15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONNECTING POINT

Msgr. John Kasza - FOP Moderator - St. Therese frjohn@stol.church

It is said that you only have one chance to make a first impression, but what contributes to people forming one? Your haircut? Your walk? Your attire? While all of these things are important, I would suggest that it is our manner of speaking that determines what people think of us. After all, appearances can be deceiving; we may have a bad hair day, or our clothes may be wrinkled from traveling. However, the way we speak to someone reveals a lot about who we are.

Additionally, it is not so much a matter of what we say but rather how we say it. Does our speech convey compassion or sympathy? Do we exude confidence and eloquence? Or are we off-putting, condescending, or critical in our conversations? How we speak about another person says more about our character than anything else. Do we gossip and criticize? Do we make comments that condemn others or point out their faults and failings? In short, at a fundamental level, we demonstrate our love of neighbor by the way we speak about them.

And as today's parable tells us, our

Welcome Fr. Alex!

Introduction

My name is Sahaya Arul Alex, and I was born in a beautiful village called Azhickal which is situated in the district called Kanyakumari in the state of Tamil Nadu in the southern part of India. I have an older brother and a twin sister and my mom and dad. I come from a fishing family, my father and my brother are fishermen. Though I come from a poor family I enjoyed every bit of my childhood. Now my brother and sister are married and have their kids. My parents are in their 70's and still doing well.

My call to vocation to the priesthood

When I was doing my second grade at school I met a priest by the name of Sathyamurthy. He was a good and the holiest priest that I have ever met in my life. The way he related with people and the way he showed his care and concern for the poor and the needy made me to think that I should become like him one day. Only later I learned that he was not a Catholic at birth, but he was a converted Catholic from a Hindu family. As I was an altar boy, I had an opportunity to spend some quality time with him talking with him and learning about how to become a priest. Therefore, he was the one who planted the seed of desire for priesthood in my heart.

Formation and priesthood

I joined the Society of the Catholic Apostolate religious order in 2004 soon after the tsunami disaster destroyed my village and also my country. I did my vocation orientation course at Madurai, Tamil Nadu in 2004-2005. I did my high school in Chennai, Tamil Nadu from 2005-2007 and I did my novitiate at Bangalore, Karnataka in 2008. After my novitiate I did my college in Chennai, Tamil Nadu from 2009-2011. After which I did my philosophy at Assagao, Goa from 2012-2013. Then I did my theology in Mysore, Karnataka from 2014-2018.

I was ordained on May 7, 2018. My first assignment was to work in our school as a teacher and later I was appointed as the administrator of our school in Salem, Tamil Nadu. I worked there for two years after that I was appointed as an associate pastor in three different dioceses (Archdiocese of Thanjavur, Archdiocese of Kumbakonam, Archdiocese of Kottar) before I left my country to serve this great nation.

My ministry in the United States of America

I along with my companion came to the United States on February 1, 2023. I began my pastoral ministry as an associate pastor at the National Shrine of little Flower Basilica from March to June 2023 for four months. After which I was appointed as an associate pastor at St. Lawrence Catholic Church, and I began my pastoral ministry from the month of July 1, 2023, until June 31, 2025. And now I have come to serve the Disciples Unleashed Family of Parishes starting from July 1, 2025.

Conclusion

I felt the presence of God in all through my life strengthening, guiding, protecting, leading in ups and downs of my life for which I am deeply grateful to him. I also thank God for surrounding me with good people who always love, care, and appreciate me. Finally, I thank every one of you for your prayerful support and for your love.

God bless,
Rev. Fr. Sahaya Arul Alex SAC

Strawberry Festival Thank You

Mike Fontana - Strawberry Festival Chairman

On behalf of the entire Strawberry Festival Committee, we want to say THANK YOU to all of our parishioners, guests, neighbors, donors, sponsors, vendors, and raffle winners for your attendance and support at our recent three-day festival. Special shout out to Fr Ron and his team for working with us and supporting us over these last several months. Despite all of the heat and humidity, we all managed to survive and put on another great event. We hope you enjoyed the food, beverages, games and all of the other activities on our church campus.

Next year, we will continue to pray for no rain (which worked this year) but ask for some slightly cooler temps than the mid 90's.

