleased to be offering an opportunity to the young adult community. After graduating from college this past spring and reentering the local area, I have quickly realized the immense need for a consistent meeting place for my peers—people who are college aged or just a few years out of college. For far too many, I believe there hasn't been a sufficient social substitute for the many structured events and groups present in high school or on a college campus. For this reason, I have formed the Young Catholic Society (YCS).

Most importantly, every Wednesday you can expect the time for:

- Socializing
- Meeting new people
- Developing a circle of like-minded friends
- Reflecting on what should be our focus at our stage in life

So, if you are between the ages of 18-27 and this message resounds in your heart—and you happened to read this short post—please put a reminder on your calendar and join us any Wednesday evening at 7 PM in the church's Social Hall.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Hope

Suggested Prayer: Dear Jesus, you are our hope in our messy world. This Advent, help us slow down, listen to your voice, and focus on what is really important. We place our hope in you as we prepare our hearts to celebrate your birth on Christmas. Amen.

...as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior...

Part of an ancient prayer inserted into the Lord's Prayer right before the doxology at Mass.

Did You Know? Four Themes of Advent

HOPE: The first theme of Advent is hope. The first candle of Advent is known as the Prophecy Candle.

PEACE: The second theme of Advent focuses on peace. The second candle is known as the Bethlehem Candle.

JOY: The third theme of Advent is joy. The third candle is known as the Shepherd's Candle.

LOVE: The fourth theme of Advent is love. The fourth candle is known as the Angel's Candle.

The themes of Advent are meant to help people prepare their hearts and minds for Christmas.

▶ Advent Wreath Prayers

👤 Peggy Casing 📧 peggyc@stol.church

The tradition of lighting candles on an Advent Wreath is one that goes back centuries. Just like an Advent calendar, this tradition is a great way to make the days of waiting, before Christmas, more meaningful. There's no need to buy anything expensive. Any four (or five) candles will do! You have a head start if you have three purple candles and one pink, the lower portion of the candle, or get creative in marking the colors of advent on them in another way. The, optional, fifth candle is placed in the center of the arrangement. It is a special candle that you'll light on Christmas morning. Many families use a white candle that they keep white, but you can use something else, as well. Have fun with it! Then, purple, with some evergreen or pine branches from your yard at the base. Honestly, you can get as simple, or as elaborate as you'd like. This tradition can end up providing you with a lovely centerpiece for your Christmas table, AND with a deeper celebration of the season.

This week, consider adding the Advent Wreath tradition to your meal prayer at dinner each night. If that's too much, maybe just on Sunday. Whatever works for you is a step toward deeper meaning. Here's how. While you light the first, purple, candle you could pray using these words:

Heavenly Father, Help me (us) to take time this week to focus on the fact that Christmas isn't about more presents; it's about God's presence. Help me (us) to spend less on the things that don't last, and to give more of myself (ourselves), using what I (we) save to love others, especially the hungry, the lonely, and the hurting. This Advent, help me (us) live out my (our) faith more fully. (Follow with meal prayer, if fitting.) -Amen!

but you could use all white candles, tying purple and pink ribbons around their bases instead. If you don't have ribbon, you could place each base on a square of colored paper, use acrylic paint to paint a stripe around once you have the candles, place them around a plain, green wreath, with the Christmas candle in the center. If you don't have a wreath, consider placing them in a row, in the order of purple, purple, pink, and

The St. Isidore K of C Council monthly recognizes a “Knight of the Month” and a “Family of the Month” for their efforts in serving the council/parish/community. Shown are David Rizzi and Dennis (Cheryl not present) Jarzombek receiving certificates for November’s Knight and Family of the Month from Grand Knight Chijioke Oparaji at the November General Membership Meeting.

▶ K of C Breakfast - Thank You

▶ Brian McAleer

Thank you for your attendance and donations at the November 17 pancake breakfast. We had an excellent turnout totaling 220 people. With your help and support, the money we were able to raise will be used for the benefit of others. We hope you enjoyed the food and the fellowship of this breakfast. It was very nice sharing breakfast with you. As always, your generosity and continued support of our events is greatly appreciated, as our efforts would be fruitless without your involvement. We pray that you have a merry and blessed Advent and Christmas season. We hope to see you at church during the holidays and at our next Pancake Breakfast on February 2. God Bless You and Yours.

