20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONNECTING POINT

Chris Piebiak - Director of Family Ministry  chrisp@stol.church

"Would you consider coming to church with me this Sunday? We could grab coffee afterward and spend some time together. It would really mean a lot to me."

Inviting a loved one back to church, whether an adult or a child who has drifted away from the regular attendance they were raised with, can be one of the most emotionally difficult conversations we face. We fear rejection, awkwardness, or straining relationships with those we care deeply about. But this week's readings remind us that we're not alone in these challenges.

In the Gospel, Jesus speaks boldly about division, especially within families. The message of faith isn't always welcomed. He says, "Do you think I have come to establish peace on earth? No, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). That's not easy to hear, particularly when we long for harmony in our homes. However, it's a reminder that faith sometimes causes tension before it brings healing. Jeremiah knew this, too. He spoke the truth God gave him, even when it landed him in a muddy cistern. His courage didn't come

Altar Server Appreciation Day

Amy Righi - Music & Liturgy Director

Smiles, sunshine, pizza and pop, twirls, thrills, laughter, and launches filled the day as our altar servers were celebrated at our annual appreciation day at Barrymore's. It was a well-deserved opportunity to recognize the commitment, reverence, and service these volunteers bring to every Mass throughout the year.

The group enjoyed bowling, lunch, and unlimited rides including, go-karts, bumper boats, bungees, and a prize raffle as well as hanging out with friends old and new. Whether they were screaming on the coasters or cooling off on the bumper boats, the joy was contagious.

Deacon Jeff joined the fun as well, expressing heartfelt thanks to the servers: "Today is about showing you how much you're appreciated—not just for what you do at the altar, but for the spirit and enthusiasm you bring to our parish."

The Appreciation Day has become a tradition everyone looks forward to, and this year's event at Barrymore's did not disappoint. Thank you to all our altar servers—you are a blessing to our community!

New Altar Servers are Needed! Training is on Wednesday, August 13 at 7 PM. Please email amy@stisidore.church to sign up.

3 Ways to Be a Welcoming Church for Families

Matt Kush - Music & Creative Director

A few weeks ago, my family had a rough outing at Mass. Our two young kids weren't on their best behavior (as toddlers sometimes aren't), and I could feel the eyes of disapproval around us. It wasn't the first time we've experienced that, and I know we're not alone. I've heard from other families who've left church entirely after feeling judged or unwelcome because of moments like these.

It's especially hard when I often hear people say they want to see more young families and children at church. We all say we want to be a welcoming parish. But that requires us to act welcoming... even (and especially) when things aren't perfectly quiet or polished.

So here are three simple ways we can all help make our parish a place where families feel truly embraced:

1. Smile instead of stare.
   A kind glance or warm smile can go a long way. It says, "We're glad you're here," even in the midst of toddler chaos. Remember that showing grace in those moments speaks louder than silence.
2. Encourage, don't critique.
   If you feel moved to say something, make it uplifting. "You're doing a great job" or "I love seeing your kids here" is the kind of encouragement parents need to hear more often.
3. Celebrate the noise.
   The little sounds and squirms of kids at Mass are signs of life, growth, and future. A quiet church might be easier to sit through, but it's also a church without a future. Let's be okay with the beautiful mess of family life in the pews.

At the end of the day, families aren't looking for perfection, we're looking for belonging. Let's be the kind of parish that chooses to love people in their realness, not just in their reverence.

Brown Bag Food Drive - Thank You

Mike Aprile - Evangelical Charity Coordinator

We extend a heartfelt thank you to all our parishioners for your incredible generosity during our Brown Bag Food Drive. We filled over 100 boxes with the contents of the collected Brown Bags! Your donations will make a meaningful difference for families served by the St. Francis / St. Maximilian Food Pantry.

A special word of thanks goes to the Knights of Columbus, who graciously handled the transportation of all collected items to the pantry — your helping hands are always appreciated. And an extra big thank you to Scott Payton, whose dedication throughout the month did not go unnoticed. From unpacking and sorting to repacking bags day after day, his hard work and joyful spirit were essential to the success of this drive. We seriously couldn't have done it without him!