If you have any interest in joining the Strawberry Festival Committee, we would welcome your participation. Feel free to reach out to Mike Fontana via phone/text @ 248-224-5583 or via email @ mfontana31@gmail.com

Again, thank you for all you did to make this another memorable festival at St. Isidore. We look forward to you sharing the good times you had with family, friends, and coworkers to help us grow even larger in 2026. Prayers to all of you for a safe and enjoyable Michigan summer.

Run the Plank Thank You

Mike Fontana - Run the Plank Chairman

Thanks to all of our race participants that ran or walked the Run the Plank: 3 Miles of Faith 5K Run/Walk last weekend. We were blessed with some great weather, especially for the runners who did not have to deal with mid-90 degree temperatures. We had 725+ individuals join us for the race along with some free pizza, Kona Ice, and popcorn immediately following the race. Congratulations to all of the winners in each race category including our own St. Isidore members: David Carnago, Matt Kush, and Fr. Joe Dailey.

We look forward to seeing you again, hopefully with some of your family and friends, as we continue to build back our numbers. The date for the 2026 race will be Saturday, June 27, 2026. Note that the race course may change if the Romeo Plank construction finally begins, so stay tuned for more details in the coming weeks and months to come. Enjoy your summer with family and friends and hope to see you in church.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Lord reminds us that those in need are our neighbors and we need to show our love, compassion, and kindness to them. For someday it may be us in need.

Family Time Fun
Take time this weekend to enjoy the beauty of God's creation by taking a family hike. Find a local park or hiking trail to explore. But remember to follow all the safety guidelines and stay hydrated. Most of all HAVE FUN!!

neighbor is everyone. Whether we know them or not, everyone is our brother or sister in Christ. When we speak, do we strive for harmony? Do we try to see the best in others, including those with differing opinions? Our conversations can either bring unity and clarity through a focus on ideas, concepts, solutions, and open collaboration... or they can become occasions for sin through a tendency toward gossip, critique, and simple parroting. In other words, ask yourself: Do I show that I am a child of God by viewing everyone else in the same way?

This week, analyze your speech. Each night, reflect on the conversations you had that day. Were they uplifting and meaningful, or were they critical of others? Did they honor the dignity of the other person, or did the conversation turn into idle chatter? When you spoke, was God's love proclaimed?

Strawberry Festival - Thank You Volunteers!

Sally Smogor - Strawberry Festival Committee

To everyone who volunteered to assist with the Strawberry Festival, THANK YOU! We couldn't have a festival without all the support of the volunteers. To those who worked all three days, several shifts a day, a heartfelt thank you. To those who could only volunteer for one shift, thank you so much. To those who just showed up or pitched in where help was needed, we are grateful. Please remember how much fun you had this year and sign up to volunteer next year! Thank you so "berry" much.

Power in Prayer

Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Kindness to All

Suggested Prayer: Jesus, help me to be kind today to everyone I meet.

Suggested Activity: Go out of your way to be kind to those who are inconsiderate or annoying or do not respect you.

> But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.
> Luke 6:35

Intercessory Prayer - Cancelled for Summer

Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

July and August Intercessory Prayer is cancelled for the summer. We will resume the second Monday of September, the 8th, at 1 PM, in the Holy Spirit Wing of the church.

Did You Know?
Love your enemies

Love Your Enemies: This calls for selfless, unconditional love that extends even to those who oppose or mistreat you.

Do Good: Actively seek the best for others, even if they are not deserving or friendly.

Lend, Expecting Nothing In Return: This emphasizes generosity and a lack of self-interest in giving, even to those who may not be able to repay.

Your Reward Will Be Great: Heavenly reward.

You Will Be Children Of The Most High: A closer relationship with God, achieved through imitating his kindness.

For He Is Kind To The Ungrateful And The Wicked: This highlights God's own character, demonstrating that even those who are unthankful and evil still experience God's kindness.

St. Vincent de Paul

Helping a person in need is good in itself. But the degree of goodness is hugely affected by the attitude with which it is done. If you show resentment because you are helping the person out of a reluctant sense of duty, then the person may receive your help but may feel awkward and embarrassed. This is because he will feel beholden to you. If, on the other hand, you help the person in a spirit of joy, then the help will be received joyfully. And joy is the appropriate attitude with which to help others because acts of generosity are a source of blessing to the giver as well as the receiver.

St. John Chrysostom
