CONNECTING POINT

 Elaine Rhein - St. Francis / St. Maximilian  elaine.rhein@gmail.com

The first thing that came to mind when I read this Connecting Point question was the famous Dunkin' Donuts advertisement from the 1980s with the half-awake, bushy-mustached gentleman shuffling off to work, muttering, "Time to make the donuts." Even though I'm retired now, I still remember mornings like that—dragging myself to work, knowing the day would bring deadlines, unexpected emergencies, unhappy clients, and the added weight of personal matters and family schedules. The list of daily responsibilities often feels endless.

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation, when Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord. In the temple, Simeon and Anna recognized this small baby as the long-awaited salvation of the Jewish people. How did they see Jesus for who He was? Scripture tells us that they were righteous, devout, and prayerful. But they were also attentive to God's word, as in Malachi 3:1: "Thus says the Lord God: Lo, I am sending my messenger..."

As Christians, we are also called to

Fr. Ron Victor frron@stisidore.church

At a recent meeting, the Worship Committee discussed our scheduled times to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Those times are during the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 7:00 AM to the beginning of Mass on the First Friday of the month, and 3:15 on Saturday afternoons. Instead of providing additional scheduled times, I encourage you to call and make an appointment with me to celebrate the Sacrament. By making an appointment, we can take more time to fully celebrate the Sacrament, including reflection on a Scripture passage, which the rite calls for. You won't have to "wait in line" or be rushed because others are waiting. In any case, we encourage you to celebrate the Sacrament as needed.

While there are other means of seeking forgiveness for sins, the Rite of Reconciliation allows us to acknowledge the ecclesial nature of our sins (that our sins also affect the community) and receive the community's forgiveness, as the priest represents the community.

Plus it is a humble but powerful experience to name our sins to another person, and to actually hear God's forgiveness through the prayer of absolution. Don't worry about knowing exactly how to "go to Confession," the priest will always guide you. Also, writing out what you want to confess beforehand is a good practice.

Blessings!

▶ Connecting Point (cont'd)

recognize Christ in the daily grind of our lives. Being righteous, devout, and prayerful is essential, but our attitudes matter, as well. If we approach life like the donut maker, as if everything is "ho-hum" and "woe is me," we might struggle to see Christ in anything—or anyone. Instead, we should look for Christ in the small things. For me, that might be the sound of a child's laughter, a parent's simple act of affection toward their child, or even a friendly "good morning" from a stranger. These small moments are often where Christ reveals Himself.

When I find myself stuck in a pessimistic mood, I also turn to the refrain of a popular hymn based on Psalm 91: "Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble. Be with me, Lord, I pray." These words help me refocus my thoughts and shift from cynicism to gratitude for God's countless gifts.

As we endure these cold, dreary Michigan days, let me leave you with this thought: The next time the sun shines brightly, take a moment to sit in its warmth as if it were a hug from God. It's the perfect time to have a chat with Him!

► "Our" CIA - Monthly Update

Bill Hicks | ocia@stisidore.church

My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

John 10:27

Knowing the Shepherd's Voice

Sometimes the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) curricula can seem as much a math class as a spiritual journey. Just consider: 73 books in the Bible, 12 Apostles, 4 Gospels, 10 Commandments, 8 Beatitudes. That's quite a list and it doesn't even include "the big 7's" (sacraments, deadly sins, corporal and spiritual works of mercy, and gifts of the Holy Spirit).

Without a doubt, one can point out a lot of "facts and figures" when trying to communicate the fullness of our Catholic faith. But, at the end of the day - knowing the Master's voice and responding to His call is the ultimate destination.

To that end, all through January our Catechumens and Candidates have focused on what it means to live a Christ-like life. Reflecting on the 10 Commandments, the Beatitudes, and the Church's teachings on moral living and social justice, presented a clear image of how to embrace Jesus' call to holiness.

As we continue on towards the Lenten season each of our weekly OCIA sessions will focus on the day's Gospel reading and how we are being challenged to hear and follow our Shepherd's voice.

Next month, we'll provide a glimpse of the Rite of Sending and the Rite of Election that begin the final run-up to Easter joy and the conferring of the Sacraments of Initiation for our brothers and sisters in Christ. Please keep them in your prayers.

▶ The Jubilee Prayer

Amy Righi amy@stisidore.church

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Being Present With the Lord

Suggested Prayer: Meditate and pray the 4th decade of the Joyful Mysteries, The Presentation in the Temple.

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord").

Luke 2:22-23

▶ Men - Read This!

We all have busy schedules and it's sometimes difficult to fit in individual prayer time, let alone small group prayer and discussion. If that's your situation, or you're just looking for a Catholic men's group, this might be for you. St. Isidore Church has a men's scripture based group that meets every Tuesday morning virtually at 6:30 AM. The discussion focuses on the readings for the upcoming weekend, but also can move to other topics, if that's where the Spirit leads. The best part, outside of time with like-minded men and growing in your faith... the virtual gathering lasts no more than 45 minutes and there's no homework! For more information, contact Chris Kozlowski at 586-286-1700 or chris@stisidore.church.

Did You Know? The Presentation in the Temple

The fourth joyful mystery of the rosary's importance is rooted in the importance of the temple for Ancient Israel, Divinity and humanity embraced, and the human race was brought back on line with God. Whenever someone offered sacrifice in the temple, he was turning his life, his mind, his will back to God. He was becoming "reconciled" ("eyelash to eyelash," from the Latin cilia) with the Lord. But the sins of the nation had, according to the prophet Ezekiel, caused the glory of the Lord to depart from the temple. Therefore, one of the deepest aspirations of Israel's people was to reestablish the temple as a place of right praise so that the glory of God might return.

When Joseph and Mary bring the infant Jesus into the temple, therefore, we are meant to appreciate that the prophecy of Ezekiel is being fulfilled. The glory of the Lord has returned to his temple. (Bishop Robert Baron)

► "Comfort Crafters" Prayer Blanket/ Shawl Ministry

Pat Schmeiser | babypantry@stisidore.church | 586-745-9501

Please visit the church office to receive a free blanket or shawl for someone you know who needs comfort for any reason. These "hand-made by our ministry" items are available during normal office business hours and after Sunday morning Masses.

Our blankets and shawls are carefully created by a great group of women who hope you will participate in their mission of reaching out to people who need comfort for any reason. How can you participate in this mission? It's easily done. Simply bring one of our free-to-you blankets or shawls to someone you know.

If we truly care about and reach out to others, we might increase their feeling of self-worth. This is what our Lord asks each of us to do. Do you have a relative or friend dealing with a health issue or any crisis, problem or disruption in their life? How about a gift for that person? Please get a prayer blanket or shawl for that someone you know who needs comfort.

God comforts, not to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters.

John Henry Jowett

Thank you from "The Comfort Crafters"