▶ K of C Exemplification

▶ Brian McAleer

On Thursday, 11/14/24, members from the St. Isidore K of C Council conducted an Exemplification ceremony welcoming nine new Brother Knights into the Knights of Columbus. This ceremony imparts lessons that inspire men to serve and teaches our time-honored principles in a way that is appropriate for today. It presents the lessons of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity in powerful, contemporary language.

The increased focus on deals fosters a sense of urgency that can lead us away from the real reason for the season and toward impulsive purchases that may cause financial stress.

In today's readings, we find an alternate call to urgently strengthen our love and commitment to God and each other. St. Paul, in our second reading, prays for an increase in love among the community, urging people to grow in holiness as they prepare for the coming of Christ. Jesus' message in the Gospel reminds us that life can be full of distractions, anxieties, and temptations that cloud our focus on what truly matters. Jesus urges us to stay awake, be vigilant in faith, and keep our hearts oriented toward God; after all, life on earth is temporary. Our true and permanent home is in the kingdom of God. These passages offer us a time to reflect on where our urgency is in life, encouraging us to increase and abound in love for all.

Our first Advent Connecting Point asks, "How can I 'spend less' to please God?" It challenges us to spend less on ourselves so that we might increase for God and others. What does it mean to "spend less?" It doesn't just refer to financial spending. Spending less means making conscious choices to limit what we invest in material things, our comforts, and even our own self-interests so we can make space for God and others. Spending less frees us to grow in love and use our time and resources for things that bring us closer to God and help us love others more generously. When we are centered on God, we are less likely to be overwhelmed by anxiety or caught up in marketing distractions.

Advent is a perfect time to reflect on how we spend our resources, energy, and hearts. As we prepare to celebrate Christ's arrival, we are invited to focus not on what we can gain but on what we can give! Jesus came not to be served but to serve, teaching us that love often means making sacrifices, putting others before ourselves, and spending less on our wants so we can give more to others.

▶ Baby Pantry Request List

👤 Pat Schmeiser 📧 babypantry@stisidore.church 📞 586-745-9501

First Sunday of Advent: The day to begin waiting for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives. We are all called to the service of the poor. Our service must come from hearts that live in joyful anticipation.

Right now, our needs are:

- Fragrance-free, sensitive wipes
- A special Christmas gift for our moms - suggestion: a pretty shower gel or lotion
- Size 3T-4T and 4T-5T boys pull-ups
- Gold fish - box of small bags
- Combo baby wash/shampoo

We often feel helpless knowing there are so many needy families in our surroundings. When we offer what we have been given, we take Jesus to our neighbors.

The Baby Pantry Team feels blessed that you donate to help. And help, indeed, you do!

Be happy, because God is answering that person's prayer through you. Advent is a time of prayer, giving and loving. Your gifts allow your neighbors who are poor to know the good news of Jesus. May your Advent be peaceful and prayerful.

God bless you!

Jesus, may my financial resources always be used to spread your truth and love.

Steve Givens

This time of year, we are asked to support so many causes with donations. How do we decide who is worthy of our contributions? Steve Givens, Spiritual Director and Author, gives us insight. He explains that we become “co-workers” to whatever “truth” that organization holds. Please take the time to understand the organization’s needs, align their goals with a broader reach of the community, take into consideration the care and compassion of the organization, measure the impact and positive difference in community, and long-term sustainability of your contributions. These ideas aim to create a meaningful impact to your charitable giving.

SVdP is two weeks away from its Christmas distribution. We will be supporting 43 local families with food, health and beauty items, paper products, and goodies, as well as gift cards for meat and produce. We are in great need of many $25 gift cards from Meijer, Kroger, or Walmart.

Please keep our pantry in mind as you shop at stores or online this week: Our pantry needs are listed in order of most importance:

- $25 Gift Cards - (need 30 total) Walmart, Meijer, Kroger (for meat & produce)
- Cash Donations - Blue Envelopes at Church entrances
- Laundry Soap
- Paper Towel
- Dish Soap
- Toothpaste
- Bar Soap
- Shampoo
- Toilet Paper
- Cookie Mix (for Santa)
- Hot Cocoa
- Canned Tuna
- Helpers - Hamburger, Tuna

God Bless you for loving our neighbors,
