THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

CONNECTING POINT

 Peggy Casing - Director of Discipleship Formation  peggyc@stol.church

True story: Early in my ministry, when my girls were young, I left work long enough to drop in for dinner with my family, knowing that I had to be quick in order to head back for the evening classes. In this brief encounter, I don't remember the particulars, but my husband and I had a disagreement, and I had "words" with my oldest before we even got to the table. When, while eating, something happened, and my youngest burst into tears, I had a moment of clarity. I saw the idiocy of the situation and the real power of words, mood, and atmosphere over those around me. In that moment, I burst into laughter and said, "Well, I see my work here is done! I've made you all miserable. Now, I might as well head back to work!" It took a moment, but we all ended up laughing. I apologized, affirmed my love for them all, and apologized again; the mood instantly lightened, and our evening went on as planned. In the span of thirty minutes, we had all learned a powerful lesson about our "connectedness" and our impacts on others—me most of all! This idea of connections with others comes to mind when I think of the Trinity.

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, each of our readings (Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13;

▶ Hands in Service, Hearts in Stewardship

Mike Aprile - Evangelical Coordinator

We extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who helped with the recent mulching of all the areas on our church grounds. Your generosity, hard work, and spirit of service helped make our campus more beautiful and welcoming for all who visit and worship here.

Thanks to the Knights of Columbus team: Fred & Karen VanPamel, Jim Sprague, Tom VanSlambrouck, Scott Payton, Richard Bua, and Mark and Joe Paoletti for their time and effort spreading mulch throughout the grounds. We also thank Grand Knight Pat Lang for coordinating and organizing the Knights' participation.

A special thank you also to Boy Scout Troop #248 for their help, once again, relocating and spreading the mulch. Your willingness to serve, year after year, is greatly appreciated.

We are equally grateful to the members of the Garden Team who prepared the areas through weeding and cleanup prior to the mulching effort: David & Patty Agauas, Katie Biland, Kim Demorest, Rick Harris, Laura Chidsey, Kathy & Jeff Plank, Karen Smith, Joann VanEeno, and others who generously gave their time and talents. Their continued support and dedication to caring for our parish grounds is truly a blessing.

Thank you all for your stewardship and service to our parish community. Through your care for our church grounds, you help live out the Catholic Social Teaching call to Care for God's Creation and remind us that caring for the beauty of our parish home is one way we honor the gifts God has entrusted to us.

▶ New Festival Game

▶ Katie Wynn - Strawberry Festival Committee

The Strawberry Festival is adding a brand-new attraction on Friday night: Survey Showdown! If you've ever watched a certain popular TV game show where contestants try to guess the most popular answers to survey questions, you'll already understand the concept. (For legal reasons, we'll stop there.) This fast-paced game isn't about knowing the right answer, but rather about knowing what everyone else thinks the answer is. Gather a team and get ready for plenty of laughs, surprises, and friendly competition.

Two games will be offered on Friday evening, with prizes awarded to the top teams in each round. Whether you're playing or just watching, Survey Showdown is designed for all ages and is a great way to spend part of your evening at the Festival. Pre-registration is encouraged, so be sure to visit the Strawberry Festival page on our website for details and sign-up information. Come see if your family can think like the crowd!

▶ Corpus Christi Adoration

▶ Amy Righi - Music & Liturgy Director

All are warmly invited to remain after Mass on the weekend of June 6 & 7, for a brief period of Eucharistic Adoration in honor of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

Following each Mass, there will be a 15-20 minute time of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Our prayer will begin with the singing of Pange Lingua, leading us into a reverent period of silent adoration. This sacred time offers an opportunity to rest in the Lord's presence, to give thanks, and to deepen our love for Christ truly present in the Eucharist.

Our prayer will conclude with the Divine Praises and Tantum Ergo, lifting our hearts in praise and thanksgiving.

All are encouraged to stay, even for a few moments, avoid the parking lot chaos and most importantly, to honor the gift of the Eucharist and to grow in devotion to the Lord who remains with us.

Upcoming Events

- June 7 – Corpus Christi
- June 14 – Graduation Mass & Reception (by registration only)
- June 21 – Happy Father’s Day
- June 26 - to June 28 – Strawberry Festival
- July 4 – Independence Day

The Most Holy Trinity

The message today is simple, God loves EVERYONE so much that he sent his only Son, Jesus, to save us. He did not come to punish us but to forgive us of our sins and bring us to be with God forever.

Family Time - Fun

Try building a family tree with your entire family on it. Be creative and don't forget Jesus is always part of that same tree.

Connecting Point (con't)

and John 3:16–18) mentions some Person(s) or aspect of the Trinity. Since we understand the Holy Spirit to be the very embodiment of the eternal, mutual love shared between the Father and the Son, what stands out is this idea of total communion (unity) of these Persons. Bound together in this special relationship, we proclaim that we believe in one God. Further, flowing from that understanding, the first lines of our Gospel, where we hear, “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,” take on a totally different meaning. Our belief in One Trinitarian God means that all three Persons (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) were on the cross! The cross, then, is a sign—not of a maniacal father sacrificing his son, but of our God (in the Person of Jesus, fully human and fully divine, all of the One, True God) in an act of sacrificial love for humankind.

So, how do we honor and share in this love? St. Paul, in our second reading, tells us to “mend [our] ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you” (emphasis added). God’s divine love naturally overflows—or is “poured out”—into the world, inviting humanity to share in the very life of the Trinity, but we need to do our part. As I learned from my family situation, we need to quash the crabbiness and negativity that can bring people to tears, choosing love and peace instead. With the Trinity in mind, we ask ourselves, “How am I spreading love, peace, and unity?”

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Entreating Mary's Help

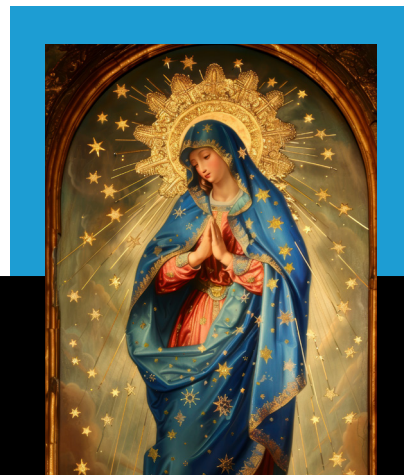

Suggested Prayer: Hail Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head.

Revelation 12:1

Did You Know? 33 Days to Morning Glory

Mary knows the power of the Redemption, the power of merciful Love, better than anyone. In fact, Pope St. John Paul says she knows it "more than any other heart in the whole universe, visible and invisible." Therefore, she calls us not to conversion but "to accept her motherly help to return to the source of Redemption." For again, Mary's task is to bring us to the Fountain of Mercy, to the pierced side of Christ, to his Merciful Heart. Essentially, then, concecrating ourselves to Mary "means accepting her help to offer ourselves and the whole of mankind" to the infinitely Holy God.
