25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONNECTING POINT

Fr. Jaime Hinojos - St. Francis / St. Max frjaime@sfsm.church

This Sunday's readings invite us to face the question, "What am I willing to do to build a more just world?"

The prophet Amos denounces those who exploit the poor with false scales and dishonest trade. His words ring true throughout the centuries: True faith cannot ignore injustice. God hears the cries of the lowly, and His memory does not forget oppression.

Saint Paul writes to Timothy, urging prayer for all people—even rulers—so that society may be marked by peace, dignity, and devotion. Justice begins when we respect the worth given by God to every person, from the most powerful to the most vulnerable.

Jesus' Parable of the Unjust Steward challenges us to act with boldness and wisdom. If even the "children of this world" know how to act wisely in securing their futures, then surely the "children of light" should be deliberate in creating a world that reflects God's justice! The Lord warns us clearly, saying, "You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Pope Leo XIV recently reminded us that one of today's greatest obstacles is not outright cruelty but indifference to injustice. Danger

GROW THEIR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

To kick off September, on the 23rd Week of Ordinary Time, CLW kids got to Build and Grow their Relationship with God. They planned and built towers to symbolize the planning and building that Jesus spoke of in the Gospel. We then reflected on how planning and building allows us to consciously bring Christ into our daily lives. Suggestions from the kids were great. Some planned to compliment a fellow student at school they don't know on their outfit, shoes, or hair, others planned to assist their family with dinner/dishes or other chores they usually do not help with.

CLW runs each week at the: 9:30, 11:30, and 5:30 Masses. Encourage your children to participate each week to join in on the fun

CLW is always looking for adult volunteers to lead or assist at all three Masses each week. If you are interested in learning more of becoming a volunteer, please reach out to Katie Wynn at kwynn@stisidore.church.

Praying for Loved Ones Who Have Fallen Away?

Evangelization Committee

Unlike generations ago when the majority believed in God and practiced their faith, today we're seeing the opposite. Pretty much everyone has, not just one, but several loved ones who have fallen away or never experienced a relationship with God. We pray, we hint, we tread lightly... we feel stuck. St. Monica knows our pain.

St. Monica (c. 330-387), although Christian, was given by her parents in marriage to a pagan, Patricius. While he was a good man, he had a violent temper and was licentious. To add to Monica's daily struggles, her mother-in-law lived with them who was difficult to get along with. Monica's oldest child, her son Augustine, was very wayward. At the age of 17 he no longer followed his mother's Christian faith, but followed the Manichean heresy, believing that all flesh is evil. He lived a very immoral life, including having a child out of wedlock.

Monica prayed and fasted constantly for her husband and son (seventeen years for Augustine and longer for her husband and mother-in-law). Ultimately, her husband converted to Christianity the year before he died. Augustine eventually met St. Ambrose in Milan where he was baptized at Easter 387. Augustine, who is our current day St. Augustine, was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1303 by Pope Boniface VIII.

St. Monica was canonized by popular acclaim in the late 390's, shortly after her death. She is the patron saint of mothers, especially those who pray for their children's conversion or those with difficult marriages.
And so, let us turn to St. Monica in prayer and ask for her intercession for our family members who have fallen away.

The Intercessory Prayer Team will assist with those prayers. In the Gathering Space, outside the Vesting Room door, there is a white box with a statue of St. Monica. On the box is:

- A two-sided card with the St. Monica Sodality Prayer on one side, and The Chaplet of Divine Mercy on the other
- Prayer Intention cards for you to fill out and deposit in the box

Feel free to take a prayer card home and use it to help in your prayers. Complete the Prayer Intention card and drop it in the box. The Intercessory Prayer Team will take the cards and pray for your intentions. Please know team does not read over the intentions. These are kept confidential and burned after they are prayed over.

Our saints are eager to pray for our intentions. So let's keep them busy!

St. Monica... pray for us!