Thank you again to everyone who made this outreach effort possible. Your kindness is a blessing to our community.

from popularity; it came from knowing that he was being faithful. And in Hebrews (12:1), we're encouraged to "run with perseverance," keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, who endured so much out of love for us.

So, how do we prepare for these tough conversations? Start with prayer and ask the Holy Spirit for a gentle heart and the right words. We must speak with humility—not judgment, remembering that conversion is God's work, not ours.

When you feel that nudge to talk to a family member who has drifted from the faith, don't brush it aside; God may be planting a seed through you. And even if the conversation is hard or the response cold, trust that your courage matters.

Loving someone enough to speak about what matters most isn't easy, but it's holy work—and you're not doing it alone.

Your Mission

In the next few weeks, pick the first person you want to come back to church and simply ask them, "Would you consider coming to church with me this Sunday? We could grab coffee afterward and spend some time together. It would really mean a lot to me." When it works (and it will), make your list of invites and keep asking that simple question.

Another Successful Blood Drive!

Heather Herbst - Parish Nurse

Thank You for a Life-Saving Blood Drive!

A heartfelt thank you to every donor and volunteer who made our recent blood drive such an incredible success. Together, we surpassed the American Red Cross' goal by 124%! The blood collected will help up to 153 hospital patients—that's potentially three lives saved for every single donor. Your generosity has truly made a difference in our community.

Mark your calendars—our next Blood Drive will be Sunday, October 26. To learn more about becoming a donor or to schedule your appointment, visit www.blood.org or www.redcross.org. If you would like to volunteer at the next Drive, please reach out to Heather Herbst – heather@stisidore.church or Mike Aprile – mikea@stisidore.church.

Upcoming Events

- Registration for Discipleship Formation – Classes Filling Fast
- Catechists Needed – Contact Discipleship Formation for details at 586-286-1700

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Lord speaks of division among families showing us that we have the ability to choose who to follow. But in doing so we must be prepared and ready to face the consequences of our choices.

Family Time Challenge

As a way to help you grow into who you are made to be, use this quote from St. Catherine of Sienna: "Be who God meant you to be, and you will set the world on fire." Write it on a notecard and read it aloud each day to ask God for what you need to help you with your growth.

Power in Prayer

Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Honoring Mary as Queen of Heaven

Suggested Prayer: Hail Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you we cry poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this Exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

> A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.
> Revelation 12:1

Did You Know?
Mary, Our Mother

Thus down through the centuries, the Church has carefully preserved, protected, and defended its Marian teachings, because to give them up would be to give up the gospel. To suppress them would be to deprive God's family of its mother. Without the dogmas, Mary becomes unreal: a random female body from Nazareth, insignificant in her individuality, incidental to the gospel's narrative. And when Mary becomes unreal, so does the incarnation of God, which depended upon Mary's consent; so does the suffering flesh of Christ, which He took from His mother; so does the Christian's status as a child of God, which depends upon our sharing in the household of the family of Jesus, the Son of David, the Son of Mary.

(Excerpt from Hail Holy Queen by Scott Hahn)

"Comfort Crafters" Prayer Blanket/Shawl Ministry

Pat Schmeiser babypantry@stisidore.church 586-745-9501

Who would be a prayer blanket or shawl recipient? Anybody, really, but here are some examples:

- Someone who is grieving the loss of a spouse, a child, or another loved one
- Someone battling cancer or another serious illness
- Someone with an emotional or spiritual crisis in their life
- Someone going through a difficult time with family worries
- Someone in re-hab, a nursing home, or memory care
- Someone dealing with job loss
- Someone who could just use some comfort
- Someone experiencing disappointment, emptiness, stress, or anxiety
- Prayer blankets can be given to children for any reason
- Yourself, so that you are comforted

There are too many people around us who ache with loneliness. We can ease their loneliness by noticing them and letting them know they matter. But how? We can change lives, one person at a time. Start the curing process with a visit and by making that person a recipient of a prayer blanket or shawl. Tell that someone they are loved by getting one of our prayer blankets or shawls – free of charge - in the St. Isidore office, for a person you know who needs comfort, love, and prayers. Let us pray for those who need comfort.

Thank you for your constant support by distributing our items to those who need to know that we care about them.
