PALM SUNDAY

CONNECTING POINT

Chris Piebiak - Director of Family Ministry chrisp@stol.church

Palm Sunday begins Holy Week with a striking contrast—Jesus is welcomed into Jerusalem with cheers and palm branches, but by the end of the week, those same crowds call for His crucifixion. The readings this coming weekend, especially the Passion narrative from Luke, invite us to pause and reflect on Jesus' humility through it all.

Though He is the Son of God, Jesus chooses to ride into the city on a donkey—not on a horse with soldiers accompanying Him, but in peace and simplicity. Later, as He is betrayed, denied, beaten, and crucified, He never lashes out. Instead, He prays for forgiveness for those who hurt Him. That is humility.

So, how can we live that out in our own small ways?

Humility doesn't mean thinking less of ourselves; it means thinking of ourselves less. It's choosing to listen before speaking. It's being willing to admit when we're wrong or when we don't have all the answers. It's noticing the needs of others—even in small ways, like letting someone go ahead in line or offering a smile when someone looks down.

In conversations, humility might look like asking questions instead of jumping to conclusions. At work or school, it might be sharing credit or offering help without needing recognition. At home, it might mean apologizing first or forgiving quickly.

Jesus shows us that humility isn't weakness—it's strength under control. This Holy Week, as we walk with Him to the cross, let's ask ourselves: Where can I choose to be more humble? During my day, how can I make room for others and God?

Small acts of humility, repeated often, shape us and open our hearts to love more like Christ—gently, patiently, and with grace.

Bring Your Bells

Amy Righi - Music & Liturgy Director

Bring a handbell from home to Holy Thursday and the Easter Vigil and "Make a joyful noise to the Lord" (Ps. 98:6).

It's tradition in the Church to ring bells during the Gloria on Holy Thursday and throughout the Easter Vigil Liturgy. Bells are a sign of joy for the end of Lent when we sing the Gloria for the first time on Holy Thursday. At the Easter Vigil, we express our joy, by ringing bells during the Gloria, when singing the Alleluia before the Gospel, and after the Baptism of each person newly received into the Church.

Ozone Depletion

Social Justice Committee

Ozone depletion is caused by the release of ozone-depleting substances (ODS) into the atmosphere. These substances include chlorofluorocarbons (chemicals made of carbon, chlorine, and fluorine called CFCs), hydrochlorofluorocarbons (carbon, hydrogen, hydrocarbons, chlorine, and fluorine (called HCFCs), halons (used fire extinguishers), methyl bromide (which is toxic gas that's used as a pesticide) , and methyl chloroform (sweet-smelling liquid that was once used as an industrial solvent).

ODS are very stable in the troposphere (the lowest layer of Earth's atmosphere, where most weather occurs), but break down in the stratosphere when exposed to intense UV rays. This releases chlorine atoms, which destroy ozone molecules. One chlorine atom can destroy over 100,000 ozone molecules. Ozone depletion has many negative consequences, including:

- Causing skin cancer
- Cataracts
- Damage to plants and marine organisms
- Events like wildfires and volcanic eruptions which release smoke into the air.
- Air pollution (plants exposed to high levels of UV radiation can produce harmful volatile organic compounds, which can contribute to air pollution and climate change)

Some of the causes of ozone depletion and the ozone hole are manufactured chemicals (made by humans). Specially manufactured halocarbon refrigerants, solvents, propellants, and foam-blowing agents (chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs), HCFCs, halons), are referred to as ODS.

In 1987, the United Nations Environment Program (UNEP) created the Montreal Protocol to protect the ozone layer. The protocol was the first treaty to be ratified by every country in the world. This program has set a goal to freeze the production and consumption of ODS at the current rates and later created amendments to tightened restrictions on man-made products destroying the ozone layer.

Other items the Montreal Protocol has been able to accomplish:

- A 99% reduction in ODS
- The ozone hole over Antarctica is expected to close by the 2060s.
- An estimated two million people are saved from skin cancer each year.
- Global investment in alternative technologies

What can we do to assist in stopping the depletion of the ozone layer you might ask:

- ✓ Minimize the use of cars, use public transportation, ride a bike or carpool.
- ✓ Do not use cleaning products that are harmful to the environment and to us.
- ✓ Buy local products (you get fresh products, and you avoid consuming food that has traveled long distances, the more nitrous oxide is produced due to the medium used to transport that product)
- ✓ Maintain air conditioners.

If we all work together, we can do this and save the ozone layer for future generations!

Divine Mercy

Evangelization Committee

The Image

The Image of the Divine Mercy originated from a vision the Polish nun, St. Faustina, had on Feb. 22, 1931. She recorded the event in her Diary, which she kept at the Lord's request.

She wrote "In the evening, when I was in my cell, I saw the Lord Jesus clothed in a white garment. One hand was raised in the gesture of blessing; the other touching the garment at the breast. From beneath the garment, slightly drawn aside at the breast, there were emanating two large rays, one red, the other pale. In silence I kept my eyes fixed on the Lord; my soul was struck with awe, but also with great joy. After a while, Jesus said to me, "Paint an image according to the pattern that you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I desire that my image be venerated, first in your chapel, and then throughout the world." (Diary, 47)

The artist Eugene Kasimiroski painted the image in 1934-35. St. Faustina was sad that the painted image was not even close in magnificence to the vision she had of our Lord. Jesus assured her "Not in the beauty of the color, nor of the brush lies the greatness of this image, but in My grace." (Diary, 313)

The image of the Resurrected Jesus, with His pierced hands and feet, reminds us of the love God has for us. Jesus loves us so much that He died for each one of us! Jesus explained to St. Faustina that "the pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray for the Blood which is the life of souls... These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross." (Diary, 299)

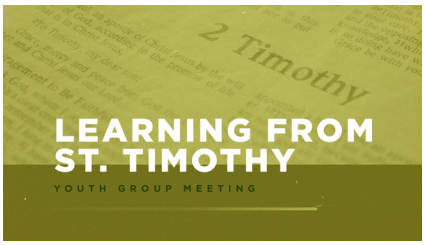

Jesus said: "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over its enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I, Myself will defend it with My own glory." (Diary, 48)

A good way to prepare your heart for Divine Mercy Sunday is through the Divine Mercy Novena. Nine days of praying for others using the short Divine Mercy Chaplet. You can find pamphlets on the main tables at Church. Novena starts on Good Friday and ends the Saturday after Easter.

Did You Know?

Divine Mercy Image

In the Divine Mercy image found on the east wall of the church above the confessional, you see a red ray and a pale ray emanating from His chest. These two rays signify the sacraments of mercy (Baptism and Penance), and the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the blood of souls, carrying life-sustaining food for our spiritual journey. The water is analogous to the sacraments of Baptism and Penance, in that we are washed clean. "But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God (1Cor 6:11).

Jesus attached many promises to those who venerate the image. What does it mean to venerate an image? It simply means we regard with great respect and reverence the person portrayed in the image. Jesus said, "By means of this image I shall be granting many graces to souls; so let every soul have access to it." (Diary, 570)

Let us reflect on Jesus' Passion and love for us. In times of adversity, discouragement, anxiety and fear, let us say with conviction in our hearts, "Jesus, I trust in You!"
