Simon Peter's act of trust in Jesus, despite his doubts, teaches us an important lesson about which voices we choose to listen to in our own lives. This weekend in Luke's Gospel, Simon had every reason to doubt Jesus' instruction to lower the nets again. He was an experienced fisherman who had already tried and failed all night. He was likely exhausted and discouraged. Yet, instead of listening to the voice of doubt that said, "You're not good enough" or the voice of despair that whispered, "Just give up," he chose to listen to the voice of Jesus. His willingness to obey led to an overwhelming, miraculous catch—more than he ever imagined possible.

Like Simon, we are surrounded by many voices every day. Some voices discourage us, telling us, "It's too late to change" or "Everyone else is doing it"—voices that try to pull us away from God's path. These voices can be loud and convincing, especially when we feel weary, unworthy, or trapped by past mistakes. But Jesus calls us to trust Him, even when His direction seems difficult or when we feel unqualified. He speaks to our hearts, saying, "You've got this," "I have a

► What is Desertification?

👤 Social Justice Committee

Desertification is the process of vegetation decreases or disappears in the deserts or drylands.

Desertification is a process of degradation of the land. The land mass at the southern end of the Sahara desert in Africa is the most endangered desert currently on earth. The Great Plains in the United States are at risk for desertification. This is due to intensive agriculture and land degradation, along with the drought of April 2024.

A few reasons for desertification are removing the natural vegetation (for example cutting too much fuel wood) and over grazing by animals. This causes soil erosion and dryness. This can also be caused by drought, climate change and improper agriculture. Thus, causing the land to turn into deserts, losing its flora and fauna.

Here are ways to restore the land and halt some of the desertification:

- Make agriculture sustainable.
- Protect the pollinators.
- Restore freshwater ecosystems.
- Renew coastal and marine areas.
- Bring nature back to cities.
- Generate financing for restoration.
- Planting trees.
- Rotating crops.
- Using water retention techniques such as building retention ditches and cut-off drains.

The United States is supporting the UN Convention to Combat Desertification (UNCCD) in its global efforts to reduce land degradation, increase land restoration, and build resilience to drought. We are working with the UNCCD, allies, and partners to prevent desertification, engage in reforestation, and tackle soil erosion.

It really is up to us to save God's beautiful planet!! We helped to destroy it, now it is time to clean up our act!

plan for you,” and “You’re stronger than you think.” His voice reminds us that we are not alone, that He is leading us toward something greater.

In the first reading the prophet Isaiah also faced a moment of doubt. He encountered the glory of God and felt unworthy, saying, “Woe is me! I am a man of unclean lips.” But the voice of the Lord called him beyond his fear, cleansing and strengthening him for his mission. When God asked, “Whom shall I send?” Isaiah did not hesitate—he answered, “Here I am. Send me!” Like Simon, Isaiah had to silence the voices of inadequacy and fear to respond to God’s call.

Jesus calls each of us to trust Him, even when we feel weak or uncertain. The world’s voices may try to convince us otherwise, but His voice is the one that leads to life, hope, and abundance. May we learn to recognize and trust the voice of Jesus in our hearts, knowing that He will never lead us astray.

▶ Cor - Men's Ministry

👤 Dennis Jarzombek 📞 586-838-8500

The Knights of Council 7200 are excited to share the implementation of Cor, a formation and fraternal opportunity for the men of the parish.

To thrive as a faithful Catholic, every Catholic man needs an active and growing relationship with God, to intentionally invest in his formation and prayer life, and to build friendships that will sharpen him and hold him accountable to a life of holiness and virtue.

Cor is designed for this purpose. It exists to form and strengthen Catholic men in faith and virtue as missionary disciples by drawing them into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, formation, and fraternity. The name "Cor", which is Latin for heart, was chosen because our faith, our relationship with God, and our formation begin with and reside in the heart.

