

HARVEST NEWS

December 8, 2024
SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

CONNECTING POINT

 Chris Piebiak - Director of Family Ministry  chrisp@stol.church

Promoting the Gospel is a call for every believer to live out their faith and share the Good News of Jesus Christ with the world. To “give more” in this mission means embracing sacrificial generosity, creativity, and commitment in every area of your life. When we live as Disciples Unleashed, our impact on the kingdom expands exponentially.

1) Prioritize Prayer

Prayer is foundational. Begin by asking God to show you where your efforts are most needed. Pray for missionaries, ministries, and individuals who have not yet heard the Gospel. Prayer aligns your heart with God’s mission and prepares the soil for fruitful ministry.

2) Give More of Your Time

The Gospel is most effectively shared through relationships. Devote time to building meaningful connections with others, mentoring new believers, non-believers, or lukewarm believers, and participating in outreach initiatives. By investing your time, you not only share the truth of Christ but also reflect His love and care.

▶ How's Your Advent Going?

👤 Matt Kush, Director of Engagement ✉ matt@stisidore.church

We're halfway through Advent—how's it going for you? Are you feeling rushed by the holiday to-do list, or have you found moments of peace and purpose in this season of preparation?

If you haven't already, we invite you to take a step back and refocus on what truly matters this Advent. Our Advent Action Book is a simple but powerful tool designed to help you align with the four themes of the Advent Conspiracy:

- Worship Fully: Make space for God in your day. Pray, reflect, and find time to center your heart on Christ
- Spend Less: Step off the treadmill of consumerism. Consider thoughtful, meaningful ways to give that don't break the bank.
- Give More: Give more of yourself—your time, attention, and love—to the people in your life. Presence often means more than presents.

- Love All: Extend kindness to those around you and beyond. Share God's love with those who need it most.

Each week, we've been showing short videos at Mass that dive deeper into these themes. If you missed one or would like to reflect on them again, they're available on our website at disciplesunleashed.org/advent-conspiracy. These videos are a great way to stay connected to the heart of this movement and reflect on the true meaning of Christmas.

The Advent Action Book is filled with simple, practical ideas that can help you live out these themes. It's not too late to dive in and take small, intentional steps that will reshape how you approach Christmas.

This season isn't about doing more; it's about doing things differently. It's about letting go of the distractions and reclaiming the joy and peace of Christ's birth. So, how's your Advent going? If it's not quite what you'd hoped, there's still time to make it meaningful.

Let's continue this journey together—one step, one action, one moment at a time.

Gracious God,

We humbly pray for the success of our Advent Parish Mission. May the mission give us a renewed sense of amazement in the Eucharist, so that our hearts may burn with love for this sacred mystery.

May the hidden treasures within the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass be revealed to us, to enrich our spirits and guide us closer to You. May we be inspired by the lives of the saints, learn from their deep devotion, and strive to emulate their passionate faith. May the glory of Eucharistic Adoration transform our souls, drawing us into a deeper communion with Your divine grace and unmeasurable love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

▶ What Is Climate Change and What Can We Do to Help

Social Justice Committee

The primary cause of climate change is human activities such as driving gas cars, using electricity, and cutting down forests. These are not natural changes in the climate. These activities release gases into the atmosphere called greenhouse gases, which slowly warm the planet, creating climate change.

More frequent and intense drought, storms, heat waves, rising sea levels, melting glaciers, and warming oceans can directly harm animals, destroy the places they live, and wreak havoc on people's livelihoods and communities. As climate change worsens, dangerous weather events are becoming more frequent or severe. Air temperatures on Earth have been rising since the Industrial Revolution. Here are some ideas we can all do to help the earth:

- Cutting down forests and replanting the trees.
- Save energy (and money) at home. Turn off lights, lower the temperature, do not leave water running (like brushing your teeth), only turn on the water when needed. Wash large loads of clothes instead of just a few items at a time.
- Reduce, reuse, repair and recycle. We need to stop being a "throw away" society.
- Invest in renewable energy, install solar panels (also saves you money).
- Unplug items that are only used once a week, like washers/dryers, also unplug your charger when your phone is charged.

Please pass this on to friends, neighbors, and anyone you know who runs a business. The earth is God's creation. We need to take care of it. Every little bit helps, and God will be pleased. Do not forget to put your stickers on the board in the church's Gathering Space.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Peace

Suggested Prayer: Dear Jesus, you entered our world on Christmas as the Prince of Peace. This Advent, as we strive to become the-best-version-of-ourselves, fill us with a deep and abiding peace. Help us share that peace with everyone we encounter, especially those who need it most. Amen.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.

John 14:27

Did You Know? Immaculate Conception

From among the descendants of Eve, God chose the Virgin Mary to be the mother of his Son. "Full of grace," Mary is "the most excellent fruit of redemption:" from the first instant of her conception, she was totally preserved from the stain of original sin and she remained pure from all personal sin throughout her life. (CCC508)

3) Share Your Talents

God has equipped each of us with unique skills to serve His kingdom. Promote the Gospel by using your gifts in ways that bring glory to Him. Whether it's through teaching, writing, music, or technical skills, every talent can help spread the message of Christ and inspire others.

