CONNECTING POINT

 Peggy Casing - Director of Discipleship Formation  peggyc@stol.church

In this Sunday's readings, those who heard John's preaching of the Good News were filled with "expectation." He told them to exercise the same kind of radical hospitality, service, and giving that the Advent Conspiracy is all about. But today's readings also include the exhortation to "rejoice" and "shout for joy" because of God's presence in our midst—and for the second coming of our savior. How, in heaven's name, can we be joyful when living as disciples of Jesus may seem like more than we can handle? The answer is to take each day one step at a time. Let me share a quick story.

Years ago, I had a member of my staff who suffered the death of her mother-in-law. I felt that it was important to go to the funeral home and stay for the "service," yet it was a particularly busy time of year, so I wasn't planning on going to the luncheon that followed. I had already made my decision when, after the service, our pastor asked if I was planning to attend. What stands out, in my memory, was the somewhat incredulous tone in my voice when I answered, "No! I just don't have the time!" (Surely, he knew how busy I

Fr. Ron Victor frron@stisidore.church

During this busy time, I am hoping that we can all take advantage of our Family of Parishes' Advent Conspiracy Program: Spend Less; Give More; Worship Fully; and Love All. The Advent Book is a good tool to use as we do this. Check out what fellow parishioners have done by viewing the special Advent boards in the Gathering Space.

Our Advent Mission this past week may help us to Worship Fully as we grow in our understanding and appreciation of the Eucharist as the Real Presence of Christ. We thank all who were able to assist with the Mission and who attended it. We remind you that we celebrate the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Tuesdays following the 8:30 AM Mass until 4:15 PM, and on Fridays at 7:00 AM until shortly before the beginning of Mass at 8:00 AM.

A high point of my Advent these last few years has been the Lessons and Carols concert, which will be performed this Sunday evening, December 15, at 7:00 PM. Choirs from local high schools and other choral groups will lead us in a very prayerful preparation for Christmas. I hope you will be able to attend. More information can be found elsewhere in the bulletin.

To avoid surprises, remember that 4 PM Christmas Eve Mass is the most heavily attended of our Christmas Masses. You will need to be here at least a half hour early if you want a seat in the Worship Space. Additional seating will be available in the Gathering Space and Social Hall.

The 3rd Sunday of Advent

As John continues to baptize the followers of Jesus with water he helps them to realize that they can live lives that are changed by choosing to live for God. They can remember that each and every one of us are important to God and he wants us to share his healing with those who are hurting.

Family Time Challenge

▶ AWD Christmas Party

▶ Beth Beebe ▶ beth@stisidore.church

The spirit of Christmas came alive on December 6 at our annual Adults with Disabilities Christmas Party, where we welcomed well over 100 joyful attendees for an evening filled with food, fun, and games. Laughter and holiday cheer filled the air as guests enjoyed delicious refreshments and participated in a variety of activities designed to bring smiles and create lasting memories.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to all the amazing volunteers who helped make the night such a success. A special shoutout to Scott Payton, whose creativity and dedication brought some truly incredible and unique games to life, making the evening extra special for everyone. Also, our St. Isidore Knights of Columbus who provide the meal and refreshments for the evening.

Thank you to everyone who joined us in celebrating the season and creating a memorable event for our community. Look for details of our February, 2025 Sock Hop Event in future bulletins. (To get on our email distribution list, send an email to beth@stisidore.church.)

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Joy

Suggested Prayer: Dear Jesus, help us to focus on you during this busy season. May we stay aware of the joy you bring into our lives. We want to find you in the everyday moments and come with hearts of gratitude to your Manger on Christmas. Amen.

These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.

John 15:11

Did You Know? Spread the Joy This Advent

was!) The other things that stood out to me were the volume of my voice and how close my staff member and her husband were standing as I spoke. I left the funeral home, and as time passed, I felt worse and worse. I'm sure they must have heard me. Hadn't I (essentially) said that my busy life took precedence over being with them in a time of suffering? By God's grace, I came to see that "presence" can mean the world to people and that there is great value in just "showing up." I don't need to have the right words or solve all the world's problems. I can simply choose to love by "being there" for someone. When more is needed, I can choose the next, best step—one simple, doable step at a time. There is great joy in that knowledge.

On this Gaudete Sunday, when all of the readings point to God calling us to be joyful, may we all choose love amidst last-minute Christmas shopping clashes and holiday get-togethers with family (and others who push our buttons in this post-election climate). May our joy come from knowing that presence is often enough and that the next, doable step will present itself, bringing joy from any corresponding response. May we also know that relationships are more important than issues and that we can simply choose "presence" over arguing any point. As I see it, that interaction might sound something like this: "Uncle Bob, today is Christmas. I just want to think about how blessed we are to be celebrating God's gift of Jesus' birth with our family today. That other stuff can wait. Have I told you lately how much I love you?"

▶ O Come, O Come Emmanuel and the O Antiphons

 Amy Righi - Music & Liturgy Director amy@stisidore.church

Our gathering song this weekend, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" is a beloved Advent and Christmas hymn with a rich history rooted in the early traditions of the Christian Church. The text is based on the "O Antiphons," ancient prayers recited or chanted/sung during the last seven days of Advent. First written in Latin, "Veni, Veni, Emmanuel" condenses the O Antiphons into a hymn expressing longing and hope for the Messiah. Most of us Christians can probably hum this tune from memory as we grew up hearing it every Advent. Even as a child, I remember feeling the anticipation of Christmas expressed in its beautiful melody. Consider singing, speaking, or meditating this text as a part of your daily prayer time to share the prayer of these ancient texts prayed by those who have gone before us into the eternal kingdom of Christmas!

December 17 (O Sapientia)

O Wisdom of our God Most High, guiding creation with power and love: come to teach us the path of knowledge!

December 18 (O Adonai)

O Leader of the House of Israel, giver of the Law to Moses on Sinai: come to rescue us with your mighty power!

December 19 (O Radix Jesse)

O Root of Jesse's stem, sign of God's love for all his people: come to save us without delay!

December 20 (O Clavis David)

O Key of David opening the gates of God's eternal Kingdom: come and free the prisoners of darkness!

December 21 (O Oriens)

O Radiant Dawn,

splendor of eternal light, sun of justice: come and shine on those who dwell in darkness and in the shadow of death.

December 22 (O Rex Gentium)

O King of all nations and keystone of the Church: come and save man, whom you formed from the dust!

December 23 (O Emmanuel)

O Emmanuel, our King and Giver of Law: come to save us, Lord our God!
