THE 7TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

How can I find the good in people I may not like?

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Fr. Ron Victor ↗ frron@stisidore.church

Let's admit it: we all have people in our lives we do not like. And there are people who don't like us. "Liking" is an emotion. We do not have much control over our emotions. We cannot just decide to like somebody. But we can decide to find the good in people we may not like. We can decide to love them in spite of "not liking" them.

In our first reading this Sunday, David has an opportunity to kill King Saul. Saul has led an army of one thousand soldiers out to find David and kill him. (It seems like they REALLY do not like each other!) But David, who respects Saul as "God's Anointed," refuses to harm him. He finds the inherent good in Saul.

Each one of us is anointed by God. God has made it that there is inherent good in every one of us. We must look beyond our "dislikes" and find the good, even in our enemies. The word "respect" comes from the same word as "spectacles:" We respect, or see, the inherent good of every one.

I have inherited my father's dislike for "arrogant" people. Arrogance really

▶ Welcoming Our New Archbishop

With great joy, we welcome Archbishop-elect Edward J. Weisenburger as the sixth Archbishop of Detroit! Appointed by Pope Francis, he succeeds Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron, who has faithfully served our archdiocese since 2009. Archbishop-elect Weisenburger will be installed on March 18 at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Archbishop-elect Weisenburger, 64, comes to us from the Diocese of Tucson, Arizona, where he has served as bishop since 2017. Originally from Oklahoma, he was ordained a priest in 1987 and later earned a Licentiate in Canon Law. Over the years, he has served in many leadership roles, including vice chancellor, vicar general, and bishop of Salina, Kansas. His episcopal motto, "Behold the Lamb of God," reflects his deep faith and commitment to guiding the Church.

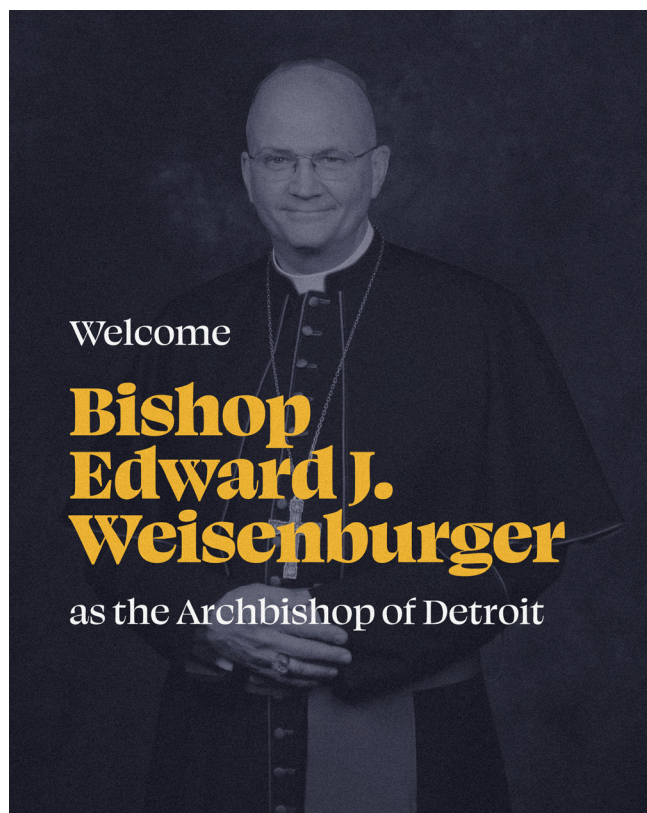

In his message to the faithful of Detroit, he shared, "I am humbled to be called to serve such a noble Church, known for its rich history, vibrant ministries, and dedicated clergy and laity." Archbishop Vigneron also extended a warm welcome, saying, "On behalf of all the people of God in the Archdiocese of Detroit, I extend to Archbishop Weisenburger a heartfelt welcome to his new home."

As we prepare to embrace our new shepherd, let us keep Archbishop-elect Weisenburger in our prayers. May the Holy Spirit guide him as he leads our archdiocese into the future, continuing the mission of evangelization and service to Christ.

We also extend our gratitude to Archbishop Vigneron for his years of faithful leadership and ask for God's blessings upon him in his retirement.

Let us join together in prayer and celebration as we welcome Archbishop-elect Weisenburger to Detroit!

▶ Connecting Point (cont'd)

turns me off. So I must really struggle at times to look beyond the arrogance and find the inherent good that God has placed in arrogant and self-centered people. I pray for them. I try to spend energy and time on them. The better I get to know them, the better able I am to see the good in people I may not like. It is a challenge. It takes effort. I often fail. But I try. Jesus has told me to!

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Intercession of Martyrs

Suggested Prayer: Prayer to St. Stephen the Martyr

Dear St. Stephen the Martyr, we humbly ask for your Intercession and guidance as we face the trials and challenges of our daily lives. May your steadfast faith and courage inspire us to persevere in our own struggles, and may we follow your example of forgiveness and love towards all those who may oppose us. Amen.

We do not pray for the martyrs as we pray for those others, rather, they pray for us, that we may follow in their footsteps.

St. Augustine, Bishop (354-430 A.D.)

Did You Know? St. Polycarp, Bishop of Smyrna and Martyr

St. Polycarp was born between 69 and 70 A.D. of Christian parents. He learned the teachings of Christ directly from the Apostles and became a disciple of St. John the Evangelist. Irenaeus, who was his pupil and then Bishop of Lyon, and the historian, Eusebius of Caesarea, write of him thus, "Polycarp was not only educated by the Apostles and lived with many who had seen the Lord, but it was the Apostles who sent him to Asia as Bishop of the Church of Smyrna; there preserving the doctrine, spreading the Gospel among pagans, and fighting heresies. Described by Irenaeus as a patient and lovable preacher, Polycarp had great solicitude for widows and slaves. When he was 86 years old and under the persecution of Christians by Emperor Antonio's Pius, the Proconsul urged him to recant his faith, cursing the Christ so he would be freed. Polycarp replied: "I have served Him for 86 years, and he has done me no harm. How could I curse my King who saved me? ... Listen clearly: I am a Christian". He remained unharmed from the flames as they attempted to burn him at the stake. Finally he was killed by the sword. He was martyred on February 23, 155.

► K of C Vocations Pasta Dinner - Thank You

👤 Brian McAleer

K of C Council 7200 recently hosted a Vocations Pasta Dinner fundraiser here at St. Isidore. Seminarians Charles Tackman and Matthew Harazin from Sacred Heart Major Seminary visited and spent the evening with fellow parishioners, family, and friends. The attendees enjoyed a wonderful dinner and listened to both seminarians discuss their calling by God and their anticipated visitations to the European shrines of Saints. Thank you to everyone who participated or volunteered, and for your donations. Your generosity made this a very worthwhile event. Vivat Jesus! (Jesus lives!)

► Baby Pantry Request List

👤 Pat Schmeiser 📧 babypantry@stisidore.church 📞 586-745-9501

Also over 75 packs of wipes, numerous bottles of lotion, shampoo, baby wash, diaper rash ointments, clothes, books, and lots of miscellaneous items. We constantly need donations. We are sure our parishioners are the most generous in the Archdiocese of Detroit. You

Right now we really need:

- Size 7 diapers
- Girls size 3T- 4T pull-ups
- Baby shampoo
- Baby wash