I am personally excited about this opportunity to dive deeper into my faith with my brothers in this parish. We have the opportunity to get to know each other better, and with each other's support, to grow in holiness and become better men. To become a better husband and father, a better brother and son.

To be clear this opportunity and invitation is not just for Knights. Cor is open to all men of the parish.

Upcoming programs include:

- The Family in the Modern World
- Lord, Teach Us to Pray
- The Gift of Fatherhood
- Becoming a Real Man of God
- Prayer Time

We meet at 7:00 PM on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of the month in the Resource Center. No registration is necessary, just bring your bible with you when you attend.

I hope to see you there.

▶ Teen Mission Trip

An open invitation to teens in grades 9-12, college students, and adults willing to help.

- Build and share your faith
- Help those in need
- Learn some cool skills
- Have fun

Join us and Group Mission Trips for the 2025 Teen Home Repair Mission Trip in Pewaukee, Wisconsin July 20-26!

Teen Home Repair Mission Trips focus on home repairs for elderly, disabled, or financially challenged families. The types of home repair projects range from painting, to building decks and wheelchair ramps, and other general home repairs, but the service projects often are secondary to the spiritual growth that happens when teenagers step out of their own worlds and serve those in need. Beyond the physical transformation that happens in communities, teenagers bring the hope and light of Jesus to the residents they serve.

If there's a teenager, college student, or adult in your family or neighborhood that would like to learn these skills, benefit from personal and spiritual growth, lead others, build out a resume, or just have fun helping others while expressing their faith, please help us connect with them.

Registration deadline is Friday, February 28, 2025.

Sweat equity opportunities to offset the cost of the trip started in January! Sign up is required.

A Pastoral Note to Migrants from the Catholic Bishops in Michigan

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We, the Roman Catholic Bishops in Michigan, write to offer our continued pastoral and prayerful support for migrant individuals and families who over the course of time have entered the country and today are making a living in this state. Our fraternal closeness to you and other immigrants, refugees, and those seeking humanitarian asylum is rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, where we find “I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me... Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me” (Matthew 25:35,40).

We hear and empathize with families across the state who express anxiety and fear over mass deportations and harmful rhetoric that broadly demeans our immigrant brothers and sisters. As shepherds of our flocks, we pledge amid such uncertainty to promote through the Michigan Catholic Conference and in our respective dioceses unyielding support and respect for the human dignity of all migrant people in our midst.

We urge our elected officials to support policies that keep immigrant and undocumented families safe and united, and to protect those who arrived as children. We call on the Michigan congressional delegation to work for a humane immigration system that welcomes refugees and immigrants by providing a fair pathway to citizenship; one that also keeps borders safe and secure from criminal activity, including human trafficking and the smuggling of illegal drugs.

Mindful of the dire conditions from which many travel, oftentimes with children through great difficulty and despair, we encourage you, our migrant brothers and sisters, to be strengthened by our Lord’s words “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you... Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid” (John 14:27). Never fail to keep your faith and hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, who promises a divine kingdom that we strive to inherit and together call our true home.

With abundant love and trust, we ask Our Lady of Guadalupe to hear the cries of the suffering and offer to her maternal compassion and protection all who seek her heavenly intercession.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What does the Church say about illegal immigration and undocumented migrants?

The Catholic Church affirms the rule of law and encourages the use of lawful immigration pathways. The Church does not encourage unnecessary or irregular migration. “Ideally, unnecessary migration ought to be avoided; this entails creating in countries of origin the conditions needed for a dignified life and integral development” (Fratelli tutti, no. 129). The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that “immigrants are obliged to respect with gratitude the material and spiritual heritage of the country that receives them, to obey its laws and to assist in carrying civic burdens” (No. 2241).

Does the Catholic Church advocate for “open borders”?

No. The Catechism clearly states that political authorities “may make the exercise of the right to immigrate subject to various juridical conditions” (No. 2241). This includes a sovereign country’s right to regulate and secure its borders. The Church does maintain, however, that this right must always be balanced with the duty to welcome newcomers with charity and respect for the human person, as well as the rights to life and religious liberty.

