EASTER SUNDAY

CONNECTING POINT

Fr. Ron Victor frron@stisidore.church

Pope Francis has declared 2025 as the "Jubilee Year of Hope." Hope is at the heart of who we are as a Christian people, and Christ's Resurrection is our source of hope. The Resurrected Christ is the Light that overcomes the darkness of our world. His Resurrection gives us the hope that God's grace is more powerful than sin, life is more powerful than death, and hate will be overcome by love. The empty tomb means new beginnings for all of creation (a message reflected in the tapestries on the west wall of St. Isidore's worship space).

We are called to live in this new creation. Our hope is for a better world with a better future for refugees, the poor, the sick, the lonely, the depressed, the abused, the paranoid, and the downtrodden. As Christian people of hope, it is our mission to do all that we can to create this new world. Thus, Easter is not just a day—it is a way of life.

In his first letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul speaks of our hope that arises from Christ's Resurrection. Notice that he does not write, "Therefore, since you have such a great hope, sit back and relax because God has a great future in store for you." Instead, he writes, "Therefore, my beloved ones, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain" (1 Corinthians 15:58).

At Mass today, we distributed Easter cards with this Connecting Point, "Hope in Him." The card, created by our Director of Engagement, Matt Kush, displays a powerful design for which he offers the following reflection:

This year's Easter card features a darker design than usual, but that's intentional. In a world that often feels heavy with division, fear, and uncertainty, the dark background represents the reality of those struggles. But from that darkness, light breaks through. The glowing doorway is a powerful symbol of the stone rolled away, not from the outside looking in, but from inside the tomb looking out—as if we're seeing the moment Jesus steps into the light of Resurrection. The beam of light stretching forward reminds us that hope doesn't stay buried; it moves with us. Paired with the message, "Hope in Him," this card is a reminder that Easter is more than a day—it's an invitation to walk forward in the light of Christ, even when the world feels dark.

We hope that you will put the card in an accessible place where you may see it and reflect on it daily. May it encourage you to live each day in the hope of the Resurrected Christ.

Divine Mercy

Evangelization Committee

On the Sunday after Easter, the entire Church is called to gather throughout the world to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. This Octave Day of Easter is a day chosen by Christ as a day of extraordinary graces.

Our Lord asked St. Faustina to pray and work towards establishing a Feast of the Divine Mercy on the Sunday after Easter. He told her: "On that day, the very depths of my mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that would go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary 699) In other words, our slate is wiped clean. How merciful is Our Lord!

To receive this grace, you simply need to go to Confession on the day of the feast or up to 20 days prior or after; be in a state of grace (no mortal sin), receive Holy Communion with the intention of obtaining the promised grace, and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father (usually an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be). We should also do acts of mercy by forgiving and praying for others with the intention of being more merciful.

Please save the date for this celebration at St. Isidore on Sunday, April 27 starting at 1:30 PM.

Highway Clean-up

Brian McAleer, Knights of Columbus

Have you ever driven on M53 between 27 and 29 Mile Roads? You will hopefully not have noticed much trash on the passenger side of the road. For the last 34 years, the Knights of Columbus Council 7200 has adopted both the Northbound and Southbound roadsides of this stretch of highway through the Adopt-A-Highway program. We pick up trash along this stretch three times per year. On Saturday, 4/5/25, 13 people spent two hours each picking up trash during our first such session this year. Shown are members of Council 7200, along with some family members, prior to collecting on that Saturday.

Power in Prayer

Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Easter Joy

Suggested Prayer: As we begin this day celebrating Jesus' victory over death, we pray: O heavenly Father, we ask that You be near to us and continue to guide us until we join in the unending celebration in heaven. In Your name we pray. Amen.

Suggested Kids Prayer: Jelly Bean Prayer
Red is for the blood you gave, and black is for the empty grave. Yellow is for the shining sun, white is for the new life begun. Green is for the grass and trees and purple for your majesty. Orange is for the edge of night, and pink is for the morning light. Amen!

> Do not let the past disturb you, just leave everything in the Sacred Heart and begin again with joy.

Did You Know?
Divine Mercy Hour

In His revelations to St. Faustina, Jesus asked for special daily remembrance at 3:00 PM, the very hour He died for us on the cross. At three o'clock implore My mercy, especially for sinners; and if only for a brief moment; immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in my abandonment at that moment of agony: This is the hour of great mercy for the world world. I will allow you to enter into My mortal sorrow. In this hour, I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion. (Diary 1320).

At 3:00 we can pray: You expired Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself upon us. (Diary 1319)

This Easter we celebrate Christ's redemptive power by His Resurrection after His Sorrowful Passion, that we might have eternal life. His Mercy never ends. Not only are we to receive His mercy, but we are to use it, by being merciful to others by our actions, by our words, and by our prayers.

HAPPY EASTER!