4) Give Financially

Giving financially to your church, missionaries, or Gospel-centered organizations can have a profound impact. Funds are often needed for outreach programs, food pantries, or humanitarian efforts that open doors for evangelization. Even small, consistent contributions can make a significant difference when multiplied by others.

5) Be Bold in Your Witness

Living as Disciples Unleashed means being unapologetic about your faith. Share your testimony with courage and authenticity, both in word and deed. Be intentional about inviting others into the life-changing truth of the Gospel.

When we intentionally give more, we participate in God's redemptive work around the world. As we unleash our time, talents, and treasures, we become vessels of transformation, carrying the light of Christ to those in need. This is how the Gospel is promoted—through faithful disciples, living boldly for His glory.

▶ Managing Stress During the Holidays

👤 Marilyn Cito ✉ marilyn@stol.church

Although most everyone loves the holiday season, it can also be a time of stress. There never seems to be enough time to get everything done. Decorating, shopping, baking, cooking, wrapping presents, parties, and visiting with families and friends can make this wonderful time of the year overwhelming. Saying “yes” to every request can sometimes result in feeling exhausted. This holiday season, make a commitment to set some boundaries and “savor each moment”. Here are a few tips for trying to achieve that:

- Take care of yourself! This means something different to each of us:
 - Spend time alone. Pray. Meditate.
 - Enjoy the wonderful church celebrations/activities and Masses. They are beautiful and heartwarming.
 - Get enough sleep.
 - Practice gratitude.
 - Take time to relax and not over extend yourself.
 - Pamper yourself “a little.” Take a lingering bath, get a manicure or hair done, listen to music, read. Do what YOU enjoy doing!
 - Practice self-control with eating and drinking and plan accordingly when going to parties, family gatherings, and other holiday events.
 - Don’t forget to exercise!
- Give yourself permission to say “no.” This includes parties, gift giving, baking cookies or decorating your house. Just because you have always “done it that way,” doesn’t mean you need to keep doing it! Ask yourself if it is “value added” and if it is, then it’s fine to continue doing it.

- Ask others to help. I know most of us don’t like to ask for help when hosting an event or preparing for the holidays, but maybe you could reconsider? Asking people to bring a dish to pass at a party or inviting family or friends to trim your tree will alleviate some stressful details of the holiday and can be fun! Start a new tradition of baking with your friends or family. It is a great way to pass on those precious family recipes to our loved ones. Make a day of decorating the tree and house with family. Another great tradition!
- Look for opportunities to do holiday preparation a little easier. This might include purchasing part of a holiday meal from a store, ordering groceries or gifts online instead of going to the store and standing in the long lines. Instead of baking all of those desserts for Christmas, consider buying a few fancy ones at the bakery?
- Keep the conversations, light and fun. Take the opportunity to reminisce about “past holidays.” This is a great time to share videos/pictures from prior years! Stay clear of politics and stressful events of the year. If people get into disagreements about politically charged discussions, steer the conversation into something “lighter.”

- Ask family and friends to “refrain” from talking and texting on the phone during family gatherings. Decorate a basket and ask everyone to put their phones in the basket. This is a great opportunity for them to “disconnect” for a few hours, be “present in the moment” and enjoy their time with their loved ones.
- Know your limitations. If something feels like it’s “too much,” re-evaluate whether you need to continue with that activity. This could include family gatherings, staying out late, shopping, or just “doing too much!” No one will think less of you if you let them know you need to just take a “breather.”
- Share the holiday with someone who could use your help or who is alone. This could include calling or visiting someone who is alone or the caregiver of someone, delivering a meal to their home, or dropping off a little gift to them. This also could include spending a couple of hours sitting with a person for a caregiver, so they have some time for themselves.

In the end, it is up to each of us to make the holidays what we want them to be. It is our responsibility to set limitations on ourselves so that we have time to think about the “real meaning” of Christmas and God. It is a wonderful opportunity to reflect and thank God for all of our blessings and to share that spirit with our loved ones.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church

Unconditional love always requires sacrifice. Partnership with Christ means living a life of love for others. A prayer blanket or shawl is one way to bring the loving comfort of Christ to others. Advent is "sharing-with-others" time. Know that you will bring hope and love to others when you gift one of our hand-made items to a friend or relative needing comfort because they are sick or grieving or lonely or discouraged. Prayer blankets and shawls are available - free - in the church office. Please include all our prayer blanket and shawl recipients in your prayers. We pray for our recipients at every group meeting.

We ask that you share our ministry information with other parishioners.

Thank you from "The Comfort Crafters"

*God comforts, not to make us comfortable,
but to make us comforters.*
