33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONNECTING POINT

Amy Righi - Music & Liturgy Director
amy@stisidore.church

In the Gospel of Matthew (25:14–30), the master entrusts each servant with “talents.” The question is what each one does with them. The third servant lets fear keep him from using what he has been given.

Is fear keeping you from sharing any of your talents? In this Gospel, the word "talent" refers to money, but the “talents” God has given us can also include time, resources, opportunities to make a difference, and our abilities.

Are you giving all you can of what God has blessed you with?

At each parish in our Family, we invite you to answer the call to help us provide prayerful worship experiences. Consider chatting with a ministry representative after Mass or during the week to learn more about their group and how you could become an integral, valued part of it. As many of our liturgical ministers are growing older, and some are no longer serving due to physical limitations, we could use your help!

Please consider joining one of our ministry opportunities and making a difference in your parish community. There are openings and needs in each of the following ministries:

Not every ministry is for everybody, but there is at least one ministry for everyone. Ask a friend, find a ministry representative after Mass, or contact the Parish Office for more information. Training and guidance are provided, and you won't be scheduled to serve until you are comfortable.

I am continually amazed at how much more deeply we can share in the celebration of Mass when we all contribute our gifts of time and "talent."

Thank You for Your Support!

Benjamin Rivero - Eagle Scout

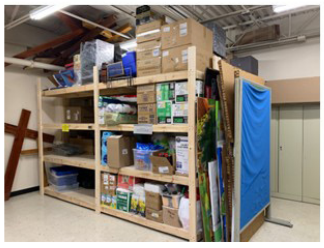

Dear St. Isidore Parishioners – I want to thank you for your support to help me complete my Eagle Scout project for the parish. Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

God gives us all different talents. If you keep your talents locked away or hide your special abilities or if you are afraid to make a difference, how then can you share in the love and kindness of God? Remember to use your talents and share them to help make the world a better place.

Family Time Challenge

I'm sure we've all rubbed a balloon on our shirt to create static and then held it over our head to make our hair stand on end. Let's try something different this time. Take 2 balloons – blow them up, one gets a sad face and one a happy face. The sad face balloon is like the servant who did nothing. Using the happy face balloon statically charge it by rubbing it on a piece of fleece or carpet. Now create a slow steady stream of water from a faucet and hold the statically charged ballon close to the water and watch what happens! Happy Balloons change things! Be a Happy Balloon!

Question: What is the significance of the Prayer of the Faithful (General Intercessions)?

(Answer on page 12)

Power in Prayer

Sue Rebits - Evangelization Committee

This Week's Intention: Guidance

Suggested Prayer: Prayer for Guidance from Saint Albert

O Father, we humbly seek the intercession of Saint Albert the Great, a beacon of wisdom and knowledge. Illuminate our minds with understanding and guide our hearts in seeking truth. May we embody his spirit of learning and compassion, fostering a love for all creation. Amen.

> Banish, therefore, from thy heart the distractions of earth and turn thine eyes to spiritual joys, that thou mayest learn at last to repose in the light of the contemplation of God.
> St. Albert the Great

Did You Know?
St. Albert the Great

St. Albert the Great was known as the "teacher of everything there is to know," was a scientist long before the age of science.

He was born in Germany and studied at the University of Padua where he met Blessed Jordan of Saxony, the Dominican who made the rounds of the universities of Europe drawing the best young men into the Dominicans.

After several teaching assignments, he came in 1241 to the University of Paris, where he lectured in theology. In Paris, he had gathered around him a small band of budding theologians, the chief of whom was Thomas Aquinas, who accompanied him to Cologne and became his greatest pupil.

In 1260, he was appointed bishop but resigned after three years to be an adviser to the pope and was sent on several diplomatic missions. In his latter years took part in the Council of Lyons in 1274, and in his old age traveled to Paris to defend the teaching of his student Thomas Aquinas.

St. Albert the Great was convinced that all creation spoke of God and that the tiniest piece of scientific knowledge told us something about Him. Besides the Bible, God has given us the book of creation revealing something of His wisdom and power. In creation, Albert saw the hand of God.

We celebrate St. Albert's feast day on November 15.

"Comfort Crafters" Prayer Blanket/Shawl Ministry

Pat Schmeiser 586-286-1700

Mother Teresa said, "Be someone to somebody."

St. Isidore Parishioners have distributed many hundreds of prayer blankets and shawls to people who need comfort, love, and the knowledge that others care about them and pray for them.

Our blanket/shawl ministry always has our recipients in mind as our mission is to:

- Love the lonely
- Hug the hurting
- Visit the sick
- Bless the broken
- Befriend the lost

And... comfort all who need someone to provide comfort. We can, each of us, be that someone.

We work with you toward our goal. Thank you from The Comfort Crafters.

Christmas Giving Tree Continues

Mike Aprile - Evangelical Charity Coordinator

There's still time to share the joy of Christmas through our Annual Giving Tree Program! Now through November 29, you can help bring hope and comfort to those in need by supporting this year's Giving Tree. Trees are located in the Gathering Space and at Mary's Garden entrance. Each "ornament" envelope lists the organizations we are supporting—simply place your donation inside, mark the group(s) you wish to help, and return it in the offertory basket or parish office.

Donations of cash, check (payable to St. Isidore Church), or online gifts (at stisidore.church/give) are gratefully accepted. Please no Gift Cards. Your generosity helps share Christ's love and make Christmas brighter for others. Thank you for your continued support!

Sacred Seeds Answer: The Prayer of the Faithful, or General Intercessions, is when the Church responds to God's Word by praying for the needs of the world. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal identifies four principal areas of intention: the Church, the world and public authorities, those in particular need, and the local community and parish.