What is the Church’s perspective on federal immigration reform and “mass deportations”?

As recognized by the Church for decades, the current immigration system is inadequate to address the needs of American families, employers, and communities, as well as immigrants themselves. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has consistently supported increased opportunities for legal immigration and the protection for immigrants’ due process rights, while opposing an enforcement-only approach to immigration.

Further, enforcement actions should be targeted, proportionate, and humane, and deportations and other enforcement actions should always be carried out with due regard for families, community ties, and religious liberty interests. In its most recent message on immigration, the USCCB stated that the country's immigration system should be one that:

- Offers fair and generous pathways to full citizenship for immigrants living and working for many years within this country.
- Keeps borders safe and secure, with enforcement policies that focus on those who present dangers to society, particularly efforts to reduce gang activity, stem the flow of drugs, and end human trafficking.

- Provides permanent relief for childhood arrivals, helps families stay together, and welcomes refugees.
- Serves as an effective asylum system for those fleeing persecution and protects vulnerable migrants and their families, many of whom have already been victimized by criminal actors.

Why do Catholic organizations serve people who enter the U.S. without authorization?

Faithful to Jesus' mandate to "welcome the stranger," Catholic-affiliated organizations provide basic human needs to migrants because all people are made in God's image and likeness and inherently possess human dignity. There is no evidence or research indicating that the humanitarian and religious services provided by Catholic organizations incentivize unlawful migration, as there are varied and often complex factors that influence a person's decision to migrate from their home country, including war, persecution, violence, lack of jobs, famines, and natural disasters.

Visit usccb.org/migrationministries for more FAQs and to learn how the Church serves migrants.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Modeling the Holy Family

Suggested Prayer: The Holy Family Prayer

Jesus, Son of God and son of Mary, bless our family. Graciously inspire in us the unity, peace, and mutual love that you found in your own family in the little town of Nazareth.

Mary, Mother of Jesus and Our Mother, nourish our family with your faith and your love. Keep us close to your Son, Jesus, in all our sorrows and joys.

Joseph, Foster-father to Jesus, guardian and spouse of Mary, keep our family safe from harm. Help us in all times of discouragement or anxiety.

Holy Family of Nazareth, make our family one with you. Help us to be instruments of peace. Grant that love, strengthened by grace, may prove mightier than all the weaknesses and trials through which our families sometimes pass. May we always have God as the center of our hearts and homes until we are all one family, happy and at peace in our true home with you. Amen.

Did You Know? Imitation of the Holy Family

The Holy Family models for us what family life should exemplify. It is the school of virtue for both parents and children. There we find God, and learn how to connect with God and others. The family is where love is freely given without self-interest. It is where we learn to love, to pray, and to practice the gift of charity.

We should ask ourselves if our own families model that of the Holy Family. We need to be open to God's grace to value the positive and to accept our mistakes and to be willing to rectify them. Parenting is a very challenging responsibility and at times errors are made despite the best intentions. Recognizing this, children should trust their parents and never forget that parents want only what is best for them.

The health of our family may depend on how quickly we learn to forgive without harboring feelings of resentment. No family can thrive and grow without constant work. It is also important to pray as a family just as Jesus, Mary, and Joseph did in their home in Nazareth. Prayer will help us intensify our closeness with each other and to learn to forgive. During this month of February let's be keenly aware of how we can best love our families.

Love of self, neighbor and God are not three separate and distinct forms of loving. Learning to love one's neighbor is, at the same time, learning to love God. The love we hold for ourselves deepens as we allow our neighbor and God more and more to come into our hearts.

Fr. James Stephen Behrens, O.C.S.O.

It will be Valentine's Day soon. This week, each day, put a smile on the face of someone by giving them a gentle word of encouragement or a helping hand. A hug might help too. Simple acts of kindness deepen our love for one another. Happy Valentine's Day!
