CONNECTING POINT

👤 Matt Kush - Director of Engagement 📧 matt@stisidore.church

It's easy to say, "I'm blessed." We say it when things are going well—when life feels stable, our needs are met, and we're surrounded by people we love. But do you ever stop and think about how blessed you really are? Do you recognize how quickly life can change?

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes, but He also issues a warning—the "woes." These aren't meant to be negative statements but, rather, wake-up calls. When Jesus says, "Woe to you," He is really saying, "Watch out!" He's reminding us that the things we may take for granted, like wealth, comfort, or popularity, can disappear in an instant.

If you base your sense of blessing only on what you have, what happens when those things are gone? In addition, focusing only on your struggles risks missing the bigger picture—God's presence and the deeper blessings that don't fade away.

The Beatitudes challenge us to see blessings differently. Blessed are the poor, the hungry, the weeping—

Fr. Ron Victor frron@stisidore.church

Following the 11:30 Mass today (Sunday, February 16), we will celebrate a service in which we will dedicate our parish to the "Sacred Heart of Jesus." Interestingly Pope Francis' recent pastoral letter, "Dilexit Nos." ("He Loves Us"), is a beautiful reflection on the important role the heart plays in our lives, and on the benefits of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I encourage you to take the time to download and read this inspiring letter (QR Code link at end of this article). Pope Francis points out that the heart balances our reason, and integrates our personality. The heart is the locus of our passions, our strengths, our love, and perhaps, our hatred. He cites many philosophers and saints in sharing with us the importance of the heart. As Pope Francis points out, the "Sacred Heart of Jesus" reminds us that Jesus was fully human. He had a physical heart like all of us. God loves us with a human heart. Pope Francis writes: "Devotion to Christ's heart is essential for our Christian life to the extent that it expresses our openness in faith and adoration to the mystery of the Lord's divine and human love." Pope Francis reminds us that we are not obliged to believe the various visions and promises saints, who encouraged devotion to the Sacred Heart, have expressed as though they were the word of God. Yet, they can encourage our devotion to the Sacred Heart. (83) As the Holy Eucharist is a personal encounter with the human and divine Christ, so is the contemplation of the image of the Sacred Heart. Pope Francis writes: "The venerable image portraying Christ holding out his loving heart also shows him looking directly at us, inviting us to encounter, dialogue and trust; it shows his strong hands capable of supporting us and his lips that speak personally to each of us." (54) It is the entire person of Christ that we encounter, not just his loving heart.

Blessings,
Fr. Ron

not because suffering is good, but because God is present in it. Being truly blessed isn't about having a perfect life; it's about knowing that God is constant, no matter what happens. He is our source of joy, peace, and strength, even when life gets hard.

So, how can you focus on your blessings instead of your struggles? Maybe it's by shifting your perspective to see what you have—not what you lack. Perhaps it's by finding gratitude, even in the challenges. Still, maybe it's by remembering that no matter what changes, God never does.

This week, take a moment to pause, notice the blessings in your life, and trust that God is walking with you in everything.

David Lynn, Troop #248

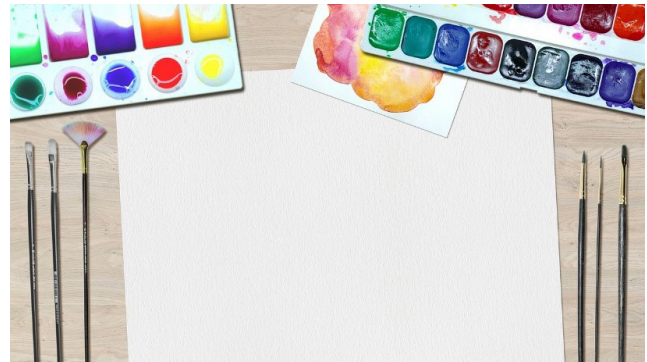

Congratulations to Matthew Majchrzak of Troop #248, who has earned the Ad Altare Dei Emblem, a Catholic honor that helps Scouts deepen their faith by exploring the Seven Sacraments and their role in daily life. The program emphasizes service to God and community, requiring months of study with a Certified Diocesan Counselor and a final Board of Review.

