CONNECTING POINT

Peggy Casing - Director of Discipleship Formation peggyc@stol.church

Has a new, young coworker ever told you that you don't know how to do the job you've been doing for over twenty years? Or maybe you presented a new insight only for the "powers that be" to insist on doing things the way they've "always been done." I'm sure we can all think of a time when we've offered an opinion (or even stated a concrete fact) and were dismissed by the listener.

Whether in a boardroom or at our own kitchen tables, each of us knows the frustration that comes from this type of human interaction. Rest assured, Jesus knew it, too!

In today's gospel reading (Luke 10:1-9 or Luke 10:1-12, 17-20), we hear of Jesus sending out 72 disciples. He tells them to go out, minister among the people, cure the sick, and proclaim the Good News of the kingdom of God. He prepares them, though, for the reality that not everyone will welcome their message. He instructs them: "When you enter a town and are not welcomed, go out into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off against you.'" Don't get hung up on the word "against." This response isn't one of

With profound sadness we announce that Deacon Thomas J. Carter, our Deacon but also a cherished husband, father, grandfather, and pillar of his community, passed away on June 18, 2025, at the age of 79. Deacon Tom lived a life defined by his unwavering love for his family, his deep faith, and his dedication to those around him.

Deacon Tom was born in Detroit, Michigan on December 22, 1945. He was a graduate of De La Salle Collegiate ('63), married his lovely wife Mary Ann on August 11, 1984, was a service member of the United States Army and was ordained in 2008 as a Deacon with the Archdiocese of Detroit. As Deacon he first served at St. Paul of Tarsus in Clinton Township and then here at St. Isidore Catholic Church before he retired in 2021.

When asked, people remember Deacon Tom by his joy and happiness for life, his kindness, always a gentleman, his endless supply of jokes and riddles, and by how he closed each Mass: "The Mass is NEVER ended. Let us go in peace to love and serve the Lord and one another."

Deacon Tom, your impact on us and our love for you is NEVER ended. May you go in peace to be with our Lord. You are missed already.

"Comfort Crafters" Prayer Blanket/Shawl Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church 586-745-9501

This month the Prayer Blanket/Shawl Ministry celebrates its seventh year anniversary!

> Be someone to somebody.
> Saint Mother Teresa

St. Isidore Parishioners have distributed many hundreds of prayer blankets and shawls to people who need comfort, love, and the knowledge that others care about them and pray for them.

Our blanket/shawl ministry always has our recipients in mind as our mission is to:

- Love the lonely
- Hug the hurting
- Visit the sick
- Bless the broken
- Befriend the lost

And... comfort all who need someone to provide comfort. We can, each of us, be that someone. We work with you toward our goal.

Thank you from,
The Comfort Crafters

Baby Pantry Request List

Your donations have helped a great many families over the past months. Local low-income families call us daily for baby and toddler items. It is hard to imagine so great a need in our community.

St. Isidore Church is blessed with extremely generous Christians. Please say a special prayer for the recipients as you place your donation in our Pac 'n' Play by (or in) the church office.

If possible, please help us stock our shelves:

- Diaper rash ointment with Zinc (our supply is very, very low)
- New clothes, with tags on, for girls, sizes 2T and 3T
- New clothes, with tags on, for boys, sizes 2T and 3T
- Baby lotion (the pick stuff)
- New toddler books, ages 1-4
- Puffs (toddler snack)

Thank you. We distribute everything you donate to help local, very needy families.

This Week's Intention: Honoring the Precious Blood

Suggested Prayer: The Raccolta

Eternal Father, I offer You the Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ in atonement for my sins, and in supplication for the Holy Souls in Purgatory and for the needs of Holy Church.

Children's Prayer:

Jesus, friend of children, cover me with your Precious Blood. Help me to be a good child. Keep me safe and guide me in all that I do.

> O Blood and Water which gushed forth from the heart of Jesus as a Fount of Mercy for us, I trust in You.
> Divine Mercy 3 O'Clock Prayer - St. Faustina

Did You Know?

July - Month of the Precious Blood

The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. In the first century Pope Clement said "Let us fix our gaze on the Blood of Christ and realize how truly precious it is, seeing that it was poured out for our salvation and brought the grace of conversion to the whole world." The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

"The Precious Blood we worship is the Blood which the Savior shed for us on Calvary and reassumed at His glorious Resurrection; it is the Blood which courses through the veins of His risen, glorified, living body at the right hand of God the Father in heaven; it is the Blood made present on our altars by the words of Consecration; it is the Blood which merited sanctifying grace for us and through it washes and beautifies our soul and inaugurated the beginning of eternal life in it."

Blood of Christ, Eucharistic drink and refreshment of souls, save us.

Strawberry Festival

From June 20–22, our Strawberry Festival brought together parishioners, families, and neighbors for a weekend full of sunshine, laughter, and sweet memories. From the vibrant car show to the joyful sounds of live music, inflatable fun, and, of course, our famous dinners and desserts, the church grounds were buzzing with energy and smiles all weekend long.

We are especially grateful for the hundreds of volunteers who made it all possible. Whether you served food, sold raffle tickets, ran games, or helped with setup and cleanup, your time and generosity did not go unnoticed. This event simply couldn't happen without you.

Thank you to everyone who attended, donated, invited friends, or supported the event in any way. We hope you enjoyed the weekend as much as we did, and we can't wait to do it all again next year!

Check out these photos and relive the memories!

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We must continue to do the good job we are asked to do by Jesus and be excited to share the news of Him with others. But always remember that the real victory is that we are part of God's family and that God's love is way more important than anything else.

Family Time Fun and Challenge

As we celebrate our nations independence this weekend, remember to be safe while you are enjoying your celebrations. But please also pray for those who are continuing to keep us all safe.

hatred or revenge; it is based on the idea of recognizing when the listeners aren't open to our message, moving on, and letting go. In the context of Jesus' mandate, in which His followers are always to choose love over everything else, it makes perfect sense. Jesus wants His disciples to love themselves enough to avoid futile and frustrating pursuits. He also wants them to provide their audience with a clean break, essentially saying, "Okay. We'll leave you alone. Obviously, you aren't ready to hear what we are saying. We take nothing from you, and you owe us nothing." By following Jesus' guidance, they part ways with complete autonomy—an autonomy that respects the individual decision-making of all involved.

Jesus' guidance remains relevant for us today. We encounter many situations where agreeing to disagree is the only path forward. Handling these situations with grace means leaning into an expression of courteous goodwill that is built on respecting someone enough to choose to move on and let go. How can we respond with grace when we feel dismissed? Sometimes, that might mean the use of a few, well-chosen words. At other times, remaining silent and eating a bit of "humble pie" might be the best path. Still, maybe it is something else. Whichever way, Paul's often-repeated greeting, featured in today's second reading (Galatians 6:14-18), still resonates: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen." Whether asking for God's grace as an unmerited gift of divine assistance in the moment, or as an expression of courteous goodwill, I pray that all of your encounters be overflowing with God's abundant grace.
