CONNECTING POINT

👤 Chris Kozlowski - FOP Mission Support Director ✉ chris@stisidore.church

Years ago, I attended a seminar where the facilitator asked us to draw a picture representing our lives at that moment. After spending about ten minutes sorting through my thoughts, one image came to mind: a juggler.

At the time, I was busy juggling life, marriage, children, friends, health, a career, and countless other responsibilities. The challenge with being a juggler is that there is no real peace. Have you ever seen someone juggling who didn't look tense and focused on keeping everything from crashing to the ground?

Everything I was juggling was important (and it still is), but over time, I came to realize that the most important thing in life is a relationship with God. Finding time for God is not just another ball to add to the juggling routine; it is the very thing that makes all of the other responsibilities worthwhile. When we intentionally make time for prayer, immerse ourselves in Scripture, participate in a faith community, and worship God, we discover that the juggling becomes easier. God brings order to our priorities and peace to our hearts.

I have often asked friends and

FR. RON'S Reflections

A warm welcome to all of the guests who are joining us this week for our Strawberry Festival. Thank you for your support. Enjoy!

This is my last weekend at St. Isidore as my retirement begins this Tuesday. When Msgr. Mike Hrydziuszko announced, in August of 2012, that he was accepting a new assignment, my two sisters and a few cousins who have been longtime members of the parish encouraged me to "put in" to come here. They love our parish and knew that I would too. They were correct! These last fourteen years have been wonderful blessings for me.

I am very grateful to our parish staff, countless volunteers, ministry leaders, and everyone who shared their time and gifts so selflessly. Thank you for your support, your encouragement, your patience, and your prayers. You have blessed me in countless ways. Your faith, generosity, kindness, and willingness to serve have made this community a beautiful reflection of Christ. Together, we have accomplished much, but every success has been the result of many hands, generous hearts, and God's abundant grace.

Priests in our archdiocese can retire at age 70. I stayed on for five additional years because of my love for this parish and for parish ministry. It is very difficult leaving the parish, but it's time. I cannot keep up anymore.

I am confident that St. Isidore will continue to be a welcoming, vital parish, continuing strong outreach to those in need and joyful worship. I am confident that you will be very well ministered to by Fr. John Bettin. He is a great fit for our parish, as he is very down to earth, friendly, and a very good preacher. Please give him a warm welcome!

My ministry won't be ending, just slowing down. I will be living in an apartment owned by St. Joan of Arc Parish in St. Clair Shores and helping them when needed.

Let's continue to pray for each other! Love you!

family whether they have ever felt worse after attending Mass. Almost unanimously, the answer is no. In fact, most say they leave feeling more peaceful, more centered, and more hopeful than when they arrived.

Life will always be busy. We will continue rushing our children from one activity to another, managing responsibilities at work, and trying to keep all the pieces of life in motion. But in the midst of the busyness, let us remember what matters most. Let us make time each day to nurture our relationships with God. When God is at the center, we find the peace and strength we need to carry everything else.

ARCHBISHOP OF DETROIT

June 21, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We've reached another important milestone in our Archdiocesan Restructuring process. Over the last several weeks, we have completed over 400 parish listening sessions, hosted at every parish in the Archdiocese of Detroit. These listening sessions were opportunities for the Faithful to see the proposed models for pastorates in their planning area, and share valuable feedback on what might work, what needs additional refinement, and other insights into the local communities of each parish. These listening sessions were not a simple offering; rather, they were a high-level view of a deeply layered process. I am thankful to all of our parishes for hosting these events, as well as all those who had a part in making the sessions possible: our priests, deacons, parish staff, volunteers, Key Parish Leaders and Primary Points of Contact, our on-site technical contacts, on-site facilities contacts, scribes, volunteer facilitators, and of course—the participants!

I want you to know that, while parish listening sessions have been completed, there is still time and space for you to provide your feedback. You can visit the restructuring website at restructuring.aod.org to access your parish workbook and the information presented at your parish listening sessions, including the videos from your listening session, the proposed models for your planning area, and the post-listening session survey.

I encourage each of you to first and foremost find time to thoughtfully and prayerfully engage with these materials. Then, please share your feedback on the proposed models in the online survey. Your suggestions, insight, and recommendations are essential to this next phase of our restructuring. Every piece of feedback received will be read and taken into consideration. This survey will remain open until July 31st.

In August, further discernment and refinement will continue as we review and analyze all the data from the parish listening sessions, the online survey responses, and ongoing feedback from our priests. We expect to announce the new pastorates in April 2027, with implementation beginning July 1, 2027.

Brothers and sisters, I know this process has not been an easy one for many of you. I know, too, that as we discern the future of our archdiocese, difficult decisions must be made. But my hope remains in our shared vision for the future: vibrant faith communities, flourishing priests, and sustainable, mission-ready parishes.

Join me in prayer during this spiritual moment, as we continue to walk this path together, and know that I'm praying for each of you.

Very sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,

Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger
Archbishop of Detroit

► K of C Monthly Recognition

👤 Brian McAleer - K of C

On Thursday, 6/11/26, members from the St. Isidore Knights of Columbus (K of C) Council conducted an Exemplification ceremony welcoming one new Brother Knight into the K of C. This ceremony imparts lessons that inspire men to serve and teaches our time-honored principles in a way that is appropriate for today. It presents the lessons of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity in powerful contemporary language.

▶ Power in Prayer

👤 Sue Rebets - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Forgiveness

Suggested Prayer: Prayer for Strength to Forgive

Faultless Lord, enduring death for me, You have consummated the debt of my sins:
Your sacrifice was absolute! Grant me the strength to also forgive others, To excuse their transgressions against me. So I may truly reflect this spiritual fruit, obliterate any persistent feelings of malice. Let each trespass end as a closing chapter, my continuing on the road of righteousness. Forgive my sins as I aspire to forgive others. You are truly archetypical of forgiveness. You are a most forgiving Lord!

(Catholic Online)

Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Sacred Seeds

Question: Why do Catholics Baptize infants while some other Christian denominations wait until the individual discerns for themselves?

(Answer on page 14)

Did You Know? Freedom Through Forgiveness

As an exorcist of 18 years, I have experienced time and again the importance of forgiveness. Demonically-afflicted people are never liberated if they hold on to anger and unforgiveness. It only makes sense because such makes us more like Satan, who is full of rage and eternal resentment.

Forgiving does not mean that abusive actions done against us are good. No. But it does mean that we let go of a desire for revenge. Rather, we pray for those who persecute us, and we leave the perpetrators in the hands of God.

Loving and forgiving makes us like our Heavenly Father. This is our goal, by the grace of Jesus Christ, to become like God. Then we are liberated from evil and ready for the Kingdom.

Sacred Seeds Answer: Catholics baptize infants because they believe Baptism is God's gift of grace, not something we earn or wait to choose on our own. From a Catholic perspective, Baptism:

- Removes original sin and begins new life in Christ
- Makes a person a member of the Church

- Gives sanctifying grace from the very start of life

This understanding is rooted in teachings like Gospel of John 3:5 ("born of water and Spirit") and the early Church practice of baptizing entire households (see Acts of the Apostles 16:15, 33).

Catholics also see a parallel with circumcision in the Old Covenant, which welcomed infants into God's people. Baptism is the New Covenant way of entering into that relationship.