This achievement reflects a strong commitment to faith and service. Thank you to those who served on the Board of Review in support of our Scout's journey.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Lord reminds us that those who are “blessed” are “happy” and those in “woe” are “unhappy.” Remember the Lord wishes us to be “blessed” always.

Family Time Fun

Be creative this weekend with your families. Take some time to create special placemats to use for dinnertime with messages of hope and praise to the Lord. Consider making some extras to give to a local Assisted Living Facility.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Adoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus

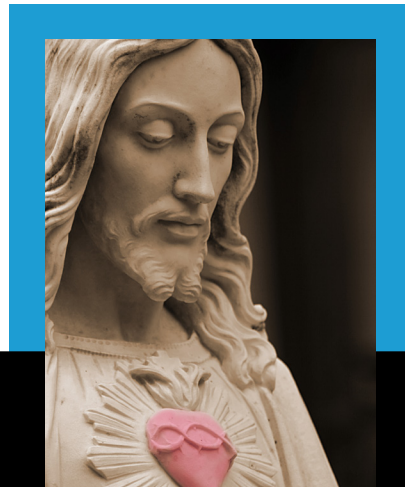

Suggested Prayer: O Most Holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore You, I love You and with a lively sorrow for my sins, I offer You this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to your will.

Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in You and for You. Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort me in my afflictions; give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessings on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

Just as we might view the birth of Jesus as the arrival of God's love and light into a world grown cold and dark through sin, so we might view the growth of the devotion to the Sacred Heart as a response to the world grown cold though the religious confusion and a popular heresy of the time.

Fr. Donald Miller, OFM (1945-2017)

Did You Know? Sacred Heart of Jesus

On December 27, 1673, Jesus is reported to have said these words to St. Margaret Mary Aloccoque, "My Divine Heart is so passionately in love with humanity that it can no longer contain within itself the flames of its ardent love. It must pour them out." The following year, Margaret had two other visions. In the first, Jesus's heart was on a throne enveloped in flames brighter than the sun and more transparent than crystal, surrounded by a crown of thorns. In the other, she saw Christ shining in glory. Flames of fire were coming out of every part of his chest to the point that it looked like a furnace." Additionally, Jesus asked that Catholics receive Holy Communion on the first Fridays of the month and adore Him in the Holy Eucharist. Friday is significant, of course, because it is the day of Our Lord's crucifixion by which he offered himself for our redemption in a supreme act of love.

► "Comfort Crafters" Prayer Blanket/Shawl Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church 586-745-9501

Prayer blankets and shawls are available at no cost in the church office.

We serve the God who loves us in our service to those needing comfort.

What a great gift these blankets and shawls are as a reminder to a person that they are continually remembered in prayer. Let us give the prayer we have in our hearts to someone with a blanket or shawl.

It is incredible... yes, incredible, how bringing someone a blanket or shawl provides great constant comfort. All blankets and shawls are wrapped with ribbon and bows and have prayers for the recipient attached.

Thank you for your participation!

Your donations of baby items will help us assist low-income families and spread the love of Jesus.

Currently we need:

- Diapers - size 5
- New, with tags on, Size 12 month girl clothes
- New books for toddlers (ages 1-4)

► K of C Breakfast - Thank You

👤 Brian McAleer

St. Isidore Church: Thank you for your attendance and donations at the February 2nd pancake breakfast. We had an incredible turnout, especially after the 7:30 and 9:30 Masses, totaling 244 people; the most ever for a pancake breakfast. With your help and support, the money we were able to raise will be used for the benefit of others. We hope you enjoyed the food and the fellowship of this breakfast. It was very nice sharing breakfast with you. As always, your generosity and continued support of our events is greatly appreciated, as our efforts would be fruitless without your involvement. We pray that you have a prayerful and blessed Lent and Easter season. We hope to see you at church during the Lenten Fish Fry and at our next Pancake Breakfast on May 18th. God Bless You and Yours. Knights of Columbus - Council 7200.
