EPIPHANY

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Amy Righi - Music & Liturgy Director 📧 amy@stisidore.church

The celebration of the Epiphany highlights a profound revelation: Christ came not only for the Jews but for all people, as shown by the visit of the Magi in Matthew 2:1-12. The Magi—outsiders and strangers from distant lands—were led to the Christ child by a star, representing the universal reach of God’s love. This moment invites us to see beyond the familiar and recognize the presence of Christ in every person, regardless of background or identity.

It is easy to see the face of Christ in the kind stranger, such as the generous grocery store employee who gives you credit for your recently expired coupon. The real challenge comes when we consider the irritating or threatening stranger—the one who doesn’t deserve our kindness. Is it a fellow shopper who gives you a dirty look or recklessly cuts you off in traffic? The “foreigner” who may or may not have a green card? Someone with a different skin color or religion? Perhaps this “stranger” is even a friend or family member who was estranged due to differing political or world views.

Fr. Ron Victor frron@stisidore.church

Today's "Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord" is the brightest feast of the Christmas Season as we celebrate that the salvation offered by Christ is for all peoples. The journey of the Magi shows that anyone who seeks the Lord with a sincere heart is acceptable to God. While we usually speak of the three Magi, scripture does not give us a true number. Because three gifts were offered, we imagine that there were three! There could have been more. And while we usually name them Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar, there is a good chance that they included at least one woman (perhaps Barbara!). When thinking of them as "wise men and women" the account may speak to us in new ways.

While gift-giving can reflect the negativity of commercialism, the Magi's gifts remind us that gift-giving is a good way of showing honor and love. May their example inspire the way we give gifts in the new year. Remember, the Christmas Season does not come to an end until next Sunday, January 12. Keep the carols playing, the lights shining, and the hospitality flowing throughout the season.

Merry Christmas,

Fr. Ron

What was more important for Christ: rules or relationships?

We are faced with daily opportunities (and challenges) to grow in relational maturity by choosing to recognize Christ in everyone. We are here to help and support one another—even the crabby, irritating strangers who threaten our peace. These difficult encounters can be embraced as training for us to become the best versions of ourselves: the people God created us to be. The best way we can achieve this goal is by setting a good example in our responses and interactions with all strangers.

The Magi were probably not all from the same country, and maybe some had even been enemies. Yet, their journey teaches us that Christ is not restrained by boundaries; He is revealed to all who seek Him. This universal call requires us to look beyond superficial differences and recognize Christ's image in the faces of those we may not initially understand or appreciate.

To see Christ in strangers is to see with the eyes of compassion, freely offering hospitality and love, just as the Magi did by bringing gifts to the child King. In addition, it is to live out this inclusion, opening ourselves to the radical hospitality that Christ demonstrated. If only we could all take a breath in prayer and seize every opportunity as a gift to share the richness of His grace with others.

As Victor Hugo's line from Les Misérables so powerfully captures, "To love another person is to see the face of God." Loving and welcoming the stranger allows us to encounter the divine. Just as the Magi's journey deepened their faith, seeing Christ in those who are different, unfamiliar, and challenging can transform our own hearts and expand our understanding of God's love.

► "Our" CIA - Monthly Update: Running Strong, Together!

👤 Bill Hicks - OCIA Coordinator 📧 ocia@stisidore.church

The 2024/2025 Disciples Unleashed Family of Parishes OCIA journey is starting to hit high gear!

While a good bit of the trip remains ahead of us our Catechumens (those converting to the faith) and Candidates (those on track to complete their Catholic Sacraments) are fully charged up and excited to continue on towards full initiation at the Easter Vigil.

Looking back on where we've been in 2024 while hopefully anticipating where 2025 will lead us, I feel tremendous gratitude to the many FoP staff and parishioners who have stepped up to support our brothers and sisters who are seeking to grow in their relationship to Christ and this wonderful faith community of ours. A few special shout outs are in order for Susan Ball and Geri Konon. These ladies cheerfully provide first rate hospitality each time we hold sessions at St. Isidore. When our travels take us to St. Therese, Nate Chevalier and Daniel Purifoy can always be counted on to be sure we have plenty of everything we need.

A word of thanks to St. Therese's Ginger Ernst as well as Karen and Dave Bisdorf at St. Isidore for helping us get our "Parish Sponsor" concept off the ground. Their presence was key to a very successful OCIA Movie Night we hosted in November. It will be exciting to see how the Parish Sponsor role might grow in the coming year!

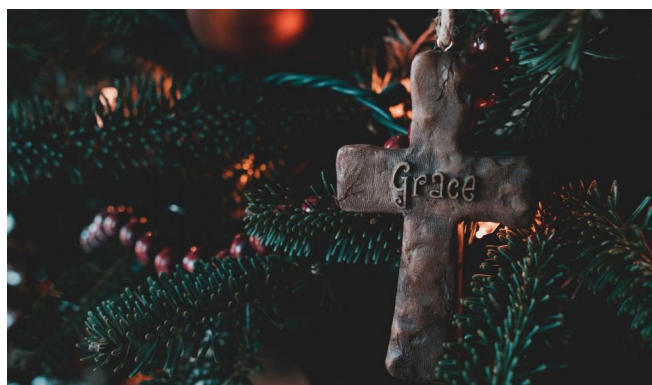

Finally, thanks to all who continue to remember "Our" CIA efforts in your prayers. Perhaps most importantly, kudos for sharing a friendly smile and offering words of encouragement to those who are on the journey of a lifetime.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Three wise men came to visit the baby Jesus and brought him special gifts fit for a king. They also brought news to warn Joseph of King Herod. The gospel message helps us remember that God is always there to protect us.

Family Time Fun

This Epiphany Sunday take time to bless your home with the special Epiphany blessing provided in the bulletin or from the small piece of paper you can find in the gathering space at all Masses this weekend.

▶ Christmas Giving Tree - Thank You

👤 Christmas Giving Tree Committee

Thank you to all those who returned envelopes to help our charities this year. No gift is ever too small or too large. This year, we were able to help adults and children as well as helping Nativity Church, Turning Point., Baby Pantry, SVdP, and Mary's Children. I can tell you that after I spoke with the charities about your generosity and as they received their envelope of gift cards, they were very grateful. The gift cards enabled them to buy Christmas gifts, food, and supplies for their children and families. Times are difficult today with high inflation and for these families or single moms it changed their Christmas! This is what makes our program so rewarding and your generosity so heartfelt! Thank you so much for being the wonderful St. Isidore community you are! The love of Jesus came to each of these households in the form of your gifts. God Bless you!

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Bless Our Homes

Suggested Prayer: House blessing for the New Year

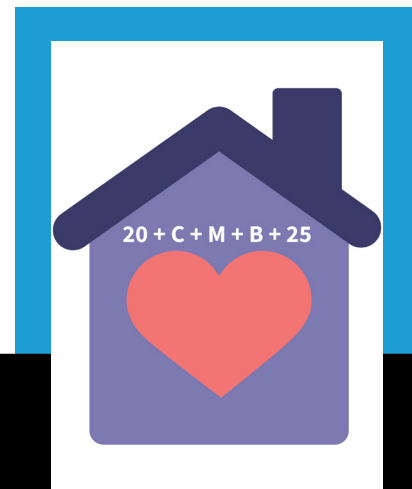

Bless, O Lord God Almighty, this home, that there may be health, purity, the strength of victory, humility, goodness and mercy, the fulfillment of your law, the thanksgiving to God the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. And may this blessing remain upon this home and upon all who dwell herein.

Suggested Activity: Chalk blessing on Feast of Epiphany, Jan. 6. (See DID YOU KNOW? article below.)

But whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house.'

Luke 10:5

Did You Know? Catholic House Blessing 20 + C M + B + 25

On the Feast of the Epiphany, Jan. 6th, you can choose to chalk the outside of the house or above the front door with the letters C+M+B and the current year (see above). The letters stand for the Latin words Christus Mansionen Benedicat, which means "May Christ bless this dwelling."

The letters also represent the names of the three Magi, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. The plus sign or cross represents the cross, and the year represents the New Year. Leave the markings on the door all year.

► Prayer Blanket and Shawl Comfort Crafters Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the church office during normal business hours and after all Sunday morning Masses.

We will have many opportunities in 2025 to love those with daily problems. If we turn our backs on the sick and the lonely, there is strong evidence that Christ has not made much difference in our lives.

Thank you to all who have donated three full skeins of the same yarn, money, and gift cards to help our Comfort Crafter's ministry.

We are grateful to all who help us spread the love of Jesus by giving one of our ministry's blankets or shawls to a person who needs prayers and comfort.

Suggestion for 2025: As you read the bulletin, search the sick list for the name of anyone you know. Personally deliver one of our handmade blankets or shawls to that person. We have many testimonies from recipients who tell us how comforted they are with the gift of prayer and warmth.

Thank you! God bless you,
The Comfort Crafters

► Baby Pantry Request List

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church 586-745-9501

Happy New Year to all! Your Giving Tree donations to the Baby Pantry were astounding. There are no adequate words to express our true gratitude. Thank you for those donations. Your gifts for our Baby Pantry moms were overwhelming. God Bless you!

Jesus told us to love one another. How do we do that? Well... each of us can use the gifts we receive from God for the good of others. There are many people who need us. Let's use every chance God gives us to love others.

Many people have very little money and say persistent prayers to God that seem to go unanswered. God hears those requests, and, perhaps, sends us on the mission to fulfill those needs. If we hear a prompting from the Spirit to assist, that could be God answering those persistent prayers of the needy.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO DONATE:

- Size 6 diapers
- Size 7 diapers
- Size 8 diapers
- Breast feeding pads

Thank you for your help and support.

What does love look like? It has hands to help others. It has feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of humankind. That is what love looks like.

St. Augustine of Hippo

It has been an uncertain time but you have continually supported what we do with your prayers, very generous cash donations to help our neighbors in need to pay behind rent and utilities, and additionally support our pantry. It is obvious to see the love and hope in our parishioners hearts. Thank you for looking up to where God leads us.

Please keep our pantry list in mind as you shop in stores or online this week. Our needs are:

- Cash Donations - Blue Envelopes at Church entrances
- $25 Gift Cards – Walmart, Meijer, Kroger
- Laundry Detergent
- Pump Hand Soap
- Deodorant (unscented if possible)
- Toilet Paper
- Paper Towel
- Chunky Soup
- Spaghetti-O's
- Canned Pasta with meat
- Pouches – Mashed Potatoes
- Helpers – Tuna
- Canned Tuna
- Cookies

SVdP has concluded another “season” of Meijer “Simply Give” program. Thank you so much for purchasing so many $10 cards. Our next “season” will begin in April. The Harvest Bulletin will bring more information very soon.

SVdP wishes our St. Isidore community a healthy and prosperous New Year. Thank you for the collective efforts in 2024 of our church community, business partners, and Vincentians, who bring hope and relief to struggling families. We couldn't do this without you!