Grief Support

Heather Herbst - Parish Nurse

Overcoming Loneliness After Loss
From CareNotes by Erin Diehl

Loneliness is a huge concern and often becomes an obstacle within our grief journey. Many have said that it is "worse at night," that they have tried all the practical ways to deal with it, and often ask themselves, "How am I ever going to do this alone?" Here are a few tips:

1. Reach out to Friends - When loneliness seems overwhelming, don't sit around and wait for someone to call you! You need to initiate the encounter. If you seek support, you will find it!
2. Cultivate an appreciation for solitude - There is a difference between loneliness and solitude. Develop a sense of being comfortable by yourself. How do we do that? Find activities that can be done alone and bring you satisfaction, peace of mind, or a sense of accomplishment. Some examples are gardening, puzzles, painting, reading, walking, etc. Although activities can never replace your loved one, you may find comfort in doing activities that bring you joy.
3. Get Support - Private counseling, support groups, or both.
4. Ask God for Strength - Prayer is an excellent coping tool! Consider spiritual books or podcasts. Keep a diary for gratitude or just to express your feelings.

If you or someone you love are currently navigating through your own grief, consider attending our Grief Support Meetings here at St. Isidore. Meetings are held on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month at 6:30 PM in the Executive Conference Room. If it is your first time attending, please reach out to Heather, Parish Nurse, or Diane, Grief Facilitator, through the church office at 586-286-1700. You can also email Heather at heather@stisidore.church. We are here to help you by offering kind and friendly accompaniment throughout this difficult time.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
We learn from God that he wants us to be honest and trustworthy with the little things, because if we are, He will trust us with bigger things, but we can't serve both God and money.

Family Time - Fun Fact
The gospel talked about the importance of being truthful. Try going this week without lying. FACT: In 1921 the first polygraph machine was created by John A. Larson, a policeman and physiologist from California. The machine simultaneously measured continuous changes in blood pressure, heart rate, and respiration rate to detect if someone was lying.

Power in Prayer

Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Worshipping God

Suggested Prayer/Activity: Be aware that God is with you throughout your day. Talk to Him about anything and everything. Don't let the idols of this world take you away from Him. He is waiting to hear from you.

> There shall be no strange god among you nor shall you worship any alien god.
> Psalm 81:10

Did You Know?
Prayer Unites Us to God

St. Alphonsus Liguori took the worship of God and daily prayer seriously: "There is a practice that is most powerful in keeping us united with God. That practice is the constant recollection of his presence." He preached the nearness of God, extolling God's approachability: "Acquire the habit of speaking to God as if you were alone with him, familiarly and with confidence and love, as the dearest and most loving of friends."

Alphonsus considered Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament a very special opportunity: "You may be sure that of all the moments of your life, the time you spend before the Divine Sacrament will be that which will give you more strength during life and more consolation at the hour of your death..."

Finally, Alphonsus suggests keeping sight of the hope of heaven: "The brightest ornaments in the crown of the blessed in heaven are the sufferings which they have borne patiently on earth."

K of C Monthly Recognition

Brian McAleer - K of C

The St. Isidore K of C Council monthly recognizes a "Knight of the Month" and a "Family of the Month" for their efforts in serving the council/parish/community. Shown are Tom VanSlambrouck and Ronald (Carol not present) Hyso receiving certificates for September's Knight and Family of the Month from Grand Knight Patrick Lang at the September General Membership Meeting.

lies in shrugging our shoulders and turning away when others suffer. Justice, then, is not built in a single day or achieved by one act alone. It is a lifelong mission and a work of love, courage, and perseverance. Every prayer we lift, every hand we extend, every dishonest scale we refuse to use, every voice we raise for the voiceless—these are the foundations of a more just world.

As we pray this Sunday, let us keep this question before us: "What am I willing to do—here, now, and every day—to build a more just world?"

SVdP provides support and resources to those in need, similar to constructing a strong foundation for a home. Just as a well-built home provides safety and stability for a family, SVdP gives effective aid to help families create sustainable solutions that empower them over the long term. This approach fosters a sense of ownership and dignity, allowing those in need to create a future for themselves.

We are in need of cash donations to continue our work in our community, in helping those less fortunate. For your convenience, SVdP blue envelopes are located at each church entrance. Our deepest gratitude for your help.

Additionally, our parishioners are very generous each week by helping the pantry with needed items. We are grateful for this too. If you are able to, please keep the pantry needs in mind this week as you shop in stores or online.

This week the pantry is in need of the following items:
