HOW CAN I STAY READY SO I DON'T HAVE TO GET READY?

CONNECTING POINT

Matt Kush - Director of Engagement matt@stisidore.church

In this Sunday's Gospel (Luke 12:32–48), Jesus tells His disciples, "Be ready, for the Son of Man will come at an hour you do not expect." He compares this attentiveness to servants awaiting their master's return from a wedding, urging them to stay vigilant.

We've all heard the hypothetical: "If you knew that you had 24 hours left to live, what would you do?" The answers usually involve bucket-list traveling, spending time with loved ones, or mending broken relationships. (You probably won't hear someone respond with "Go to work" or "Watch Netflix!") And while some people who are near death choose to reconcile with God through prayer, forgiveness, or even baptism, the truth is: We don't get a heads-up. As Scripture reminds us, we don't know the day or the hour.

That means there's no time for last-minute scrambling. Being ready isn't just about the end of time; it's about how we live every day. A life of readiness is a life marked by prayer, purpose, kindness, and integrity.

The Passing of Carol Sienkowski

Fr. Ron Victor frron@stisidore.church 586-286-1700

We are saddened at the death on July 28 of Carol Sienkowski, the wife of Deacon Mark Sienkowski. Carol is also the mother of Bryan, Laura, and Justin, and grandmother of four. Her obituary reads in part: "Carol was a humble, approachable woman who loved to sit and chat with anyone. She married the love of her life on October 10, 1984. A devoted Mother, she left her teaching profession to focus on her greatest treasure, her children. A strong and faithful woman, she faced her long struggle with scleroderma with dignity, grace, and unwavering hope. She was a loving, supportive wife whose deep faith sustained her and (Deacon Mark) as they walked together through his diaconate journey."

Carol's funeral liturgy was celebrated on August 8 at St. Lawrence Parish. Please keep Carol, Deacon Mark, and their family in your prayers.

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Amy Righi amy@stisidore.church 586-286-1700

On August 15, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a holy day of obligation for Catholics. This solemnity commemorates the moment when Mary, the Mother of Jesus, was taken body and soul into heavenly glory at the end of her earthly life.

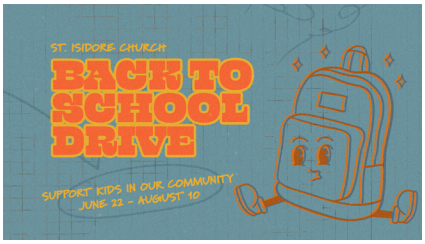

The Assumption reflects the Church's deep reverence for Mary and her unique role in salvation history. As the one who bore Christ, she was preserved from sin and, fittingly, did not undergo bodily decay. Her Assumption is a sign of hope for all Christians—pointing to the promise of our own resurrection and eternal life with God.

For Catholics, Orthodox Christians, and some Anglican and Lutheran assemblies, this day is not only a celebration of Mary's glory but also an invitation to renew our faith, seek holiness, and trust in God's promise of eternal life. Mary's Assumption reminds us that heaven is our true home and that through Christ, we too are called to share in His victory over sin and death.

Friday, August 15 Mass times at St. Isidore are: 8 AM, 12:15 PM, and 7 PM.

Ordination of John Kovacik

Fr. Ron Victor frron@stisidore.church 586-286-1700

Our former OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) coordinator, John Kovacik, has been approved by the Archdiocese of Detroit to be ordained a deacon! John will be ordained on Saturday, September 27, at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, by Archbishop Weisenberger.

John and his wife Bernadette have endured a demanding five-year journey to the diaconate. John served as an acolyte here at St. Isidore, and then one year ago was assigned to fulfill his internship year at St. Michael Parish in Sterling Heights. John also served as coordinator of our RCIA (now known as the OCIA) prior to entering the diaconate program.

Please keep John, Bernadette, and their son Noah, in your prayers.

Did You Eat Breakfast?

Marilyn Cito - St. Therese Parish Nurse marilync@stol.church

So why is breakfast so important? Breakfast boosts your metabolism and helps burn calories throughout the day. It also gives you energy and helps with memory and concentration. It also helps lower "bad" (LDL cholesterol) and the chances of diabetes, heart disease, and being overweight.

Skipping breakfast can throw off your body's rhythm of fasting and eating. When you wake up, the blood sugar your body needs to make your muscles and brain work best is usually low. When you don't eat breakfast, your body does not get what it needs from food and you might not have the energy to get through the day. And, you will be more likely to overeat later in the day because you are so hungry!

Although some of us might like a donut, bagel loaded with cream cheese, or calorie ladled coffee drink, that is not the best thing to eat or drink. Just as it is important to eat breakfast, it is equally important to eat a nutritious breakfast. Breakfast is an opportunity to get in vitamins and nutrients from healthy foods like dairy, grains, and fruits.

Many people skip breakfast because they are rushing to get out of the door. Big mistake! Your body needs food before lunchtime. If you don't eat anything, you are more likely to snack on high-fat and high sugar foods.

Studies have also found on an average, people who eat breakfast are thinner than those who don't. That could be because eating protein and fiber in the morning helps keep you feeling fuller during the day. If you are trying to lose weight, don't skip breakfast! Studies show most people who lose weight and keep the weight off, eat breakfast every day. But, it is equally important you pay attention to what and how much you eat. One study showed people who ate large breakfasts ate more during the day!

If you have kids, it's really important they eat breakfast in the morning to fuel their growing bodies. When kids don't eat, they have a harder time focusing and may become tired in school. They might be crankier and more restless. Studies show kids who eat breakfast had higher test scores than those that didn't.

Kids who skip breakfast are also more likely to eat junk food during the day and be overweight. It has been shown, teenagers who ate breakfast every day had a lower body mass index (BMI), (which is a measure of the body fat based on height and weight), than teens who never ate breakfast, or who sometimes did.

If you find your child won't eat something before he/she leaves the house in the morning, pack them a nutritious snack like fruit, nuts, peanut butter sandwich, or yogurt smoothie, that they can eat/drink on the way to school or between classes.

Try and eat something within an hour of waking up. It does not have to be a big meal. Your meal should consist of carbohydrates (which gives you energy right away), protein (which gives you energy later on), healthy fats, and fiber (which will fill you up). Try a whole grain cereal, low-fat milk and fruit, or a breakfast smoothie made with low fat yogurt, fruit, and teaspoon of bran/oats. Nuts or whole-brain granola bars are also easy options if you don't want to make breakfast or eat something heavier.

with a workout on Apple Fitness+. It's early and not always easy, but it's part of my rhythm, and I'm always much more prepared to hit the day afterward. I don't wait to feel out of shape before I act. One of the trainers, Jamie-Ray, often says, "Stay ready so you don't have to get ready." That line has always stuck with me—not just because it sounds cool but because it reflects a principle I've built into my life.

Faith is the same way. Praying, being kind, and living intentionally shouldn't wait until the eleventh hour; these things should be part of our daily rhythms.

Living "ready" means staying connected to God in the ordinary, everyday moments—not just when things fall apart. So, instead of wondering what you would do with only one day left, maybe a better question to ask yourself is: What can I start doing today to stay ready in mind, body, and spirit?

Special Needs Mass a Success!

Brian McAleer, K of C

Fr. Ron celebrated a Special Needs Mass at St. Isidore on July 27. This Mass was attended by Special Needs individuals and their families, the K of C, and members of the Alhambra. This was followed by a dinner hosted by the St. Isidore Knights of Columbus Council #7200 and the Order of Alhambra, Galicia Caravan #77. Participants appreciated the Mass followed by the food and socialization. They loved seeing the well-recognized fez hats worn by the members of the Alhambra. Shown are pictures from the dinner.

Rebecca St. James Concert Recap

Matt Kush, Director of Engagement

What a night! On July 29, St. Isidore Church was filled with energy, worship, and the powerful voice of Rebecca St. James as she led us in a moving night of music and faith. As a GRAMMY®-winning Christian artist, author, and speaker, Rebecca shared both her music and her testimony, reminding us all of the hope we find in Christ.

The concert was a collaboration between St. Isidore and St. Kieran Catholic Churches, and brought together people from across the community and beyond. From heartfelt moments of worship to joyful singing and clapping, the evening was a true celebration of faith through music.

We're grateful to the volunteers, staff, and all those who helped make this night possible. Most of all, we thank those who joined us in worship and made this more than a concert. It was a night of unity, inspiration, and praise.

Power in Prayer

This Week's Intention: Follow Mary's Example

Suggested Prayer: Canticle of Mary (excerpt)

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

Suggested Activity: Whenever you hear a siren, pray a Hail Mary for everyone involved.

Did You Know?

Origins and Practices of the Assumption of Mary

Assumption Day commemorates belief that when Mary, the Mother of Jesus Christ, died, her body was assumed into heaven to be reunited with her soul, instead of going through the natural process of physical decay upon death.

Assumption Day, August 15, is a public holiday in countries such as Austria, Belgium, Chile, Croatia, France, parts of Germany, Guatemala, Greece, Italy, Poland, Portugal, Slovenia, Spain, and Switzerland. It is also celebrated in Australia, Canada, the United Kingdom, the United States, and others despite not being considered a public holiday. Celebrations include colorful processions, performances, pageants, and fireworks, with each region putting its own spin on celebrations.

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary has been celebrated since the fourth century. In 1950, Pope Pius XII declared the Assumption of Mary official dogma of the Catholic Church.
