SOLEMNITY OF SS. PETER AND PAUL

CONNECTING POINT

Deacon Mark Sienkowski mark@stisidore.church

Are we ever completely ready? We've all faced moments where we sense God nudging us forward, and that quiet question surfaces: Am I really ready for this? In spite of the hesitation, we take the step.

I certainly experienced that situation when God called me to the diaconate at a time in life when many are slowing down. I thought all the big decisions—career, family, major commitments—were behind me, but then I received this unexpected call. It meant years of formation, classes, spiritual direction, and study, all while still working full-time. There were moments of doubt when I wondered if I could handle the demands, balance my responsibilities, and live up to the calling. Honestly, it felt overwhelming. I wasn't ready. But God made (and continues to make) a way.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus entrusts Peter with a mission that would shape the Church: "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church" (Matthew 16:18). Peter wasn't chosen because he was flawless. We know his weaknesses—his impulsiveness, his failures, even his denial of Jesus—yet the Lord saw beyond Peter's limits and called him anyway. Peter stepped forward, not because he was ready, but because he trusted Jesus.

Paul's leap of faith was equally remarkable. Once a fierce persecutor of Christians, he surrendered completely to Christ. His mission led him into danger, rejection, beatings, and imprisonment, yet even near the end of his life, he could still say, "The Lord stood by me and gave me strength" (2 Timothy 4:17). Neither Peter nor Paul waited to feel qualified; they trusted God to work through their weaknesses.

For Peter and Paul, these leaps weren't rare exceptions, they were part of an ongoing relationship—a constant pattern of hearing God's voice, trusting His lead, and taking the next step. God wasn't calling them once; He was calling them again and again, each time inviting them deeper. That's where faith lives—not in waiting until we feel ready, but in trusting that God is.

You've walked this path before—facing uncertainty yet still choosing to trust where God was leading. And He's still leading you now. Where is He nudging you? To reach out, to forgive, to serve, or simply to pray? The invitation remains; follow the nudge. God will meet you with the grace you need for the step ahead.

Power in Prayer

Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Gratitude

Suggested Prayer/Activity: Give thanks throughout your day for God's many blessings including troubles (see DID YOU KNOW? article). Each night recall the day's blessings and troubles and list in a notebook. Each week take the list to God in prayer for insight and in thankfulness.

Children's Activity: Help children make a simple notebook with blank pages stapled together. Depending on age have them list one or more blessings each day and/or draw a picture of the blessing. The notebook could be entitled THANK GOD.

> Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.
> 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Provision and Blessing: God can use difficulties to bring about blessings and good outcomes, even if not immediately apparent.

Learning to Trust: Hardships can help you learn to trust God's plan for your life, knowing He has your best interests at heart.

Bearing Testimony: Acknowledging God's grace in the midst of trouble can serve as a powerful testimony to others, showing how God can be trusted even in the darkest of times.

Seeking God's Help: Expressing gratitude can be a way of seeking God's comfort, peace, and direction in times of need.

Back to School Drive

Mike Aprile - Evangelical Charity Coordinator
evangelicalcharity@stisidore.church

Summer is here, but it's not too early to start thinking about how we can support children in need as they prepare for the next school year. Many students in our community lack the basic supplies that help them succeed in the classroom.

St. Isidore Catholic Church is once again hosting a Back to School Drive to provide essential items for these children. The drive runs June 21 - August 10. Clearly marked collection boxes will be available in the Gathering Space and at Mary's Garden Entrance during this time.

Requested items include: pencils, pens, crayons, markers, highlighters, notebooks, folders, glue sticks, scissors (including left-handed), pencil cases, rulers, backpacks, and lunch boxes.

Let's come together as a parish family to show these children they are supported and loved. Your generosity will help give them the confidence and tools they need for a great start to the school year.

Thank you for your continued kindness and support!
